DEBS ENTERS THE STRIKE

His Social Democracy Is Expected to Capture the Big Convention.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.—E. V. Debs of Terre Haute, Ind.; M. D. Ratchford of Columbus, Ohio and W. D. Mahon of Detroit were among the delegates to the labor conference, to arrive this morning.

"I'm out of it to a certain extent," said Mr. Debs this morning, "I am no longer affiliated with any labor body, but have come simply as a guest of the conference under the general call."

Mr. Debs would not venture an opinion on the probable outcome of the conference.

"Is there any probability of a sympathetic strike?" was asked.

"I hardly think so, in fact, these delegates are not empowered to order a strike. They can do no more than report back to their respective bodies, the sense of the convention.

"Government by injunction," Mr. Debs went on "as exemplified in the struggle of the miners has been carried to the extreme and the people are revolting. I expect the convention will take some very decisive action in this matter."

Mr. Ratchford has a plan which he will probably present to the conference calling upon every working man and woman in the country to contribute one cent per day of their wages to a fund for the relief of the striking miners. This money, he thinks, will amount to between $1000 and $2000 per day. Part of this fund will be used to keep men at work among the strikers in the Pittsburg district, where the operators propose to start their mines with non-union men. In other words, the camps there will be maintained, with the hope of eventually influencing those now at work to quit.

Among the other arrivals of the morning were James O'Connell, representing the city branch of the American Federation of Labor, Chicago; A. Damerill, of the Industrial Council, Kansas City; Victor L. Berger, with credentials from the Social Democracy of Milwaukee and Frederick F. Heath, representing the street railway men, also of Milwaukee; W. D. Ryan, Vice President of the United Mine Workers of Illinois; Jacob Tazelaar who comes from the Brotherhood of Painters, Chicago, and R. P. O'Neil, Rich Hill, Mo.; John Mitchell, Spring Valley, Ill.; George Wallace Scammon, and Joseph Pollard of Belleville, Ill., all members of the miners' organizations.

Much disappointment is expressed at headquarters over the non-arrival of Samuel Gompers, but it is believed he will be in St. Louis this afternoon or tonight.

As to what the convention would do, none of the delegates seen this morning were willing to forecast.

There is no denying the fact that the "Social Democracy" movement, headed by Mr. Debs, has a large following, and it would not be a surprise to see that new venture gain control of the meeting.

An effort will be made to amalgamate all labor bodies represented and to this end a movement looking to the appointment of a general conference committee will be presented by Mr. Steinbliss of St. Louis.

"My idea is," said Mr. Steinbliss, "to have one or two delegates from each branch of organized labor form a general conference committee. While I hardly think such a committee, if appointed by the conference will do anything at this meeting, they will get together later. By that time our ideas will have crystalized and some definite platform upon which a general amalgamation of labor could stand would be formulated. It is bound to come. We must be united."

It is not expected that the convention will do anything to-day, beyond perfecting organization and appointing a committee on credentials.

Chairman Steinbliss of the local committee of arrangements, called the conference to order at 10 o'clock. About 100 people were scattered about the hall, not all of them, however, were delegates. Mr. Steinbliss said as the call for the convention had already been read, and as many of the delegates were unaware of the meeting place of the convention and the hour, he moved that an adjournment be had until 11 o'clock. The recess was taken.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the convention was again called to order. W. B. Prescott, president of the National Typographical Union, of Indianapolis was chosen temporary chairman and W. C. Pierce of Columbus temporary secretary. Mr. Prescott then appointed a committee on credentials.

Considerable controversy arose over the naming of a committee on resolutions, which, although the convention was not yet permanently organized, was moved by one of the delegates. There were motions to adjourn until 1 o'clock, and in the midst of this parliamentary tangle Delegate Sovereign shouted: "I'm sick and tired of resolutions; this is the time for action. I move, Mr. Chairman, that the motion to appoint a committee on resolutions be amended to read 'on resolutions and plan of action.'"

This brought out a flood of amendments and motions but the whole matter was finally tabled and the meeting adjourned until 2 P. M., at which hour the report of the committee on credentials will be presented.

When asked as to the truth of the statement reputed to have been made in Pittsburg by M. P. Carrick, president of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, in regard to the mobilization of idle miners at Pittsburg, President Ratchford of the United Mine Workers of America, said:

"I know nothing at all about it; have never heard of such a plan being proposed. It may have, however, without coming to my attention as I have been away from Pittsburg for some time."

After re-assembling the report of the Committee on Credentials was read and a Committee on Resolutions appointed. The committee numbers five members as follows: W. C. Pearce, of the miners; W. D. Mahon, of the street railway men; ex-State Senator Forger of Indiana, in whose favor Mr. Debs declined; G. C. Clemmens of Topeka, representing the Populists, and James R. Sovereign, the Knights of Labor representative.

After the addresses had been made a recess was taken until this evening.

PITTSBURG STRIKERS ARE DISAPPOINTED.

Rain and Hunger Are Affecting the Health of the Campers.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 30.—What many of the miners of the DeArmitt region predicted last week failed to come off, the week opening with a heavy rain storm. A few of the strikers, however, turned out for missionary work.

The present weather is having a bad effect on the campers. While the general health of the men is good, a number have severe colds and one man is down with pneumonia.

M. P. Carrick, president of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators of America, says that a proposition is to be presented at the St. Louis convention to mobilize the army of unemployed in the country in the vicinity of Pittsburg in the event of a determined effort on the part of the operators to start the mines with imported labor. It is understood President Carrick says that an appeal will first be made to the railroads of the country, not as an organization, but as individuals, to not handle coal dug at non-union mines.

If this fails the mobilizing in Pittsburg will be considered. These men, he says, will not come here to destroy property or take part in riot or insurrection, but will be here to show that this is a peaceful battle and that the working class are as a unit in crying for relief.

WILL NOT BE A GENERAL STRIKE.

Eugene Debs Says Injunctions Are Condemned by Public Sentiment.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 30.—Eugene V. Debs left for St. Louis tonight to attend the conference called by the National Executive Board of United Mine Workers. He says there has been a remarkable change in public sentiment on the injunction question; that whereas, three years ago there was hardly any dissent from the course of Judges who were issuing restraining orders against the strikers, the preponderance of sentiment now is in opposition.

"The fact is," said he, "it has been carried to the extreme and public sentiment revolts. If the injunction is upheld no strike can be won. The court issues the restraining order and fixes a day for the hearing two or three weeks ahead. In the meantime the strike will have been lost."

Speaking of the possible action of the St. Louis conference, Mr. Debs was not willing to be quoted, but it was evident that he did not believe a general sympathetic strike would be ordered.

THIRTY THOUSAND PEOPLE STARVING.

Miners Cannot Possibly Live on the Wages Offered by the Owners.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LEBANON, Ind., August 30.—An immense meeting was held tonight at the Opera House in behalf of the starving coal miners in Indiana. Judge Thomas J. Terhunes made a statement of the condition of the miners as he found it while making his investigation as Governor Mount's special commissioner. In the course of his address he said:

"There are 8000 families in this State in destitution. Sixty thousand people who are literally starving. A few years ago they received $1.25 per ton, now the average price paid is about 35 cents per ton. A good miner can make $1 a day and is allowed to work two or three days each week. They are compelled to trade at company stores and the prices they pay are left entirely to the nine operator. The miners admit that they can-

CHICAGO'S MYSTERY.

Sausage-Maker Luetgert Is on Trial for Boiling His Wife.

STATE'S THEORY OUTLINED.

JURORS TO SEE THE FACTORY.

Grewsome Details of the Case as Told by the State's Attorneys.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—The trial of Adolph Luetgert for the murder of his wife, began in earnest today, the preliminary work of securing a jury having been completed. Long before the case was called, the corridors of the court building were thronged with people trying to gain entrance.

Contrary to the expectation of the State, the jury will be asked by the defense to witness an experiment in the vat in the basement of the sausage factory. This is to be the result of an experiment conducted by Luetgert's attorneys, Saturday and yesterday.

The body of a man of about Mrs. Luetgert's age and weight, who met death by violence last Thursday, was taken to the factory at 607 Diversy avenue, and immersed in a solution of caustic potash. The result exceeds their expectations.

The experts reported that after boiling the body in a 15 per cent solution of potash for the same length of time, three and one-half hours, and under the same circumstances as the State alleges Luetgert disintegrated the body of his wife, the complete skeleton of the cadaver remained intact and the solution had but little effect upon the clothing.

As a result of the test the defense will, it is said, ask Judge Tuthill to remove his court and the jury to the basement of the big sausage factory for a few hours and witness another experiment, which the defense claims will completely disprove the State's theory of disintegration.

Luetgert was calm and composed when he was brought into court and he had apparently been greatly refreshed by Sunday's respite from the daily court room ordeal. Assistant State's Attorney McEwen, formally opened the case for the State. On the wall, close to the jury-box, were hung maps of the Luetgert sausage factory, the Luetgert home and all the surroundings of the place where it is charged the prisoner killed his wife and destroyed the body. The attorney for the State began with the disappearance of Mrs. Luetgert on May 1st, and next described the visit on May 4th of Bicknese, brother of Mrs. Luetgert, when he called to see his sister and discovered that she had disappeared. He dwelt upon the apparent indifference of the husband, his statement that he had not informed the police, but had hired two detectives, and his invitation to Bicknese to call again in about a week, when he would tell him if anything had been discovered concerning the whereabouts of his sister.

Attorney McEwen told the jury that Luetgert's statement that he had hired two detectives to search for his wife would be proven false.

Mr. McEwen said it is the theory of the State that Mrs. Luetgert accompanied her husband into the factory, between 10:30 and 11 o'clock. About 10:30 her little son Louis, returned from the circus and saw her sitting in the kitchen.

The conversation of the boy with his mother was interrupted by Luetgert, who came in and ordered the boy to bed. Before going to sleep the boy heard his father descending the back stairs toward the factory, where he had slept for years. Mr. McEwen said it is the theory of the State that Mrs. Luetgert descended the stairs at the same time and went to the factory. The boy did not hear her steps because she wore house slippers which made no noise. Luetgert and his wife were seen in the alley in the rear of the house a few minutes later they were seen going through the gate which led to no place except the factory.

The attorney for the State then detailed the movements at the Luetgert factory, the turning on the steam to the vat, the sending of Watchman Bailk shortly after to a drug store and Bailk's subsequent errand to a drug store, all of which kept him out of the factory for an hour and a half. He was away when Mrs. Luetgert was last seen alive in the alley.

The alleged motive which actuated Luetgert according to the theory of the State was then described. Mr. McEwen said Luetgert despised his wife. He had treated her with violence as the evidence of the State will show. He had no affection for her and lived alone in the factory. There, the attorney said, he had been visited by other women. Judge Vincent objected to this statement but Judge Tuthill overruled the objection. Mr. McEwen said witnesses would testify that they saw Luetgert choke his wife in the chicken house back of the residence. She said: "You need not kill me as you did that man, for I have no money." This caused Luetgert to say that she would

NEW YORK POLITICS.

Organizations Uniting to Name the Next Candidate for Mayor.

THE OFFICE GOES BEGGING.

Republicans Decide on Low to Beat the Tammany Tiger.

SENATOR PLATT WILL FIGHT.

He Has Opposition in Worth Who Is Open in His Hostility.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Tonight's conference between Republican leaders and prominent leaders of several organizations is apt to lead to an important bearing upon the issue of who shall be the first Mayor of Greater New York.

A prime factor of the conference will be Senator Thomas C. Platt. Whether or not the city of New York Citizens' Union is to be represented at the meeting is to be decided to-night at a conference of the executive committee.

Some members of the party are of the opinion that only in such an alliance lies an assurance of defeating the Tammany nominee, whoever he may be, while others regard the proposed alliance as a surrender of the union's principle of non-partnership.

Mr. Low has placed himself on record as accepting a nomination as candidate for Mayor of New York with the distinct understanding that if elected he should be entirely free from all party dictation or by any so-called party leaders, and this fact is regarded as an obstacle to his acceptance by the Republicans. He can paign thus far has been principally in the hands of the Citizens' Union. The suggestion has been made that the Mayoralty nomination be conceded to President Low and all the other elective offices to the regular Republican organization the canvass to be conducted by Chairman Quigg of the Republican County Committee.

The practicability of this proposition is one of the points to be discussed at tonight's conference. At the conference there may develop also facts as to the reported differences between Senator Platt and Jacob Worth, Chairman of the Republican organization of King's County, upon which Democrats have been counting to some extent.

Mr. Worth has been quoted as giving expression to hostility to Senator Platt as the dominating spirit in the party, but there is a possibility that the differences of the two men may be adjusted at an early day.

The Democrat's plans for the Mayoralty campaign appear to be even more nebulous than those of the Republicans. There is no one whose name is an overshadowing portion.

Charles W. Dayton, who has been strongly urged for the nomination is just back from a visit to Paris. He says he has no ambition to be Mayor of Greater New York, but would like a place on the bench. His preference would be to have the nomination given to such a man as Charles R. Coudert, or to ex-Judge M. J. O'Brien, Judge Lawrence or Judge Gaynor.

A SCHEMING YOUNGSTER.

Gets Away With Much Money Through the Fair Will Case.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—James Walter Gough, the youth alleged to have signed the name of Attorney Delmas to a pretended assignment of all the proceeds of his law business as security for money advanced, failed to appear in Judge Slack's court today when the Angus-Craven case was resumed and the court proceeded to investigate the matter in his absence.

Charles Moulter, a carriage trimmer, testified to the effect that two weeks ago Gough went to him and borrowed some money upon an alleged Fair will. He already owed him about $700 which was secured by certain papers with Delmas' name signed to them.

Gough represented that his uncle was one of the jurors in the Fair case and that therefore Delmas would win the case and pay him all that he alleged he owed him and on this showing Moulter lent him the money.

Judge Slack said that it was evident that Moulter had been imposed upon and that Gough should be arrested for having obtained money by means of false pretenses, and attorney Nagle intimated that he would call the attention of the Grand Jury to the matter.

THE WAR IN INDIA.

Natives Hold Two Important Passes and the Situation Is Serious.

BURNED A SCHOOL HOUSE.

The Enemy Is Carrying on Warfare With a Ruthless Hand.

KOHAL AFRIDIS ARE LOYAL.

Despite the Mullah's Efforts They Refuse to Join in War.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SIMLA, Aug. 30.—The Shinwara and Kahi police posts on the Samana range were attacked, evacuated by their garrisons and burned by the enemy Sunday night.

In addition the Orakzais on Sunday night looted the Nariab, Samana Bazaar and burned the school.

The Kohal pass Afridis are still loyal, inspite of the Mullah's strenuous efforts to excite their chiefs. They promise not to oppose the Pashi war troops who are marching on Kohal.

GUARD THE PASS.

PESHAWUR, Aug. 30.—A strong force of Afridis, it is just announced, has closed the Kohal pass, and therefore the proposed advance of a column of British troops through that pass has been countermanded.

With the Khyber and Kohal passes in the hands of the enemy, the gravity of the situation increases.

FANATICS WAGE A BLOODY BATTLE.

They Are Forced to Retire After Losing Twenty-Eight Officers.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BAHIA, August 30.—Advices from Rio Janeiro state that fanatics attacked several convoys of provisions and amunition in the interior a few days ago and a bloody battle followed.

The fanatics were forced to retire after severe losses. The Brazilian troops had twenty-eight officers wounded.

The fanatics are now reorganizing their forces and another attack on convoys is expected, as the fanatics are in need of ammunition.

TWO EX-OFFICIALS UNDER ARREST.

Charged With Embezzlement and Keeping a Gaming Table.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Herman W. Vansenden, private secretary to Secretary Carlisle in the last administration, and Denis Canteley, formerly an employe of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, were arrested today on warrants charging them with the embezzlement of $4,887 from Wilkins & Co., a brokerage firm.

They were charged also with maintaining a gaming table.

The two men went into the brokerage business this spring, and the arrests are a result of their operations.

OFF FOR SACRAMENTO.

Supervisors Will Go Before the State Board of Equalization Tomorrow.

The County Supervisors accompanied by County Clerk Jordan left on the noon train for San Francisco and from their took the one o'clock boat to Sacramento where they will go before the State Board of Equalization to show why Alameda County's assesment should not be raised.

The Supervisors intend to make the trip as pleasant as possible and are considering the advisability of taking a little jaunt to Folsom after the business before the State Board is completed.

In the party that left at noon were Supervisor and Mrs. Talcott, Supervisor and Mrs. Will Church, Supervisor and Mrs. John Mitchell, Supervisor Wells, Supervisor Roeth and County Clerk Frank C. Jordan.

Deputy Assessor Richards will leave this evening on the 8 o'clock train bound for Sacramento and armed with data with which he confidently expects to prove to the State Board that Alameda County is now justly and fairly assessed. He will compare records of assessments and will also show the prices given at recent real estate sales.

Troops for Exhibits.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Acting Secretary Mikiejohn has ordered four troops of the Third Cavalry, now at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., to proceed to Nashville, Tenn., not later than the middle of September and remain until the first of October. The regular troops are expected to make one of the most attractive features of the Exposition, which will defrey the expense of their transportation.

KILLED BY OUTLAWS

Marshals Are Shot From Ambush by Desperate Moonshiners in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 30.—Two Deputy United States Marshals are dead, two are seriously wounded and two more are missing as the result of an attack upon a posse of officers by a gang of desperate moonshiners in Searcey county.

The dead are: B. F. Taylor of Searcey county, Joe Dodson of Stone county.

The wounded are the Renfro brothers.

The missing men are not named, but they are supposed to be Deputy Sheriffs of Searcey county.

Taylor, one of the dead, was 60 years of age and was the wealthiest man in Searcey county. Dodson was a well known deputy and has been a terror to moonshiners for years.

The six officers were on a moonshiner's raid when the terrible affair occurred. They had approached to within thirty yards of an illicit distillery when they were fired upon from ambush.

Taylor and Dodson fell at the first volley dead in their tracks.

The shooting occurred thirty-five miles from Russellville at a point ten miles south of Witt springs. The locality is in the mountains and has for many years been a favorite rendezvous for moonshiners and counterfeiters.

The news of the terrible tragedy was brought to Russellville this morning by Dr. Pack, who came after the Coroner.

The men who did the shooting are supposed to be a gang of moonshiners led by Horace Bruce and John Church, two of the most desperate characters in that part of the State.

OFFICERS ARREST NEGRO STRIKERS.

A Determined Effort to Break Up the Railroad Camps.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 30.—County Detective Robinson, with twenty-five deputies and four Pinkerton detectives, raided one of the negro railroaders' camps at Unity this morning and captured twelve men and three women. There was no resistance.

The officers are now on their way to the lower camps on the other side of the tunnel for the purpose of arresting all persons found there.

THE PORTLAND WILL MAKE ANOTHER TRIP.

Permission Is Asked to Place Her on the Seattle Drydock.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The Navy Department has received a telegraphic request from the owners of the Alaskan steamer Portland, which has just arrived at Seattle, asking permission to dock the vessel in the government drydock on Puget Sound.

This permission is asked to avoid the delay which would result if she were obliged to go to San Francisco to drydock, as her owners desire to make another trip with her to Alaska before navigation on the Yukon river closes.

DOMESTIC DIFFICULTIES.

They Cause James Hansen, a Peddler, to Commit Suicide.

James Hansen, a chicken peddler, who lives at San Lorenzo, committed suicide at that place this morning by taking a dose of strychnine.

Hansen was between 40 and 45 years old, and was despondent. It was rumored that he and his wife frequently quarreled, and Hansen often threatened to end his life. Business had also been very bad with him lately, and it is supposed that continued brooding over his troubles was what led to the fatal deed. An inquest will be held this evening.

MRS. BACON'S HAND.

It Is Said She Is Trying to Run the Family Land Company.

One of Mrs. Mamie Bacon's suit for maintenance against her husband, Frank Bacon, bobbed up in Judge Greene's court this morning when Mrs. Bacon's suit against the Bacon Land and Loan Company, William J. Dingee and John R. Spring, to have the sale of the Albany property set aside was heard.

In support of the plaintiff's side of the case, a brief by attorney Scrivener was filed.

R. M. Fitzgerald said that Mrs. Bacon was not a stockholder in the Bacon Land and Loan Company. She was attempting to govern the act of the corporation, and he knew of no law which would give her the right to do such a thing. The defendant might have been present at the meeting of the corporation and voted against the transfer of the Albany Hotel property, and yet the transfer could have been made.

BEN HILL IS GRATEFUL.

He Thanks His Friends for Helping in the Hour of His Need.

Editor Tribune—I wish through the columns of the Tribune to return my heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly gave me assistance in many different ways at a time when I was in the greatest need of friends.

As there are many that have been of great assistance to me in ways and at times which I do not know, who are almost if not entire strangers to me, I take this means of expressing my appreciation of their efforts in my behalf.

GOVERNOR BUDD RETURNS

He Is Back to His Post of Duty After His Vacation.

Will Follow Cleveland's Example and Go Duck Hunting.

STOCKTON, Cal., Aug. 30.—The Mail tonight will print an interview with Governor Budd in regard to his reported absence from the State, of which the following is a synopsis:

"Who's Governor of California?"

"I am," said Governor Budd, in answer to this pleasantry this morning. The chief executive is back within the boundaries of the State once more, and Jeter, at Santa Cruz, will no longer have the pleasure of signing official documents with the words "Lieutenant-Governor Jeter, acting Governor of California."

The Governor arrived yesterday morning after an absence of seven weeks from this part of the State. He has been staying at Klamath Hot Springs and Klamath Lake. The springs are four miles on this side of the State's northern boundary and the lake lies partly in California and partly in Oregon.

Governor Budd was driven to his launch, where he spent several hours, the boat being put in readiness for a cruise to San Francisco bay. Mrs. Budd and one or two friends will accompany him some time next week. Upon his return Governor Budd will take a catamaran down into the tules and spend several days in hunting ducks.

The Governor intends to enter his boat in the launch races next fall and hopes that the "Camanche" will contest, as he thinks the latter will fall astern when the Budd launch starts in to show what she can do.

FAMILY JARS IN THE GROUND HOME.

A Lively Exposition of the Trouble in an Alameda Circle.

Cruelty, Harsh Language and a Mother-in-Law Involved.

This afternoon the divorce case of Anna C. Ground against W. T. Ground came up in Judge Ellsworth's court.

The parties to the case resided at 1810 Buena Vista avenue, Alameda.

There was no appearance on the part of the defendant.

The petitioner took the stand and testified that she had been married to Ground in 1892 and that since that time she had worked hard to make her home and husband happy. By way of return for this treatment the husband had treated her in a most cruel manner. He had threatened to kill her, and on several occasions she had to fight with him to prevent him from getting possession of a revolver with which he threatened to take her life.

She testified that he had applied the most foul and abusive epithets to her.

There is what filed a cross-complaint all goes that the plaintiff had brought her mother and two sisters to live in his home and that they had so crowded the domicile that he was compelled to sleep on a lounge and frequently outside the house.

The plaintiff denied all the allegations of her spouse.

THE WATER FRONT CASE DELAYED.

A Stipulation for a Continuance for a Period of Thirty Days.

A stipulation was entered into this morning, James C. Martin and A. A. Moore, representing the Oakland Water Front Company petitioners, that W. C. Doane, William Parson, J. L. Davie, J. M. ### Inspecting Armor Plate.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—The Board of Naval officers appointed by the Navy Department to examine the facilities for the manufacture of armor plate, investigated the plant of the Lake Forest Company at South Chicago today. The members of the Commission are Commodore J. N. Wells, Chief Engineer J. E. Henry, Captain A. H. Mackenzie, Lieutenant F. S. Pitcher and Civil Engineer Endicott. Three days will probably be spent in looking over the various branches of the works.

The Wring Of Sense.

Wring out the old—Wring in the new. It's all in the rubber. Fools who have clothes wash them, and folks who wash clothes wring them.

All folks don't use wringers.

Some folks twist their wrists in two wringing.

They get tired. They wear out themselves while wringing out the clothes. Clothes twisting squeeze out more wear than water. The way to get water out of clothes is to use something to take it out—and that's a wringer. There are poor wringers and good wringers. A poor wringer costs less, and makes the clothes cost more. A good wringer costs more and makes the clothes cost less. The good of the wringer is in the rubber of the rolls. The harder the rolls, the cheaper they are, and the less rubber is in 'em. The elastic roll saves clothes. The harder the rubber the less wringing it does the more buttons it breaks, the more clothes it wears out. Hard rolls wring out the thick part of clothes—the rest remains dripping wet. The elasticity of soft rolls adapts itself to thin and thick—wrings both perfectly. The softer the rubber the longer it wears, the better it wrings, the longer the clothes lasts.

You can tell a good roll by the feeling of it. The only long wearing, even-squeezing, clothes-saving, button-keeping, dry-wringing, time-reducing, patience-preserving, early-dinner rolls, are "The American Wringer Company's Rolls," used in all their "High Grade Wringers" Sold in Alameda County by

DEMOCRATS WILL MEET.

Pennsylvania Politicians Will Fight a Hard Battle.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

READING, Pa., Aug. 30.—The State Democratic convention will assemble in the Academy of Music tomorrow to nominate candidates for Auditor and State Treasurer.

The selection of a ticket is lost sight of entirely in the struggle to declare vacant the seat of William M. Harrity of Philadelphia in the National Committee. Mr. Harrity has many friends among the delegates and they are working like beavers.

Magistrate Charles P. Donnelly of Philadelphia has charge of the Harrity forces and is confident that the committee will not turn down his friend.

The State chairman, John Garman, of Luzerne, and ex-Congressman Jas. Kerr of Clearfield are directing the anti-Harrity forces.

James C. McKinney of Titusville is spoken of for the nomination for State Treasurer. He is on the ground and will accept. There will be no opposition to the selection. Mayor Jacob Weidel of Reading is the only avowed candidate in the field.

A conference of party leaders will be held tonight to draft a platform. There is not much doubt but that the Chicago platform will be re-affirmed and the late Legislature condemned for its extravagance.

Congressman Ermentrout of Reading will be temporary chairman and Robert Irwin of Washington will be permanent Chairman of the convention. The indications are that it will be a large convention and that there will be plenty of discord.

A TRIAL NOW ALMOST AT HAND.

The Harrison Street Opening Case to Be Heard in November.

The long continued case of Smilie vs. the City of Oakland has at length been set for trial, and will be heard by Judge Ellsworth on the 3d and 4th of November.

The case was brought about two years ago and is the outgrowth of the attempt of the then Mayor, J. L. Davie, to open Harrison street to the water front. Early one morning Davie took a force of men down to the foot of Harrison street and removed piles of lumber which belonged to Smilie brothers, which he claimed closed the thoroughfare instead of allowing free access to the harbor. The removal of the lumber was based also on the ground that the property belonged to the city and was improperly used for private purposes.

An injunction was gotten out by Smilie Brothers restraining the Mayor from interfering with the replacement of the material and the piles of lumber were restored to their former place. The case has since been continued from time to time in the courts.

IN JUSTICE'S COURT.

Judge Wood rendered judgment for the plaintiff in the case of Josephs vs. Klock this morning. Attorney Josephs claimed that Constable Koch had taken four cows valued at $100 away from him and had refused to return the property, while Koch claimed that he was only doing his duty in impounding the cattle. Judge Wood ordered Koch to restore the property or pay $100.

Maurice Hyde has sued Elburton Lawton for house rent. The suit is filed in Judge Wood's court. Lawton has been living at 1218 Clay street, and has not paid any rent for the past four months. The rent now amounts to $100, and Hyde is trying to force his tenant to pay.

Reesemen's Win

The C. A. Reeseman Ball Club defeated the Alden & Erickson of Napa last day by a score of 12 to 7. The Reeseman pitcher was particularly fast and brilliant and their batting very heavy. Peters the catcher scoring a home run, three base hits and three singles out of six times at the bat.

The home run was the longest hit ever made on the grounds.

Farrow, the new pitcher, was very effective, holding the Napa boy down to six hits. Beckenfelt, who pitched for the Napa team, was knocked out of the box in the sixth inning.

San Francisco Is Chosen.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Announcement was made today from the headquarters of the National Association of Letter Carriers in this city that the annual convention of carriers will be held in San Francisco September 6th to 12th. San Francisco was chosen originally but later Chicago was substituted, and today, as the result of a conference by wire with the chief members of the body, it was decided to meet on the Pacific Coast.

Embezzled a Fortune.

BOSTON, Aug. 30.—Robert S. Strahn, president and director of the United Telegram Company in this city, was arrested this afternoon by an inspector from police headquarters on a charge of embezzling $30,500.

Inspected the Water Works.

Health Officer Dunn, accompanied by the Board of Health and Sanitary Inspector Smith, made a tour of inspection to Alvarado yesterday and examined the plant of the Oakland Water Company at that place. Dr. Dunn reports that everything was found to be satisfactory, the water coming out of the ground as pure as crystal.

A New Agent.

Hugh M. Cameron, the Ninth street broker, has been appointed by the German Alliance Assurance Association of New York as its Oakland agent. For fifteen years Mr. Cameron has done a large business in real estate in this city, and he expects to have like success in the insurance line.

A Small Suit.

Mary Peacher has lost her suit against Voler & Kirkham to recover $9 damages because their horse trampled on her lawn. Judge Wood rendered judgment for the defendant this morning on the grounds that the plaintiff did not have the damages appraised within sixty days of the accident.

Will Discuss School Bonds.

There will be a meeting of residents of Fruitvale at the upper school house this evening, in order to consider the advisability of issuing bonds to erect another schoolhouse in the lower section. The meeting is called for 8 P. M.

These citizens have been summoned to report in Judge Ogden's court, Tuesday, September 7th.

COBBLING UP TULARE LAND.

Banks Foreclosing Mortgages All Over the Southern District.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 30.—Assessor J. A. Gibson, the District Attorney and Supervisors of Tulare County appeared before the State Board of Equalization today in answer to a citation.

Tulare's roll had fallen off a million dollars. The cause of this was explained to be due to recent widespread litigation in irrigation districts which greatly affected land values.

Assessor Gibson made an astounding showing of the rapidity with which San Francisco and Sacramento banks are absorbing Tulare real estate under mortgage foreclosures. The absorption equals many thousands of acres annually.

RESULTS OF THE TARIFF.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Aug. 30.—Operations were resumed at the Atlantic Mills today after a shut-down of four weeks. This will give employment to about 1,200 hands.

Work was also resumed in the weaving department of the Methuen Company's mills at Methuen. Nearly all of the 450 operatives employed in these mills are now at work.

SOMERWORTH, N. H., Aug. 30.—The Great Falls Cotton Manufacturing Company's mills have resumed operations on full time after having been run forty-eight hours since May.

Death in Wet Clothes.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Erbal Ford, the famous Oxford oarsman, died on Friday in Scotland. He was captain of the Rugby football team and at Oxford, where he was immensely popular. He pulled No. 5 with the Oxford crew at Henley this year. His death was due to his neglect to change his clothes after having been drenched with rain while out shooting and which resulted in an attack of pneumonia.

Will Vaccinate Children

MONTREAL, Quebec, Aug. 30.—The Catholic Board of School Commissioners have refused to comply with the order of the Provincial Board of Health to refuse entrance to their schools to children without vaccination certificates, and as a result the city will station officers at all the Catholic schools to vaccinate the children.

Cruisers on the Docks.

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 30.—An officer of H. M. S. Crescent has informed the authorities here that the United States authorities have decided to send the United States battleship Maine to Halifax to go in dry dock during the last week of October and that the Maine is likely to be followed by the Iowa.

Under the Wheels.

James McCullough, a potato peddler, while stepping from one wagon to another on Myrtle street today, fell to the ground and two wheels of one wagon ran over his right thigh, causing a painful, but not serious injury. The wounds were dressed by Dr. Stratton at the Receiving Hospital.

The Marston Estate.

W. H. Knight has been granted letters of administration on the estate of H. W. Marston, sometimes known as G. W. Marston, who died in East Oakland a short time ago. Marsten is the man who deserted a wife and family in the East and came here with a young girl who passed for his wife. A son from the East has been making investigations into the estate left by his father, with the result that Knight is appointed administrator.

The First Step.

The suit of A. L. Frick vs. P. E. Bowles, for $4900 for services rendered, came up before Judge Hall this morning on a demurrer. Judge Frick appeared in his own behalf. The demurrer was over-ruled. Ten days was given Bowles to answer.

WHEAT IN GREAT DEMAND.

Chicago Railroads Are Taxed to Their Utmost Capacity.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—The grain movement into and out of Chicago the past forty-eight hours is record-breaking. Exactly 5,065 cars of all sorts were received, including 3,555 cars of corn. Shipments aggregated 2,400,000 bushels of all kinds of grain, including 119,000 bushels of wheat, 1,6[illegible]6,000 bushels of corn over 500,000 bushels of oats.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—A dispatch to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says:

The wheat crop in the province of Santa Fe is calculated at about ten thousand tons, scarcely more than enough to supply the province for the year. What is true in Santa Fe province, it is said, is true in the other provinces; that is, none will furnish more than enough for home use.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Cash wheat No. 2 red, 89½; No. 3 red, 87@88; No. 2 spring, 89½; No. 3 spring, 84@87; No. 2 hard winter, 89½; No. 3 hard winter, [illegible].

AFTERMATH OF A DUEL.

A Stabbing Affray Follows a Battle With Fists.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ALBANY, Or., Aug. 30. Late last night William Maher a blacksmith, was stabbed in the back by James Blackburn, a son of Judge D. R. N. Blackburn.

A week ago Blackburn and Maher quarrelled and by mutual agreement fought a duel with bare knuckles in a secluded place across the river in the presence of several witnesses. Maher had the best of the fight but afterwards they shook hands and returned to town.

Last night Blackburn attacked Maher with a knife and inflicted seven ugly gashes in the back, one of which is a very dangerous wound.

not be allowed to bertray him. Judge Vincent objected to this statement as foreign to the case and not proper evidence but was overruled by the Court.

When Mr. McEwen concluded, Attorney Vincent announced that no opening address would be made at present for the defense.

The first witness was then called. W. H. Haafe of the city map department, who testified to the correctness of the drawings being used by the prosecution.

When the afternoon session began the first witness called was Diedrich Bicknese, brother of Mrs. Luetgert. He told the jury of his visit to the house of Luetgert on May 4th to see his sister. There he met the sausage maker and talked with him for some time before he was informed that Mrs. Luetgert had disappeared. Bicknese said Luetgert told him he did not know what had become of his wife. He had last seen her on the Saturday evening previous. Luetgert said he did not believe she had gone away with some other man, but thought she had wandered away. The witness said he asked the prisoner what he had done to find his wife, and was informed that he had not told the police of her disappearance. Instead, he said, he had paid two private detectives $5 each, and they would do more than the police would accomplish.

The witness said Luetgert told him he had not looked to see if his wife had taken any clothing with her except the dress she had on when he last saw her. He had not visited any place or made any inquiries.

Bicknese told his story in a simple, straightforward way that made him an impressive witness.

THE FIGEL CASE.

Witnesses Identify the Pistol With Which Hoffman Was Shot.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Mrs. Hoffman was recalled by the defense in the Figel case today for cross-examination upon the subject of the letter demanding $60 from her husband in return for an order that her mail be delivered to him.

The prosecution objected to this line of examination and the court sustained the objection. Mrs. Hoffman was thereupon excused. Dr. D. D. Lustig who assisted Doctors Shiels and Williams in their experiments with a pistol upon a cadaver testified and was asked a number of hypothetic questions.

Mrs. Solomon Lewek was called upon to identify a letter written by herself to Hoffman corresponding with him upon his domestic relations but it was not admitted in evidence.

L. L. Levings, an Examiner reporter, testified to having seen the revolver found in Hoffman's office and swore to having seen blood upon the cylinder.

Officer Colen swore that the pistol which he exhibited to Reporter Bishop, of the "Call" on the night of the murder was not Hoffman's pistol, but his own.

McKinley's Callers.

(By Associated Press to the Tribune.)

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 30.—President McKinley spent a very quiet day at Senator Hanna's home. The morning was spent in receiving the intimate friends of the President. A delegation from an adjoining county called for a few minutes and paid its respects.

Among the callers were Senator J. A. Garfield and Mr. Wassaholm. The President and Mrs. McKinley and Senator and Mrs. Hanna took a drive into the country west of the Hanna residence just before lunch.

OPERATORS PLAN TO START THE MINES.

They Agree on a Sixty-Nine Cent Rate as a Last Resort.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.—A meeting of coal operators who do not ship to the lakes has been arranged for tomorrow when a plan will be formulated to start their mines at the sixty-nine-cent rate if permission cannot be secured from the miners' officials to allow their men to return to work.

Many of the operators who are in sympathy with the movement are afraid to join in the meeting and prefer to wait the result of the operators' plan to break the strike by importing men.

The lake shippers have little to say except that they will carry out their original intentions. They admitted that such a move as was contemplated by the small operators might result in forcing the others to concede the miner's demands.

NEW MINERS MAY BE IMPORTED.

Operators Are Determined to Start the Mines at All Hazards.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 30.—The strikers' camp near the Montana mines gained not fewer than fifty recruits today, all of them men who have been working, but the operators were on the lookout for deserters and had nearly as many new men go into the mines. In the New River region a few men were brought out but the district is working practically full handed.

At Clarksburg the operators have been chafing because their mines were tied up early while Fairmont carried off a part of their trade while no effort has been made to start the Clarksburg mines.

But it is given out today that unless the old men return to work before the end of the week the operators will begin importing men next week. The miners have no faith in the St. Louis meeting except it may aid them in cash. They do not believe an order for a general strike will result.

MAKERS OF PANTS ON A STRIKE.

They Want Shorter Hours and the Abolition of the Sweat System.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—Twelve hundred trousers makers struck today for shorter hours, better pay and the abolition of the sweat system. The strike was the result of a meeting of the pantaloon makers of the Central Union of Associated Jewish Trades Organizations held Saturday.

The vest makers' strike was successfully ended on Saturday, and it is thought the pantaloon makers were encouraged by their success.

It is expected the strike will be of short duration.

Ordinances Signed.

Mayor W. R. Thomas has placed his signature on the following ordinances:

No. 1821, which reduces the dog license from $2.50 to $1.50 a year.

No. 1822, which regulates the size of private and side street sewers, none of which must be less than five inches in diameter, except in the Golden Gate and Adeline sanitary districts, where a four inch sewer will answer.

No. 1823, which establishes the curb grade of East Eighteenth street, between Second and Fourth avenues.

No. 1824, which provides for the Board of Works establishing a corporation yard at an expense not to exceed $30 per month.

No. 1825, which relates to the maintenance of shade trees in the city limits.

ELIZA SIMMONS' MOTHER.

She Calls Upon the Police and Explains the Girl's Disappearance.

A woman calling herself Mrs. Gusse, who resides at 721 Lydia street, called at the police station this morning and asked for information in regard to the probabilities of her being arrested.

The woman explained that she is the mother of Eliza Simmons, the girl who was stolen from the Fred Finch Orphanage some weeks ago. She claimed that she had gotten the girl in San Francisco, whither she had gone from the orphanage, and she was afraid she might be arrested for abduction. Her story will be investigated.

The child was placed in the orphanage by her father, who was divorced from Mrs. Gusse some years ago. In granting the decree of divorce the court awarded the custody of the child to the father.

It was claimed at the time the child disappeared that she had been spirited away by an elder sister, who had become angry at Simmons.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

DR. TOM SHE BIN.

CHINESE TEA AND HERB Sanitarium. For over 300 years my family have been renowned for the most famous doctors in China.

Tom She Bin has in his possession hundreds of testimonials of those who suffered from chronic diseases and who were cured under the established method in constant use in China for over 5,000 years.

All diseases described from the pulse without asking a question.

There are 600 different kinds of herbs that cure 400 kinds of diseases. All persons afflicted with any kind of malady whatsoever invited to call. 615 Kearny st., bet. Sacramento and Commercial sts., San Francisco, Cal., U. S. A.

Dr. Tom She Bin sells Chinese herbs and tea. Sanitarium. Price by week or month. Take herbs once a day, a big ten-ounce bowl, or one package of herbs, seven packages a week. Price, six dollars a week. Two times each day, two ten-ounce bowls, or two packages of herbs. Price, ten dollars a week.

The undersigned, after seven years' suffering, without being able to obtain any relief, resolved to see Dr. Wong, but I did not obtain any help. I then determined to see Dr. Tom She Bin, and in three months I was completely cured. I commenced feeling better soon after commencing his treatment, and I was all cured.

MRS. JENNIE SAUNFERS,
1010 West 7th st., Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin has cured me of that dreadful disease known as heart disease, and also of weak lungs. I do make this deposition for the especial benefit of those suffering similar ailments. I must say that I was treated by the best doctor in Chicago, and after I lost all hopes I concluded to come to San Francisco for a change of climate, and immediately I heard of the wonderful cures of Dr. Tom She Bin, so I consulted him, with such good luck that after one month and a half from the time he started to treat my case I felt entirely well.

MRS. E. FRENCK,
463 Thomas Street, Chicago, Ill.

I, the undersigned, do recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as one of the best doctors to cure rheumatism, having been suffering for three years, and also been under the treatment of six skillful doctors for four months without feeling any relief. I determined to set myself under the care of Dr. Tom She Bin, who gave me immediate relief, and in the course of five weeks I was enjoying good health.

PANFILO MURILLO,
Pomona, California.

My son, nine years of age, utterly prostrated with typhoid fever for six weeks, he was under the explicit care of hospital doctors, but without avail. All the body was declared incurable. I heard the name of Doctor Tom She Bin, and at once was induced to see him, and I left my son to his absolute care. Fifteen days after my son was able to play around the yard. I fully believe Doctor Tom She Bin saved my son's life.

CARRIE CONTRERAS,
630 Mission Road, Los Angeles, Cal.
San Francisco, February 14th, 1897.

The undersigned does hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as the only competent doctor. He has cured me entirely from throat disease, which many doctors declared incurable. A. OWENS, Euclid Block, N. Los Angeles, Cal.
San Francisco, January 31st, 1897.

I, John A. Fain, do hereby certify that I suffered with piles for over twelve years. Dr. Tom She Bin cured me in very short time.

San Francisco, February 25th, 1897.

I have been suffering under the most dreadful disease for two years past and lost all hopes of recovering, being unable to move for four months. At last I concluded to take Dr. Tom She Bin's Wonderful Chinese herbs, and in six weeks after my health was completely restored.

J. E. MEDRAN,
758 Workmain St., East Los Angeles, Cal.
Montenzou, Cal., March 1st, 1897.

I write this letter for the benefit of any one who may be in trouble, as I have been. About fourteen years ago I was taken sick. The doctors pronounced it ulceration of the stomach and said it would end in a cancer.

At times I would vomit a black and bloody looking matter, also a great deal of white mucus. The disease would make me very nervous and despondent. At different times during my ailment I would get some relief for a few months, then it would come back as bad or worse than ever. I doctored with several as good doctors as I could find in the East and also here in California, but none of them effected a cure.

I was advised to consult Dr. Tom She Bin, which I did about the 1st of October, 1892.

He said my trouble was the cancer of the stomach. I commenced taking his medicine immediately. For the first three or four months there seemed to be but a very little change. After that time I improved very fast and am now able to do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe he has effected a permanent cure for me. J. L. CARPENTER,
San Francisco, Saturday, March 2, 1897.

I saw Dr. Tom She Bin's advertisement and I first came up to 615 Kearny street to feel my pulse. He tell me what trouble I had, and was true. I had a pain over my body, and chilly. I put my case to him; first week I take Chinese herb; one week I was great deal better. I been sick for six years. I go to white physician, cannot do me any good. I take Dr. Tom She Bin's Herbs six week; I was all well. I was cured about one year and never pain again.

MRS. J. SANGALL,
17 Lafayette Place, between Green and Union, Kearny and Dupont, San Francisco, Cal.
San Francisco, March 4th, 1897.

By these presents I do hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as a successful doctor to cure the dreadful disease styled consumption, so common among all classes. He has restored my health in the short term of twenty days, for the trifling amount of $1.50 per day.

Signed. L. C. FLORES,
608 Upper Main St., Los Angeles, Cal.
San Francisco, March 5, 1897.

This is to certify that I have taken treatment from Dr. Tom She Bin for stomach trouble, and was cured in four weeks.

W. J. MORRISON,
1412½ Baker St., San Francisco, Cal.
San Francisco, March 6, 1897.

This is to certify that I have been entirely cured of stomach trouble by Dr. Tom She Bin in two months. I had tried several American physicians and they had failed to cure me.

MABEL BARBARER,
Milpitas, San Jose, Cal.

I have taken treatment for my kidneys, that have bothered me for a long while, and also catarrh of the stomach, and also chronic diarrhoea, and was cured in two weeks by Dr. Tom She Bin, also blood poison in my thumb.

WM. E. BRYAN,
No. 6 Martha place, San Francisco.
San Francisco, March 6, 1897.

I had gravel and kidney trouble four years. My friends sent me to Dr. Tom She Bin. He felt my pulse, and he told me what trouble I had. I put my case in his hands, and took herbs twice a day. In four weeks my troubles were all cured. Now my health is all good. The last three or four years I went to white doctors, but never did me any good. Now I have got well and am in good health.

JENS J. JENSEN,
213½ Clara St., San Francisco, Cal.

Geo. Osgoodby, author of the world-famous Murchison letter to Lord Sackville West, the English Embassador, in 1888, writes concerning Dr. Tom She Bin, now selling Chinese Teas and Herbs at the Sanitarium, 615 Kearny street, San Francisco, Cal., and says:

Pomona, Los Angeles Co., Cal.,
March 7, 1897.

For the benefit of those who are suffering with chronic diseases, I will say that many years of severe suffering and futile treatment ended in Bright's disease of the kidneys, of which Dr. Tom She Bin completely cured me, after correctly and minutely describing my malady from the pulse, without asking a question. He is a medical marvel, and without a peer in his profession. Respectfully,

GEO. OSGOODBY.
San Francisco, March 12th, 1897.

I wish to give my testimony in behalf of Dr. Tom She Bin. It is about two months ago that I fell sick with influenza, being unable to procure no other help than that of domestic remedies. I fell worse and worse, until I was totally paralyzed. I was induced to consult Tom She Bin, and he, by the aid of his wonderful Chinese herbs, I felt somewhat relieved in twenty-four hours, and he agreed to treat me for the sum of two hundred dollars, and now I feel grateful to the doctor for his efforts. Very truly,

HILARIO PRECIADO,
Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin cured me of kidney trouble and stricture. Was sick for some time, but found no relief until I tried this doctor. He entirely cured me, and I have not been troubled since.

President Kellogg Calls Class Rushes Guerilla Warfare.

SIGHS OVER YOUTHFUL FOLLIES

A Large Crowd Will Witness the Annual Fight Tonight.

"GOVERNMENT BY INJUNCTION"

Maguire Has a Word to Say About the Federal Judges.

BERKELEY, August 30.—President Kellogg of the State University has characterized the hall rush which took place late Saturday afternoon between the Freshmen and Sophomores as the "warfare of juvenile bands, and North American Indian," and says such rushes have not the slightest excuse. President Kellogg prefaces his written criticism of the matter by gently sighing over youthful follies and then talks poetically of the rush by "the uncertain light of the crescent moon." He declared that he prefers contests of strength upon the gridiron, the track or the diamond.

The annual rush between the two classes will however, take place tonight on the campus. Clinton Milton will lead the Sophomores and N. G. Gumberson, the Freshmen giant, will direct his classmen's tactics, although as he is a candidate for the football team, he will not be allowed to take an active part in the rush.

The southern Greek letter fraternity, Kappa Alpha has reorganized its Berkeley Chapter which entered the University in 1875, but was dissolved later owing to internal dissensions.

The latest addition to the fraternity world at Berkeley bids fair to be successful. In its establishment the general order was represented by N. E. Schermerhorn of Johns-Hopkins University, J. A. Giffin of Stamford, Professor E. B. McGilvary of the University of California and W. G. Bonte of San Francisco. The only member of the old chapter who is interested in the new one is L. E. Eton of the Junior class. The other initiates are R. A. Wagner, Walter G. Bledsoe, Adolph Cheek and Harold Playter.

Charles Elliott, a bicycle dealer of Lorin, plans to go to Trinity on a motor tandem. The motor will propel the tandem which will be ridden by Elliott and Thomas Roust, also of Lorin. The two will depart early next month.

The per cent of women students in the present class at the University has been found to be greater than last year, but less than the year before. In 1895 the per cent of co-eds was 42.59; in 1896, 40.01 and in 1897 it has risen to 41.62 per cent.

The following assistant editors of the Californian have been appointed: F. F. Ellis '98, J. V. Mendenhall '00, W. A. Shuey '00, R. Hazeltine '00, S. Epstein '00, R. R. Tully '00, Arthur Tashcira '00, G. W. Eddy '00, and J. L. Merry '00.

At a recent meeting of the councilors of the University of California Alumni Association, it was decided to permanently organize on September 6th. William R. Davis was elected temporary president and C. Green temporary secretary.

President A. O. Sweet of the University of California Chess Club has called a meeting of that organization for next Thursday afternoon to outline plans for the season, particularly with regard to the proposed contests with Harvard and Stanford.

Three more Berkeleyans will leave for the Trinity diggings today. They are W. G. Black, P. Corrigan and John Algee. They have their own conveyance and a complete mining outfit and will make Coffee Creek their destination.

SALOON-KEEPERS WANT LOWER LICENSE.

Say They Feel Hard Times as Much as Any Other Branch of Trade.

The liquor dealers in the territory recently annexed are making an effort to have the license reduced one-half, asserting that their business does not justify payment of $100 per quarter.

The facts in connection with the case were published in the Tribune a month ago, when it was stated that the desire to have the license reduced is also shared by the liquor dealers in the whole city.

The saloon men have raised the argument that they have felt the depression of trade as much as any other branch of business and they declare that they are outside. It is very likely that the matter will soon be brought to the attention of the City Council and there will undoubtedly be a hard battle fought when the question is brought up. The California Protective Association say their organization has nothing to do with the movement which is purely a local one.

SEVERAL ODD THEFTS.

Two Enormous Shells Carried Off From an East Oakland Porch.

A pair of enterprising thieves carried away two large South Sea Island shells from the front porch of C. A. Klose's residence of 969 Fifth avenue, yesterday, while the family was at church. The men were seen by neighbors. The shells weighed about 400 pounds and were taken away in a buggy.

The barn back of the grocery store of Goldberg, Bowen & Co., at 1075 Clay street was broken into Saturday night and a lot of harness was taken. No clue has been found which might lead to the identification of the thief.

The police have been notified that a lot of hand painted porcelain has been stolen from the basement of the house at 1321 Twenty-sixth avenue. The porcelain was of considerable value and it had been stored in the place temporarily.

Another theft reported was that of a whip, lap robe and cushion, from a buggy which was standing in front of the Golden Gate Church at yesterday morning's service.

Sacred Heart Fair.

The Fair at the Sacred Heart Church is well attended. Ticket sellers are in their glory, the young men are hoarse from lustily shouting the good qualities of their wares, the matrons who have charge of the tables smile as they count their dollars and Father Serda dreams of how happy he will be after paying off the church debt. Thursday evening after their meeting the Catholic Knights will attend in a body and after discussing the chicken, wine, ices and cake to be served, will enjoy a short but interesting programme.

The programme for this evening is in charge of the Literary Society of the Parish and promises to be a musical treat to fair goers. A class of boys from the Brother's School will sing. There will be a recitation by Miss Sullivan and banjo selections by Mr. La Rose.

At Shellmound Park.

A number of events have been planned with Shell Mound Park as the scene of festivities.

September 5th, the San Francisco Schuetzen Verein will hold a picnic, followed by an outing of St. Mary's College on the 9th. The 12th, Nord Deutsche Verein will enjoy a moonlight affair at 11 P. M.

The Irish Nationalists of California will picnic the 19th and on the 26th the Independent Rifles, Captain L. Schneider will hold the Park.

King's Daughters to Receive.

The Board of Directors of the Alameda King's Daughters' Home for Incurables, will hold a reception at the new home at Beulah Mills' Seminary Wednesday, September 1st from 11 A. M. to 4 P. M.

All interested in this work are invited to attend and visit the Home. A light lunch will be served without charge, but donations will be thankfully received.

ANXIOUS TO FORGET HER FALSE LOVER.

Miss Cummings Hears Nothing of the Man She Was to Marry.

His Companions All Think He Has No Intention of Keeping His Engagement.

Nothing can be learned of George B. Adair, second officer of the ship Larglemore who was to have been married to Miss Elizabeth Cummings last Thursday evening, and it is feared that he has deserted his bride for good.

According to the statements of J. G. Spencer, the captain of the Larglemore, Mr. Adair left the ship a week ago last Friday, at which time he drew his back pay and informed the captain that he was to be married in a short time and that he would no longer sail the seas for a livelihood but remain on land for the rest of his life.

Mr. Spencer said last evening: "Mr. Adair signed with me a year ago in March, and although I was never in his confidence I noticed that he was rather erratic. I am not much surprised that he cannot be found. There is no foundation for my suspicions other than his rather queer actions. I do not think that he has been foully dealt with, but am rather of the opinion that he is hiding in the city, but for what reason is as much a mystery to me as to many others.

"The only man who seemed to be in his confidence was A. L. Hadson, the sail maker, and what he may know of Mr. Adair is nothing to me. Mr. Melville, formerly the third mate of the ship Blairmore, has been engaged to take the missing man's place.

"I saw Adair for the last time Monday," said Mr. Hadson, when he was stopping with a Mr. Daniel Law at 1012 Tennessee street, and since that time I have heard nothing from him. I was well acquainted with Miss Cummings, and knew for some time that she was engaged to Adair. He first told me that the marriage was to take place last Tuesday, but on Monday he told me that it was postponed until the end of the week. On the same day he told F. Anderson, one of our seamen, that the marriage was postponed for a month, and these reports have led me to believe that he had no intention of ever marrying the girl, to whom he had been engaged for over a year."

Miss Cumming, who is an attractive young lady finds herself considerably broken up over the dilemma in which she finds herself.

"I will admit," she said last evening, "that I am distressed and completely heartbroken over the whole affair. It is hard to describe my feelings when I found that I had been deserted. Colonel Adams, who was present Tuesday evening explained the matter to the guests as best he could under the circumstances, but the whole affair has been constantly in my mind ever since.

"We have been engaged for over a year. I knew him in Glasgow and we renewed our acquaintance when the ship arrived here about a year ago. He sent me many letters telling of his love and his hopes of an early marriage.

"I am under the impression that he has gone to Alaska. He gave me some presents which I shall return to his mother, and I never wish to see or hear from him again. He told me that he had obtained his release from his captain, as he wished to marry and settle down. But this is the result.

"The sooner I can forget him the better."

Tripp Loses an Estate

The estate of Elizabeth L. Cook, a wealthy widow, who died in this city, has passed to Eastern heirs and has slipped away from William G. Tripp. A few weeks before her death, and in anticipation that an impending surgical operation would prove fatal, Mrs. Cook gave her entire fortune to Mr. Tripp, who had been acting for some years as her confidential adviser. The property consisted of real estate and a lot of valuable securities. When Mrs. Cook died the deeds were placed on record. There was a contest and the Eastern heirs won.

Mortgaged the Road.

The East Oakland Street Railway property has been covered with a heavy mortgage as security for notes amounting to $35,831.45, the amount of the judgments under which the road was sold to the Realty Syndicate. The notes are made by F. C. Havens and F. M. Smith, and are payable to J. Dalzell Brown, who is supposed to represent a San Francisco bank. The notes bear 7 per cent interest.

MONDAY...... AUGUST 30, 1897.

Another penny club has gone to pieces. It is a pity that the police seem powerless to reach the quaint swindlers conducting these affairs.

The dispatches announce that 7000 people are at Camp Skaguay waiting for something to turn up. They won't get it that way. A miner's business consists of turning it up himself.

The railroad men of the country who stood like a stone wall in favor of sound money in the last election without reference to their [illegible] are now reaping the reward of that action. Country editors have lots of troubles and as there are no policemen in their towns they tell their woes to their readers. Here is a wail from the Willows Journal: "We apologize for the looks of the Journal today. With the stench from the dead carcasses of horses burned in the fire Tuesday morning, the horrible smell of a cesspool coming in the window, the sweet odor of a pig pen coming in the back door and the perfumes of the gutter coming in the front door the whole Journal force is laid up with sickness of the stomach. If these various nuisances are not abated we will have to move out to Willows Slough."

WORK OF STATE EQUALIZERS

Referring to the duties of the State Board of Equalization the Call says:

"It is useless to approach this tribunal equipped with prejudice against its alleged shortcomings or to seek to move it either by cajolery or abuse. That this course is a mistaken one has been made sufficiently manifest by the misfortunes of San Francisco in the matter of its assessments during the last few years.

"The proper method of proceeding in the case is simple. There is no good cause to doubt that the members of the Board are fair minded and desirous of doing justice. Let us appeal to reason. If our claim is right as we believe it will be easy to prove it so when the time comes for a hearing. When the Supervisors recently sat as a Board of Equalization many representative business men went before them and made a showing which amply proved the justice of the assertion that our rate of assessment is certainly as high as it can be made with a due regard to the value of the property. The same men should go before the State Board and make a like representation of the facts.

"It will be remembered that last year when the State Board of Equalization was dealing with the assessment of San Francisco not a single effort was made by the officials or by the citizens to prevent a raise in the rate. No arguments were submitted to the Board, no reasons were given them why the assessment should not be raised. In fact nothing was done to protect ourselves from mistaken estimates with which the Board may have been supplied."

This expression of opinion in the Call at once provoked a reply from a prominent taxpayer of San Francisco in which he said:

"Allow me space enough to add that to my knowledge to the past three or four years our city officials have acted alike with respect to the State Board of Equalization. Look at last year. What was done? When San Francisco was cited not one of our howling officials was present. We not only insulted the State Board, but we did worse—put in the hands of Chesbrough members from this district, data that he knew little of and which were not backed up by facts. He performed a strange proceeding by acting as attorney and judge as well and ended the whole farce by being voted down.

"The sooner we learn that the State Board is made up of experienced, able men in the matter of assessments, and that such men are not to be trifled with, the better it will be for the tax payers."

These are undoubtedly the right sentiments and they apply equally well to every other county in the State. Equalizing of assessments is a business transaction and can only be conducted on business like principles. If State taxation is to be equable the State Board of Equalization should and must be assisted by the tax payers and Supervisors all over the State, for only by such a method can its duties be intelligently performed.

THE SALVATION COLONY.

The co-operative colony that may probably be started in an adjoining county as a result of the appeal of the Salvation Army will be a widely different proposition to the one advocated [illegible] and which has gone to the winds for lack of nutrition. Anything of a reformatory and social nature undertaken by the Salvationists is generally on a sensible basis, and the present project certainly is as witness the statement by Commander Booth-Tucker:

"We will divide the land into ten-acre farms," he says. "We will build a cabin or small house on each farm, have the land ready for cultivation and each family that joins the colony will find [illegible] in readiness and a bank account [illegible] to its credit. The colonists will [illegible] the land in installments at the [illegible] of perhaps $1 per week."

There is nothing Bellamistic in this. It is simply an evolution of the Pingree system which has proved so successful and the only stumbling block that is now in sight is the $30,000 needed for the enterprise. However the Salvation Army is one of the best organizations in the world on a canvassing proposition so there is little fear that the capital will prove an insurmountable obstacle. As to the families being able to sustain themselves on ten acre farms that [illegible] already. There is no question in the world about their ability to do so in this part of the country [illegible]. Claus Spreckels has agreed to [illegible] beet sugar factory on the colony grounds, a substantial revenue [illegible] the enterprise is assured. From a sociologic standpoint the project is an excellent one for it means the taking [illegible] hundreds of poor families from the over crowded centers of population and giving them an opportunity to earn a [illegible] livelihood. Furthermore the development of much that at present [illegible] in the territory will be brought [illegible] and this is also a noteworthy factor to consider. There seems no reason why the plan should fail and [illegible] replete with advantages and [illegible] it is to be hoped that the Salvationists will succeed in getting it into operation.

A WORD TO WAGE-WORKERS

The reports from Mexico which indicate that it takes nearly 2½ Mexican silver dollars to buy what one American dollar will purchase show something of the distressing conditions to which the laboring class of that country are reduced. A report by a special commission sent to Mexico by the Trade and Labor Assembly at Chicago last fall shows that teamsters get $1 per day in Mexican money in the City of Mexico while those in the city of Chicago get $1.75 per day in American dollars, or when the difference in the values of the dollars is considered about four times as much. Street car drivers get 75 cents per day in the city of Mexico in depreciated money as against $2.25 in good coin in Chicago. Printers in Mexico get $1.25 a day, in Chicago $3. Other comparisons are as follows: Pressmen $1.50 a day in Mexico, in Chicago $3.50. Shoemakers in Mexico, $1.25, in Chicago $2.50. Carpenters in Mexico $1.25, in Chicago $2.5[illegible]. Bricklayers, in Mexico $1.25, in Chicago, $4. Laborers in Mexico 37½ cents, in Chicago, $1.25.

Apart from the bad business basis the country is on from a working man's standpoint the contrast in the earning capacity of the dollars is something appalling and is not a recommendation for the free-coinage proposition which the Democrats of a few States still have the hardihood to urge. The Mexicans are eagerly awaiting Bryan's arrival in order to learn from his own lips just how to meet the crisis precipitated by the fall of silver—of course he can tell them all about it.

How easy it is to puncture some of the stories that are coming down from the Clondyke. For instance the Times of this city tells of a nickel-in-the-slot machine that sold for $500 and the first day's receipts were over $5000. Now the nickel-in-the-slot machine is as its name implies, a device for receiving nickels and in order that no other coin can pass through it the receiving aperture is shaped so that it can only receive a nickel. The $5000 said to have accrued as one day's receipts means 100,000 nickels. To have got that number of coins into the machine it would have been necessary to have deposited sixty-six a minute for every minute of the twenty four hours—a palpable impossibility especially when the question of where would the nickels come from is asked.

The next session of the United States Supreme Court in October will be an unusually interesting one for California for on its decision rests the fate of Durrant, Worden and Hill. The principle too will be tested and if the court either directly or by innuendo, indicates that States are not compelled to tie up their laws pending such appeals it is more than probable that no more delays of that kind will be allowed because the Wardens only act on the advice of the Attorney General and the present incumbent anyhow has never shown any desire to favor such a course of procedure. Should the appeals though result in opening up the cases again it looks as if capital punishment will be a penalty practically impossible to impose in California.

A MAIDEN'S PROTEST

I'd like to kill the sinner who discovered electricity,
And relegated to the past the kerosenish flame,
Who robbed us of the pleasures aye the heavenly felicity
Which once were golden features of the lovely sparkling game.
I'd like to pull his fiendish ears until he yelled in agony—
And incidentally I'll say the same thing would my beau—
All loyal lovers are with him in bitterest antagony
Because his light cannot be turned Away
down
low

When kerosene was in its prime we'd sit with due propriety
Until the other folks had climbed the stairway for the night
Then lovingly each would enjoy the other's sweet society
Beneath the old lamp's half suppressed and dim religious light.
But now that incandescent thing in fiendish triumph stares at us
From early in the night until it's time for him to go—
Just winks its bright electric eye maliciously and glares at us
Because it knows it can't be turned Away
down
low

Were I queen of America I'd make of it a felony
To burn an incandescent light—myself would frame the law—
And if the people kicked I'd tell them all to go to Helena
Which is located, I believe, 'way down in Arkansaw.
I'd re-establish kerosene in every community
And all the boys and all the girls would bless my name I know
For giving them the coveted and longed-for opportunity
To do their sparking with the light
Away
down
low

WELL WORTH NOTING

A New York man is in jail and his wife in the hospital. Trouble began with a badly cooked beefsteak.

A Southerner wearied by the weight of 86 years turned up in New York recently with $27,000 concealed on his person. New York is wondering how he managed to survive twenty-four hours with such a tempting wad. There are others whose wonder approaches amazement.

Chicago dealers in tobacco have had their humane instincts aroused to the point of revolt against cheap cigarettes. With a generosity admirable and wholly unselfish they want to raise the price from 5 and 10 cents to 15 cents a pack.

On August 3d the village of Buffalo Center, Minn., celebrated its third anniversary in view of the fact that within three years of the time a field of grain occupied the site of the village the people had put up a $12,000 hotel and a $15,000 school house and the population numbered 1000.

Sir Isaac Holden who passed away recently achieved title and renown as the inventor of the lucifer match. From his luminous idea sprang many others. There is that dainty bit of sanded cardboard fringed with dainty ribbons and artistic bows—delicate feminine creations—extending a mute invitation to scratch my back. Sir Isaac started the longest strike in modern times.

They have a summary method of dealing with usurers over in England. A professional money lender summoned a young artisan for default of a debt of about $60. The defendant showed that once when he was ill he had borrowed $20 but that he had only received $16. He had repaid $11. The judge who tried the case ordered the balance paid at the rate of 12 cents a month. This will extend the payment over thirty seven years.

An Alabama toper, whose nose had passed the rubicund and invited embarrassing public attention, became converted the other day at a revival meeting and retained his reformed principles for three days in which he persuaded most of his class living in the town to sign the pledge, awakening so much anxiety in the bosoms of the two neighboring saloon keepers that they waited on him "in a body" with the proffer of free drinks for a year if he would refrain from his reformatory activities. His virtue was not equal to this strain upon it, and by night he was howling full.

A Case of Rats

The babies at the Lewis school know a thing or two. At least they know the difference between one thing and more, or they think they do. They had an examination down there the last of the week, and the little people in the second grade were asked a number of what to them seemed foolish questions as to what the singular and plural of scissors and sheep were. One small chap astonished his teacher with his knowledge upon the subject.

"Georgie, what is the plural of mouse?" she asked of a curly headed youngster with a big frilled collar.

"Rats," he answered and was so serious about it that she knew he thought he was correct.—From the Chicago Times-Herald.

NOTES ABOUT NOTABLES.

The Duchess d'Uzes has some 14,000,000 bottles of champagne in her cellar, in Paris and as many more in her wine vaults at Rheims.

The duchess of Cleveland has the outside of her house washed down from the top to bottom by men for the fire brigade. The task is performed very early in the morning.

Hicks Pasha's expedition to the Soudan in 1883, every man of which is believed to have been massacred, has been officially pronounced dead by the English Probate Court, executors having been allowed to presume the death of a member of the force.

The King of Siam being in England there is a discussion over his name. It is commonly supposed to be Chaulalongkorn but a member of the Athenaeum Club writes to the London Times to protest that this is a mistransliteration. The real name he says, is Kulalankaram.

The Cushing (Ok.) Herald notes in its society columns that Nioppgay Coonskin, whose wife went two months ago to visit her sick daughter in Iowa, got tired of living alone so he got married again last Friday to the widow Mrs Gibbs-Rogers-Dusha-Okathay. No presents. No cards.

The Governor General of Algeria has given the charge of a medical mission to the mountains beyond Biskra to a woman graduate of the University of Paris, Miss Chellier. Her chief work will be the charge of the native women and children, and she has already gained experience by making two successful journeys into that part of the country, placing trained nurses at the various stations.

At a faculty meeting of the Washington and Lee University during General Robert E. Lee's presidency one of the professors made some disparaging remarks about General Grant. General Lee rose from his chair and looking the professor full in the face said to him: "Sir, if you ever again presume to speak disrespectfully of General Grant in my presence, either you or I will sever connection with this university."

M. Limborg, one of the testamentary executors of the late Duc d'Aumale, has in a letter to the French institute, given some interesting particulars about the value of the Chantilly estate. Since the year 1886 it appears that books, manuscripts, pictures and various works of art, amounting in cost to nearly $495,000 have been added to the Conde museum. The total value of the collection is now appraised at $3,000,000. The library alone comprising 17,000 rare volumes and 15,000 less valuable books and manuscripts, is worth $100,000.

A black oak table at which Bonnie Prince Charlie dined the day before the battle of Culloden was sold for $1000 at the recent dispersal of the furniture and relics belonging to the Forbes family kept in the Culloden castle. The table was bought by Mackintosh of Mackintosh, whose clan suffered severely in '45. An antique cabinet brought $2000 and an arm chair carved from the rebel tree on which the Highlanders hung their kail pots the night before the battle $200. The sale brought in $17,500 altogether. A Culloden medal that had been given to General Thomas Gage, aide-de-camp to the Duke of Cumberland in the fight and later responsible for the battles of Lexington and Bunker Hill was sold in London for $110.

A Tacoma correspondent says that the first woman who can cut and fit a dress has arrived at Clondyke and is making a fortune with her needle. She is Mrs Chester C. Adams of Winlock, Wash., and inside of thirty working hours in Dawson City she netted $90 from sewing. For making a common every-day Mother Hubbard, Mrs Adams received $5, and for a waist without "bones" or any of the frills of civilization, she was readily paid from $10 to $15 in nuggets. The plainest kind of work brought from $5 to $10 and sometimes when she sold goods or made a trade, the woman who paid her weighed out considerable more gold than she asked for her work. Mrs Adams finds that the women of the Clondyke have plenty of gold as well as the men.

A Mixed Mental Drink.

"Say," said Ike the Miner to a group of loafers in a big cigar shop, "I was in Pike county a few weeks ago and a county storekeeper nearly drove me to drink."

"That was lead easy," put in a listener.

"Don't break in—about a relationship I've lost more sleep over it than I ever did over my business affairs. There was an old man 73 years old who married a girl of 22. Her mother, aged 40, married the old man's son. Now you see that of course he's the daughter-in-law of the old man, and the daughter-in-law of her own daughter, and of course her daughter is her mother-in-law. Well her daughter had a little boy. Now you see that the boy is her grandson and also he's the grandfather-in-law of his own grandmother."

"Hold on! He you're getting into deep water. You say he's the grandfather-in-law of his own grandmother? That's wrong."

"How is it then?"

"Why the kid's his own grandfather, and his real grandfather is his grandson-in-law. Ain't that right?"

"You fellows are nutty. You can't look at a thing in the proper light. Keep cool and examine a thing. Now if that girl married her grandfather-in-law—"

"But she didn't," said Ike. "She married her stepfather's son, ain't it? Say let's start over."

"No," said another, "put it in this way. One stands for the old man and 2 for the girl he married, see? Then 3 stands for the son of 1, who married the daughter, the mother of 1. The elder woman's 4. The odd numbers are men and the even numbers are women. That's easy to remember. Now of course No. 1 is the father of No. 3 but No. 3 by marriage is also his stepson-in-law. Well now the kid is No. 5 and of course No. 1 is his grandfather but—"

"Say Ike, I can't sleep tonight, that's sure. I'm going home and I'll wake the old lady up and let her figure on it. She'll never go to sleep till daylight. She's great on that kind of thing."

THE TOCSIN

A ladye stands on a rampart's height,
Beneath a starry sky,
A youth is with that ladye bright,
And no other eyes are nigh.

They look upon a lovely bay
Stirred by the breath of even
And well I ween no fairer scene
To mortal eye is given.

From her ocean bed the moon is springing
Where wave and welkin meet
And a flood of silvery light is flinging
Athwart the rippling sheet.

And the dancing waves that kiss the shore
With gentle sound are beating
As soft and low as words that flow
From lips of lovers meeting.

The spell of the fairy scene hath bound
The youth and the ladye fair
But hark! a clear and startling sound
Rings on the silent air.

Away, away, the hour is come—
The larum voice hath spoken—
They have left the shore—the dream is o'er,
And the fairy charm is broken.

Would'st know the power in that soft hour
That broke so sweet a spell?
Ah! truth is cold, but must be told—
It was the supper bell!
—From an old scrap book.

POLICE PICKINGS.

Of the ten drunks who graced the dock of the Police Court this morning, the one who looked as though he had received the worst punishment for his indiscretion was A. R. Shepard. Shepard had the blackest pair of eyes that have been seen in the dock for some time and he acted as though he was on the road to a case of D. T's. When arrested by Officer Moore at the Weber House at Twelfth and Franklin streets he claimed that he was a representative of the Grand Army from the East.

George Nelson, the Temescal youth who stole a couple of watches from some plasterers who were at work on his father's house, will be tried by a jury October 6th.

Judgment has been suspended in the case of Celia Eslava, the woman who was arrested for vagrancy several weeks ago. The girl was taken to the Beulah Rescue Home, where she promised to reform.

Gustav Browse, found guilty of battering a Mrs Hansen of Temescal, has forfeited $15 bail.

The case of John Cohn, arrested for disturbing the peace, has been stricken from the calendar.

CUBANS ARE LOYAL

They Stick to Their Arms and Will Do or Die.

LED BY NEGRO BANDERAS.

Thousands March Across the Island to the West.

SOME SPANISH DESERTERS.

Many Leave the Army and Join the Insurgent Band.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The Journal and Advertiser says:

The sensationally victorious march of the Cubans under Maximo Gomez and Antonio Maceo, the entire length of the island in Martinez Campos' time has just been duplicated by Quintin Banderas. The negro war captain, than whom no Cuban of the colored race, excepting only Maceo, perhaps, has won greater honors in the struggle for independence, led 12,000 men from the eastern end of the island, where the patriots in arms are strongest, to the western end, where, since Antonio Maceo's death, through the treachery of his body physician, Dr. Zertucha, the Cuban cause has not prospered so well. These 12,000 men represented all branches of the Cuban army service. They penetrated into the province of Matanzas, Havana and Pinar del Rio, strengthening the existing forces in each of these provinces to such an extent that the coming winter campaign there may be expected to be even as disastrous for the Spanish as it was in the times of the redoubtable Maceo.

The news of the brilliant achievement was brought to the Journal and Advertiser by the mail from Havana in an autograph letter from Banderas himself. In it he requests the publication of the proclamation that he issued on taking charge of the department. Banderas says that the second invasion of the west was made in compliance with plans that were completed by Maximo Gomez, the general-in-chief, himself, in June last, and that the march was effected with little or no trouble or molestation from the Spanish troops.

"We crossed their lines again and again," he says, "but there was no fight in them, and we had no battles. Our men behaved nobly in the face of constantly possible attacks by larger forces. There was no faltering at any time, and once more I have been able to admire the heroism of our soldiers who have fought, are fighting and will ever fight, I am convinced, until the independence of Cuba shall have been attained, they will fight."

The proclamation intimates that there have been wholesale desertions from the Spanish army in Havana province into the Cuban service, saying:

"In taking command of this province, I send greeting to all its forces, but more especially to the brave Spanish soldiers of the Pizarro cavalry regiment, whom I reviewed yesterday and those who, filled with sympathy for an oppressed people, fighting for their liberty, have come over to our files, in this way giving most direct lie to those who say that the Spanish soldier exists only to serve as food for the cannon and for the purpose of affording means to their officers to get titles and decorations."

The rest of the proclamation is directed "to the men of my race," and is as follows:

"It only remains for me to appeal to the men of my race, to point out to them that their post of honor is here by my side, reminding them that we owe the liberty of our fathers to the revolution of 1868, and it is my duty to present to them the example of that noble figure, Major-General Antonio Maceo, who died on the field for the liberty of his country.

"Listen, countrymen! When after a battle, and filled with national pride, we have gathered up the wounded of the enemy, to give them the care that they may need, many times I have been covered with shame and my whole being has been thrilled with a terrible bitterness to see that the majority of the wounded were men of my race, who were fighting against the liberty of their country.

"I am confident, countrymen, that you have suffered so much under the despotism of Spain that after reading these lines, you will come to our side and enlist in the ranks of the army of this province to win a worthy place in history, and that you will determine that so far as each of you is concerned it will henceforth never be possible to say that the colored race of Cuba helped to clinch the manacle of tyranny against their own brothers.

"Come, then, and help us redeem the fatherland, thus complying with your duty as honored citizens. Triumph is near. Here we are all brothers. One purpose guides us in battle—to die fighting, if necessary, for Cuba and liberty. Citizens of my race, long live free Cuba."

ALAMEDA NEWS.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 30.—An address was made Saturday evening before the Alameda Bimetallic Club by Hon. James Maguire. In the course of his speech, he quoted from the edicts of Judge Jenkins and other Federal Judges, showing that these Judges had attempted law-making instead of law-interpreting. Had such laws been passed by Congress as were passed by these Judges in the injunction cases, the first and thirteenth amendments of the United States Constitution would be violated.

Irishmen Have Fun.

The seventh annual celebration of the Tyrone, Fermanagh and Donegal Benevolent Society, took place at Shell Mound Park yesterday and a gay time the five thousand assembled sons and daughters of Erin had. With games and races the day was pleasantly passed and there were prizes for the winners that were worth working for. Jig and reel dancing was inspired by the stirring music of the Home Rule Band aided by the Irish piper, McCarty, and Professor McCarty, the fiddler. It was an ideal day for a picnic and everyone enjoyed it.

Visiting Odd Fellows.

A large number of members of Harbor Lodge, No. 253 I. O. O. F. of West Oakland went to Healdsburg to perform the initiatory ceremony and degree work on several candidates. Of course the occasion furnished an interesting chapter in the history of this young branch. Grand Secretary George Shaw of San Francisco and Ex-Grand Master J. W. Warbay of Santa Rosa were among those in attendance.

An Old Lady Hurt.

When alighting from her carriage in East Oakland yesterday, Mrs. S. A. Ralph made a misstep and fell bruising her hip very badly. It was at first supposed to be broken and she was taken to the Receiving Hospital. As Mrs. Ralph is sixty-nine years of age, the fall may result seriously.

THE COUNTY TEAM WINS.

City Hall Ball Tossers Go Down in Defeat at Golden Gate.

The Game Is Played Before an Enthusiastic and Fashionable Crowd

If the first inning of the great city-county baseball game could be eliminated the city team could look back upon the game in years to come with something like pride. The city lost the game in the first inning.

The causes of the defeat are not hard to trace. Jack Cook's wonderful pitching up to the ninth inning and the poor fielding of the city team in the first inning are the primary causes.

Cook pitched a remarkably good game. The city men could not find him and it was not till the last inning, when his arm had almost given out, that the team from the City Hall succeeded in doing any work worth recording at the bat. At the conclusion of the game the score stood 27 to 18, ten of the city's runs having been made in the last inning.

Summers behind the bat did very well, but his arm was lame, consequently his throwing to second was defective. The playing of the other men in the county team was good. Cal Ewing distinguishing himself by his base running.

For the citys Clement played his usual strong, reliable game. Dick Ayer covered himself with glory. He batted well, making base hits when they were most needed, and he made a couple of runs after high flies, pulling them in in such a way as to evoke considerable applause from the grand stand.

Percy Jacobus made a pretty play at second by a long backward run for a high fly. It was a single-hand catch, and was worthy of the applause that followed.

Harry Thomas also caught a fly. It went to him in deep right. As it descended the grand stand held its breath. Thomas was directly under it. It struck his glove, bounced up again at least six feet and was held as it came down again. Perhaps Thomas was the most surprised person present. Thomas, by the way, and Clement were the only ones who came through the game without errors.

Following is the official score:

TALKS FROM THE PULPIT

Rev. Edwards Davis Replies to the Rev. Glen McWilliams.

SPEAKS OF FANGLESS TONGUES

Rev. McWilliams' Resignation Accepted With Much Regret.

NO POSSIBLE HOPE OF UNION.

Scathing Remarks of the Pastor of the Central Christian Church.

Rev. Glen McWilliams has resigned and Rev. Edwards Davis has replied from his pulpit to some of the remarks of his reverend critic of last Saturday.

Rev. McWilliams said Saturday night that he did not speak of Rev. Davis in the language attributed to him in the Tribune. He did not, he spoke with much more vehemence and touched on a number of alleged phases of Mr. Davis' character that were not printed, for obvious reasons in this paper. Had all the gentleman's remaks concerning his brother pastor been printed the trouble between the two pastors might not have been confined to words.

Rev. Edwards Davis took for his subject for last night's sermon, "The Sting of the Fangless Tongue." After quoting the verse from the scriptures, "He that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil and his lips that they speak no guile," he said:

"The tongue as a function of the body is a thing of ugliness, yet its speech may be blessed and beautiful. It is almost impossible to hold the tongue, even literally, between the fingers; it will slip from the grasp. It can only be held by resolute will. Nature has doubly guarded it by the teeth and lips. Lockjaw is preferable to a loose tongue. The gossip is more hideous than a victim of salivation.

"In the one who lets the tongue hang out of the mouth scandal is more contagious than hydrophobia. A gossip of scandal is worse than a loose mad dog. Yea, such is a snake in the grass, whose eyes look like drops of dew, but they are poisonous as vitrol. The venomous tongue may sting, but purity is an antidote that prevents it from poisoning. Some tongues are like snakes that lie coiled up when cold, and which when carried to the hearth warm and will bite thy hand.

"There is but one thing worse than being talked about, and that is not being talked about. An upright man need not mind gossip. A scandal of vice can only publicate virtue. Men need antagonism, although the bold need not invite it. Opposition inspires divine defense, affords an opportunity for the cultivation of control, magnanimity and mercy.

"I am amused that some people think that I expect everybody to like me. Destiny does not depend on devotion. The devil has saved many a soul from hell. Our enemies bless us as much as our friends. O, babbler's tongue, lisp on. Thy hiss is as harmless as the cricket song. And may I say in twilight of life, when night shall throw its sable veil before my view, "O death, where is thy sting?"

There was a large audience at the Central Christian Church and the remarks of the pastor seemed to be favorably received.

Rev. Glen McWilliams presented his resignation at the First Christian Church, and it was accepted, although his congregation are sorry that he has decided to leave. It was as follows:

"OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 21, 1897.

"To the Board of Elders and Deacons and Members of the First Christian Church, Oakland, Cal—My Dear Brethren: During the past two weeks I have been in correspondence with another church of the Disciples of Christ in reference to a prospective call to the pastorate of that body. I have carefully and prayerfully weighed every argument which has been made in favor of my removal to their city. I have reached the conclusion that it is my duty to accept a call from that people, if one should be unanimously extended to me.

"A few days ago I received a letter extending to me an invitation to visit their church on the first Sunday in September. It is due to the church of my present pastorate and to the community to know that two or three times within the last few months I have received overtures from churches that were willing to give me a larger compensation for my services than I have received from my present pastorate. These offers did not move me, besides I believed it my duty to remain in Oakland.

"Since coming among you we have worked together harmoniously and happily, and those who knew the condition of the church when I was first called to be its pastor must feel that God has rewarded our labors with exceptional prosperity.

"I am not unmindful of your tender regard for me and of your earnest importunities to remain with you. I have the profoundest appreciation of all your expressions of confidence and affection. I will ever cherish a remembrance of the kindness which you have bestowed upon me and the support you have given me in all my conflicts with the enemies of truth and righteousness.

"I am not ungrateful for the many favors I have received from the good people of Oakland.

"I take pleasure in acknowledging my indebtedness to the press of this city and San Francisco for the many opportunities it has afforded me for the dissemination of my views upon many important questions.

"My decision to accept a pastorate in some other city is based solely upon the conviction that I can accomplish more for the cause of my Divine Master than I can reasonably hope to accomplish here.

"Your church is now in a better condition than when I first came among you. May you be guided by the wisdom of our Heavenly Father, may you grow in grace and piety. The result of my labors as your pastor is such that I feel I can sever my connection with you without inflicting any serious injury upon the cause.

"You can easily procure the services of a spiritual leader who will not only prevent any disintegration, but make you stronger than you have ever been.

"As it is my purpose to accept an invitation which I have received to occupy the pulpit of the First Christian Church of Stockton, Cal., on Lord's Day, September 5th, I hereby tender my resignation to you, to take effect on Sunday, August 29th.

"Fervently invoking upon you the guidance of the Divine Spirit in the selection of my successor, and sincerely desiring your sympathy and prayers in the new field which I am about to enter, I am your servant in Christ,

"GLEN McWILLIAMS."

SUNDAY SPORTS.

Results of Athletics in Which Oakland Men Took Part

Cycler M. G. Curtiss of Alameda failed to break the road record from Oakland to San Jose yesterday. At Centerville his tire was punctured, which caused a delay of several minutes.

At San Leandro, Bozio also had an accident while attempting to lower the twenty-five mile record held by Krafts. His wheel struck a rock and he was thrown heavily to the ground.

The Reliance Club promises a fine evening's entertainment on its gentlemen's night, to be given next Wednesday evening.

At San Rafael Saturday the Whitney brothers defeated Sam Hardy and Walter Magee at tennis. The games were hotly contested.

In San Francisco yesterday the Reliance team beat the Alameda Alerts by a score of 4 to 3. Saturday, Reliance suffered its first defeat at the hands of the Gilt Edge team of Sacramento, the score being 8 to 4.

A. D. Smith's yacht Surprise won the race of the Oakland Canoe Club in the bay yesterday. The Swan came in second and the Zephyr third.

The Art Domestic.

Goldberg, Bowen & Company, the leading San Francisco grocers have issued the Art Domestic for August in exceptionally good form. Sixty-five thousand copies have been circulated for which sixteen tons of paper were used. The issue was designed, written, and illustrated on the premises of the firm and every half-tone was specially prepared for it.

It contains some very good articles of interest to housewives and a catalogue which would make the mouth of the veriest epicure water. Besides staple and fancy groceries, there are lists of wines and liquors, cigars, confectioneries, perfumes and household utensils.

The number commemorates the forty-seventh anniversary of the firm which, through its long existence, has been so successful.

Judge Thompson of Louisville set free two men who were arrested for fist fighting. He claimed that as they used their fists and not knives or revolvers they were brave men and should not be locked up.

ATTRACTIONS AT THE THEATERS.

"The First Born" Will Be Seen at the Macdonough Tonight.

A Double Bill With a New Star for Patrons of the Oakland.

No play ever produced in San Francisco created the sensation that did the advent of Francis Powers' Chinese drama "The First Born," which will be presented at the Macdonough tonight. Every night for three months, the play drew crowded houses. This drama of Chinese vengeance is wonderful in its faithful reproduction of life in the Chinese quarters.

Francis Powers has taken for his theme the love of a Chinaman for his first born male child and interwoven a tragic plot. The wife of Chang Wong, a See Yup highbinder, elopes with his rival, Man Low Yek, a Sam Yup merchant. Chang Toy, the first born of Chang Wong, is living in Chinatown with his father. The guilty wife and lover steal the child; the father pursues them, and in the struggle the child is killed. Chang Wong follows his rival, and the life drama ends with the killing of Man Low Yek by the man he has wronged.

The pathetic story of the slave girl and the lives of a learned doctor, a pipe bowl mender, a vender of olives, a Chinatown guide and other incidents are the side lights of the story. The tragedy is in one act and two scenes.

The Orientalism of the drama is enhanced by the Chinese music, the death dirge, the serenade and the wedding march.

The Chinese play will be preceded by the rollicking farce, "Lost for a Day."

"The First Born" will be seen tonight and tomorrow night at the Macdonough Theater.

OAKLAND THEATER.

The clever Hodges Company will present a double bill at the Oakland Theater this evening. "David Garrick" is a romantic drama of more than ordinary merit, and "Little John L." is a charming little farce. Will H. Bray and Miss Rosina Evans are two new additions to the company, and as both are players of established reputation, they will propably make a hit. Bray was the singing comedian with Hoyt's company. He will give two of the songs in which he made his biggest hits, "I Am a Dandy, but I Am no Dude," and "Papa's Baby Boy," at the theater this evening.

The theater is very cosy and comfortable since its recent renovation, and its patrons show their appreciation of the change by an increased attendance.

OAKLAND AT TRINITY.

Several Well Known People From This City Among the Gold-Hunters.

Oakland is well represented in numbers among the gold seekers in Trinity county. Matt Dillon, an actor at the Oakland Theater; F. S. Price, formerly instructor in Anderson's Academy George Andrews, a painter; Henry Bambach; J. S. Hall, brother-in-law of George W. Baker, and Will Bacon are all hunting for the yellow metal.

H. E. Gaston, expert accountant, made a number of maps of the region and sold them at $2 apiece. F. H. Ross, well known in this city, president of the Mt. Hamilton stage line, is estimating the cost of a wagon road over the present trail from Delta to Trinity Center. It is thought the cost will

MRS. THOMAS SCOTT NOT A NEW WOMAN.

Livermore's Lady Lawyer Speaks of Her Experience While Studying.

Mrs. Thomas Scott of Livermore, although a full fledged attorney, is not a "new woman." She was admitted to the bar last week, and in speaking of her success said: "I commenced the study of law with my husband when we were first married in 1881. But at that time I did not take enough interest in the study to continue it. My husband persevered, and was admitted to the Supreme Court a few years later.

"I do not expect to ever actively practice law, but I may be of some assistance to my husband, and if so will be quite content. I am not a new woman, therefore I think it scarcely probable that I will make many appearances in the courts."

Davis Returns From Trinity.

Gideon Davis, a well known newspaper man, has returned from Trinity county, where he, with his father and brother, own a claim in one of the richest sections. Davis says that their property has been sold at a satisfactory figure, and that, while many of the old prospectors are making rich finds, hundreds of the enthusiasts who have rushed to Trinity county in the hopes of locating Eldorados will be disappointed. There are at least 1,000 men camped along Coffee creek. Davis says one old prospector had two base ore claims which assay $200 or $280 to the ton.

Drank Too Heavily.

Alexander J. Stewart, watchman for the ship Francis Cutting, was found dead yesterday morning in the back room of an East Oakland saloon. Stewart has been around the saloon, which is kept by a man named Graffelman, at Thirteenth avenue, near First street, for several days, and he has drunk incessantly. An inquest will be held this evening.

Teachers' Institute.

The Alameda county Teachers' Institute will commence in Oakland on the 27th, 28th and 29th of October. Tuesday, the 26th, may also be taken up. The morning sessions will be held in the gymnasium of the High school, and the section work will be done in the afternoons. The programmes for the evening entertainments have not been arranged.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

New Dress Goods

Women compare fashions by the book, but it is impossible to keep posted on goods by merely reading what the fashion books say. Get ideas from the goods themselves. We will show you our stock of dress goods and you will see what the Latest Novelties are. We have studied them for the last four months and were fortunate to get the most part of them under the old tariff, thereby saving you about 40 per cent on the price. It is true we got them early this fall, but if the weather continues in our favor we shall have no complaint to make on that account.

This week we are showing:

100 Entirely New Dress Patterns at $3.50
100 Entirely New Dress Patterns at $4.20
50 Entirely New Dress Patterns at $5.25
50 Entirely New Dress Patterns at $7.00

These are the advance guard and show some beautiful combinations, such as blue and green, mulberry and blue, green and black, cerise and black, green and brown, etc., etc.

Fifty pieces of new Plaids to sell at 50c, and more elegant fabrics to sell at 75c, $1.00 and $1.50 a yard.

Tiny little Checks for Children's Dresses at 60c and 75c a yard.

Twenty-five pieces new shades of Broadcloths at $1.00 and $1.50 a yard.

New Covert Mixtures and Redfern Suitings for tailor-made suits.

Special attention is called to the fact that we have engaged MR. STEPHEN SWABODA for our tailoring establishment and can guarantee a perfect fit, as all suits will be made under his supervision.

RURAL RECORDS.

The Weekly Resume of News in Alameda County Towns.

THIRST FOR GOLD IN HAYWARDS

Coming Farmers' Institute to Be Held in Livermore.

VERY HEAVY FRUIT SHIPMENTS

San Leandro Merchants Now Organized for Self Protection.

The most interesting of the happenings of the past week in the several towns of Alameda county will be found below:

HAYWARDS.

(From the Haywards Review.)

The other day Scott cut one of the ropes attached to Bruce Roy's sails. He had been painting the new school house in the Russell district. Mr. Eden, and as the job was not finished the rails were left up. The boy was cut nearly through but fortunately it was discovered before Mr Roy or his men used the sails again or there might have been a fatal accident.

Frank Silva, a Chinaman, fell off Hayes Canyon dump at his home Sunday night at the age of 70 years. The funeral was held Tuesday under the auspices of the U. P. E. C.

Mrs. Farrell of Petaluma, who has been visiting at Bodie Creek, spent a few days here this week with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Farrell.

Rasmussen Bros. of the Eden Market have purchased the vacant lot adjoining their butcher shop from A. W. Schaffer and are having a new shop and barn built.

Rev. J. B. Eddie, formerly rector of the Episcopal Church was a visitor in town Monday. Mr. Eddie is now pleasantly located at Carson City, Nevada.

Mrs. O. W. Toppings, formerly Miss Nash, returned to her home in Sonora Wednesday. Mrs. J. J. Rose accompanied her and will visit there for a few weeks.

Mrs. Ivy W. Kersey has returned from a visit to friends and relatives at Eureka.

The lower floor of the Welsh building on B street was transformed Tuesday night. The occasion was a farewell party given to Miss Berta Loveland of Fernside, who has lately been visiting her old-time friends. The apartments were made beautiful by the addition of great quantities of geraniums and peppers artistically arranged. Dancing was indulged in and everybody had a magnificent time. Soon after refreshments the gathering broke up.

The mining excitement continues and there is as much talk as ever about going to Trinity or Klondyke.

On Monday Albert Shorey left for Trinity. He and W. P. Caine are in on the deal, and what ever is found will be divided between them. He has had more or less mining experience and thinks he stands as good a chance as any one. For three years he was prospecting in Alaska and left there shortly before the Klondyke riches were discovered.

John Dollner, Wallace McAuslan and Charley Pimentel started Wednesday morning, taking the train to Redding and there securing provisions, etc. While none of the party has had any mining experience worth speaking of they all have an abundance of enthusiasm and have hopes of striking it rich. Hans P. Christensen and Peter Larsen went up to Trinity about three weeks ago, but their experiences were not at all satisfactory and they returned in disgust.

Dave Stewart and Fred Trathen left today. They will drive the entire distance.

LIVERMORE.

(From the Livermore Herald.)

A very enjoyable evening was spent last Tuesday in the Presbyterian Church. The Christian Endeavorers were the entertainers and gave one of their free socials. There was a well rendered programme, arranged under the skilled management of Miss Lizzie Waltenbaugh. Installation of officers and chairmen of committees followed. Prof. Connell was the installing officer and due credit is given him for the manner in which he did the work. Each officer and chairman of the committees was asked to rise and come forward, and after a few well chosen remarks from the Professor regarding the discharge of their duties, he pinned upon each a ribbon of rank in the society. The installation closed with singing by the congregation, after which all were served with free refreshments in the annex of the church.

A freight train backing upon a switch Saturday shortly after noon, dashed into the soda wagon driven by Julius Jacobs. The accident happened at the Lizzie street crossing. Mr. Jacobs was thrown high into the air and against the corner of the warehouse that borders the track. His left leg just below the knee, was broken, and he sustained contusions about the head.

The second annual meeting of the Farmers' Institute under the direction of the Regents of the State University, will be held in Livermore on December 23d and 24th. Though the date is yet three months distant, it is not too early to notify the farmers of the valley of the importance and the good resulting from the interchange of scientific and practical ideas on subjects of agriculture. Last year's meeting in Livermore, though a highly successful one, was not largely attended. Every tiller of the soil should have something on exhibition at the institute. Something that will show his friends his neighbors and the visitors what this productive soil and these sunny skies can do when coupled with industry. It has been suggested that some good man be selected to call upon the farmers and urge upon them the good that may result from making an exhibit.

During the past week the dimensions of every lot, also the number of hydrants and the number of occupants in each dwelling within the corporate limits were taken by a representative of the water company. These plans will be submitted to the directors of the company, who will then commence the work of equalizing the water tolls. Rates will be raised in many instances and in some cases they will be lowered.

The young people of the Highland school district gave an enjoyable dance at their school building Friday evening of last week. Splendid music was in attendance. At midnight the young ladies furnished refreshments.

The Cottle Creek excitement resulting from the Graves Brothers' gold find, has stirred up Livermore to a degree that nearly equals the enthusiasm over the prospects of the Klondyke. Among the Livermoreans to leave this week for Trinity were Harry Morrell, Henry Seubert and Everet Hooton. Another party consisted of S. E. Wright, business manager of the Herald, Percy Inman and Ed Carroll. Claud Reeves and Levy Wilmot were among the gold seekers and there was also the party of Phil Waltenbaugh. Livermore will have quite a colony on Cottle Creek before the last of the coming week, and the number will be augmented by those already there and others who are yet to follow.

Little Emily Mitchell entertained a score of her young friends at a party at her home Saturday afternoon. Games and amusements of a character suited to little ones, followed by many good things to eat made up a most enjoyable afternoon's programme.

John Bryne and Miss Josie Copeland, both of this county, were united in marriage last Tuesday. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents south of town. Judge Brophy of Pleasanton was master of ceremonies. The groom is an industrious young man and an employe at the Corral Hollow mines.

Sneak thieves broke into the residence of Jas. P. Smith of Vasta district one day last week and took therefrom his supply of provisions.

S. S. Lyons, whom President McKinley recently appointed United States Consul to Japan, is a brother-in-law of Mr. Johnson Righter of Livermore.

Miss Galindo of Concord, a cousin of Mrs. S. M. Worden, and Miss Symphorosa of Oakland, sister of Mrs. Worden, are visiting in Livermore as that lady's guests.

Mrs. Harwood, who has filled the position of matron for the past three years at the Sanitarium, departed Thursday for Anna, Illinois.

Messrs. Buckley and Wente are increasing the cooperage capacity of their wine cellars.

SAN LEANDRO.

(From the San Leandro Reporter.)

The congregation of the Presbyterian Church of this city is contemplating the erection of a parsonage. A committee was appointed to solicit aid in the enterprise. This committee has done good work. In fact so good that the building is now assured and is under way. A large force of men is at work from day to day, many of them giving their services without money and without price. The building is to be put up by day's labor and is to be a two-story structure. There will be four large rooms on the first floor and on the upper floor will be located the pastor's study and three bed rooms. When completed the building will cost about $1,500.

This is the first year that peaches have commanded a higher figure than apricots and the demand is firm.

The Meek Brothers have introduced a dipper, picker and grader for prunes that will turn out fully sixty tons per day.

Supervisor Talcott has decided to have the approaches to the bridge filled in and thereby do away with replanking in the future.

Mrs. E. S. Marshall, wife of Mr. R. A. Marshall, founder of the Reporter, has been nominated President of the Women's Press Association.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Liber are visiting Byron Springs.

Miss Mamie Silva spent last week visiting friends in Oakland.

There was a good attendance of merchants at the meeting held on Friday evening. John Driver was chosen to preside, and J. W. Harbert, Secretary. President Driver stated the object of the meeting to be to effect a permanent organization as he believed it to be the best way to deal with the expressmen and to settle other questions that may arise. Speaking of the trouble with the express companies, he said a great deal of it had been caused by the merchants giving verbal orders instead of written ones. The Hayward merchants he said, were in sympathy with the movement and any action taken by the San Leandro merchants would meet with their approval. After some further debate a motion to organize as the San Leandro Merchants' Protective Association was adopted, and the following committee was appointed to prepare a constitution and by-laws: Messrs. Herrscher, Bjorkman, Morgan, Gomes, Meyers and Harbert. The committee met on Tuesday evening and adopted a constitution and by-laws.

Daniel Moriarty left last Friday for New Orleans. He will stop off at Kansas City, Denver and St. Louis.

Attorney J. N. Franks received his commission to act as Notary Public from Governor Budd on Thursday.

Mrs. Webber has returned home from a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. H. McKee, at Pacific Grove.

Louis Borman has gone to Byron Springs where he expects to get relief from a severe attack of rheumatism.

John Morehouse, Leo Best and Chas. Rindespacher left on Thursday for Portland. They went by steamer and will be gone about three weeks.

Joe Stouter and George and Hugh Gillespie left for Seattle on Wednesday morning.

Colonel James Hartnett, Deputy Tax Collector of San Francisco, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. Kimball G. Easton and wife of Oakland are the guests of T. E. Cary.

E. B. Stone has received a large coop of thoroughbread Leghorn chickens from Sunol.

Mrs. Arguello and Miss Louise Peralta were the guests of Miss Katie and Mrs. Castro on Monday.

Miss Inez Estudillo who has been visiting Mrs. Mhoon in San Francisco, returned home on Friday.

SAN LORENZO.

(From the San Leandro Reporter).

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. Shiman assembled at their residence on Thursday evening to celebrate the first anniversary of their marriage. A very pleasant evening was the result.

John Quigley, N. Neilsen, H. Gansberger and H. Steudel have gone on a deer hunt in the Livermore mountains.

Manuel Peters, the Junction farmer, has quite a patch of sugar beets. He will ship them to the Alvarado factory.

H. Schlueter is out on a deer hunting trip.

C. W. Hathaway and family are once more occupying Sycamore Park.

Chris Petersen gave another one of his enjoyable barbecues on Wednesday.

San Lorenzo is coming to the front as a shipping point. Four carloads of fruit for the East every day this week is something to be proud of.

ALTAMONT.

(From the Livermore Herald.)

Last week Highland district experienced a novelty in the shape of a regular Eastern cyclone on a small scale. The cyclone was first seen at J. C. Young's, where it unroofed a hen house, tore down a straw stack and wrecked a door of a woodshed. It next made its appearance at Highland school, where a couple of pupils who attempted to brave its force suddenly found themselves thrown to the ground. It was next seen at R. C. Sweet's, where it fortunately did no harm. The latest news from the devastated district is that the people daily practice running down cellar, and Mrs. Seabers, teacher of Highland school, has provided herself with a ball-rope with which to tie her pupils together in case of another cyclone.

Miss White of San Francisco is up on a visit to Mrs. Scullion.

Miss Hennessy of San Francisco is visiting her aunt, Mrs. O'Brien.

Mrs. J. G. Young returned last Monday from St. Helena, where she had been summoned to attend the funeral of her nephew, Fred Brown, formerly an Altamont boy.

Ed Carrol of Altamont, Sherman Wright and Percy Inman of Livermore started on a hunt in the direction of Trinity county. The avowed intention of the boys is to hunt deer, though it is understood that if they run across a gold mine they are apt to bring it home with them.

Mrs. Scullion was tendered a surprise party on the evening of the 20th. Dancing and singing were indulged in until midnight, when cake and ice cream were served. The guests then continued dancing until the wee small hours of the morning.

Mamie Leonard of Altamont and Frank Harrington of San Francisco were married in San Francisco on the 12th. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.

ALVARADO.

(From the Haywards Review.)

A very enjoyable affair was the "tea" given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Chas. R. Nugent at her residence in honor of Miss Martha E. Cilker of Los Gatos. Conversation and music were in order till 4:30, when all were invited into the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Laura E. Costello died at her home in San Francisco Wednesday, the 11th, after an illness of two weeks. While visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. M. Foley of this place, she was taken with pains in the region of the heart, pronounced "inflammation of the valves of the heart," which later caused her death. Miss Costello was well known in Alvarado, where she spent most of her vacations and visited frequently.

Rev. E. P. Shier, accompanied by several other ministers, was in town Monday in regard to the Sunday closing of stores etc. It can be imagined how hard they worked, for now our stores are closed on the Sabbath.

Mrs. Pridgeon and son Howard of Stockton are the guests of her mother, Mrs. A. Miller.

John Henningsen's store is completed and will be occupied by C. A. Preston, the upholsterer, formerly of Haywards, and a photographer, also of Haywards.

Mrs. A. May is visiting in Los Gatos, and A. May is in Salinas on a business trip.

Miss Bertha Ollenwreath of Ione is being entertained by Mrs. B. H. Ford.

Miss Frank Matthews of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Matthews.

Mrs. L. Quinlin of Santa Rosa is a guest at the Richmond home.

Miss W. E. Cilker of Los Gatos is being entertained by Mrs. A. May.

Miss Dora Joyce is being entertained by relatives in San Francisco.

Mrs. Edward Farley and daughter are visiting relatives in Portland, Oregon.

ELMHURST.

(From the San Leandro Reporter.)

H. West, a former partner of Mr. Miller in the butcher shop at this place, and J. Reinhardt left for the Klondyke on Saturday.

S. J. Doolittle, J. Kleefer, J. Welcker and W. Sherill are being taught the mysteries of the punch and motor on the electric railway.

The many friends of Miss Mollie Peterson gave her a birthday party on Saturday night. There was a large number present from San Leandro, Oakland and Fitchburg.

The Elmhurst Social Club gave a dance at the Red Men's Hall on Saturday evening. The club is composed principally of employes of the electric railway. The affair was an enjoyable one.

The announcement in last week's Reporter that the Oakland road was to be improved has caused much favorable comment in this section. It is said that the road is to be macadamized from curb to curb, and to have substantial stone gutters.

Mrs. De Pue of San Francisco is visiting her father-in-law, Dr. De Pue.

John Hamilton, C. Hamilton and G. W. Summers started for Trinity county on Tuesday.

Chris Petersen has sold his saloon to one of the Silva brothers. Mr. Petersen will go to Trinity county.

Mrs. L. A. Gass has opened a bakery in the Willows block.

J. M. Kruger left for the Trinity county mines on Tuesday evening.

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." To prevent colds and rheumatism, when you have got wet or chilled, use promptly a little of the famous old Jesse Moore Whiskey.

Y. M. C. A. Conference.

The annual conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Northern California is to take place at the Association Building on Mason and Ellis streets, San Francisco on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week. The programme has been completed and an interesting session is expected. Plans for increasing the membership of the organization will be discussed.

The conference will close on Sunday evening with a mass meeting to which the general public is invited.

A TERRIBLE MONSTER.

Remains Found of a Flying Lizard Fifty Feet Long.

It Soared the Air Long Before Man Was Dreamed Of.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—One hundred huge cases that have just arrived at the Museum of Natural History in Central Park are regarded with more than usual satisfaction by the directors of the Museum. They are the bones of the remarkable specimen of extinct animals, dug out of the earth many feet below the surface of Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado and Texas. They are the first consignment of the results of the summer's work of the numerous expeditions sent out by the Museum.

In these one hundred cases there is one perfect specimen of a flying lizard, that was twelve feet long. Professor W. Mathews said there were numerous other sections of lizards, but only one complete specimen, which was taken from Kansas soil. It belonged to a period of ages before man was dreamed of, and flew like a bat in the night and fed on fishes.

Professor Mathews, who had charge of an expedition to Kansas, has just returned. On his way back he got into Wyoming with Professor Wortmann's expedition. When that section returns to New York early in October, there will be brought along a monster lizard over fifty feet long. It is being dug out of Wyoming rock now. When he left, thirty-five of the creatures were in sight, and it was estimated twenty feet more remained to be excavated.

Then there is the "missing link" horse. Museums all over the country have had bones of this creature enough to build up into an intelligible skeleton that the public could understand.

Now an Nebraska expedition has sent back samples of bones of the "missing link" horse that have been discovered heretofore, and professors at the Museum of Natural History who will patch animal bones into full skeletons, are rejoicing in the belief that they will get a whole horse together. When that is done, they will be able to trace the horse from his first known form down to the most mordern racer, or miserable plodding car horse.

Another Artist Coming.

Herr Carl Waltner, the great Belgian violinist, contemporary of Ysaye, and the only reminder of the great and popular Ole Bull, has headed toward San Francisco after a tour of the world. He has captured the great musical centers of the Eastern States and is the lion of the hour.

It is to be hoped that some enterprising manager will arrange to bring the artist to this city.

Walther has been associated in concert tours of Europe with Patti, Albani, Nielsen and other great musicians and has created great enthusiasm wherever heard.

CHANGES IN THE ARMY AND NAVY.

General Breck Will Succeed Ruggles as Adjutant General.

Other Important Changes Are to Be Made Soon.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK Aug. 30.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: President McKinley has some important army and navy patronage to distribute before he returns to Washington. The Adjutant Generalship of the army will become vacant by the retirement of General Ruggles, September 11th. It is settled that Colonel Breck will succeed him. His term of office, however, will be short, as he will reach the retirement age on February 25, 1898.

Colonel Henry C. Corbin, Adjutant General of the Department of the East now at Governor's Island, is next in rank. A hard fight is being made by Colonel "Mike" Sheridan, brother of the late General Sheridan, but the President intends to adhere to the rule of seniority. Colonel Sheridan is two years older than Colonel Corbin. Colonel Martin Barber, Adjutant General of the Department of the Missouri, will, it is understood, be ordered to Governor's Island. Colonel Sheridan, now at St Paul, will succeed Colonel Barber at Chicago, and Colonel Schwan, Adjutant General of the Department of the Platte, will go to St. Paul.

The official announcement will be made this week of the appointment of three officers of the Naval service as Chiefs of Bureaus.

Commander R. B. Bradford will succeed Commander F. E. Chadwick as Chief of the Bureau of Equipment.

Medical Director Newton L. Bates will succeed Medical Director J. R. Tyron, as Chief of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery.

Chief Naval Constructor Phillip Hichborn will succeed himself.

The appointment of Medical Director Bates will be in the nature of a personal act on the part of the President. Dr Bates has rendered medical service for the McKinley family. Friends of Medical Director J. R. Tryon are considerably worked up over the prospective action.

HAS FAITH IN ANDREE.

Explorer Baldwin Thinks That the Balloonist Will Succeed.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Evelin B. Baldwin, an Arctic explorer of some note, when seen by a reporter in Brooklyn last night, declared his belief that Andree will come back safely from his journey in search of the North Pole. Mr. Baldwin has just returned from Europe where he talked with leading scientists, all of whom share his belief.

"Andree," said he, "is a man of learning and great ingenuity. He has studied the problem thoroughly and has been advised by many men of experience. Scientific men hold to the theory that the upper air currents of the Arctic are warmer than those below. If Andree can keep up among these he will be in no danger of freezing. These northern regions are not all water, as many suppose. There is a great deal of land and thousands of miles of solid ice, so the chances are good that should he descend he will find a safe landing place."

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

George W. Edwards is confined to his bed with an attack of pneumonia.

James P. Taylor will return from Europe in about two weeks.

James de Fremery will leave for New York and Europe in the near future, after having spent some time here with his daughter, Mrs Van Loben Sels. While here, Mr. De Fremery attended the funeral of Dr. Akerly.

Miss Margaret Davison will go to Ogden this week.

Mrs. A. A. Loring of the Children's Home Finding Society recently visited Santa Rosa in its interests.

Mrs. Hogue and Miss Helen Hogue of Albany, Or., are visiting Mrs. J. J. Jones in Alameda.

Dr. C. H. Russell of Armona, King county, is the guest of his brother-in-law, H. H. Kline, in Alameda.

Mrs. J. H. Collins and children of Stockton are visiting in this city and San Francisco.

Miss Kate Jamieson of San Jose is visiting in Oakland and Alameda.

Mrs. Mastin and children of Alameda are the guests of Mrs. Mary Piercy in San Jose.

The engagement is announced of Miss Cora Denny of San Jose and Charles D. Havens Jr. of this city. The wedding is set for September 9th.

Colonel H. Bendel was a recent visitor in San Jose.

Mrs. and Miss Lovejoy, accompanied by S. Dowsett of Honolulu, are registered at the Vendome, San Jose.

Miss Mary Edith Maples of Marysville and James Jones Reavis were married yesterday at noon in the Second Congregational Church in West Oakland by Rev. J. W. Phillips. The ceremony took place immediately after the services, and the church was crowded. The bride formerly lived in this city. Upon their return from Santa Cruz, Mr. and Mrs. Reavis will live in San Francisco.

A social will be given tomorrow evening in the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Ottie Cramer and William Achard were married Wednesday at the bride's home.

Miss T. M. Jones and Thomas E. Daniels were married Thursday noon by Rev. Father Moses Williams.

Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph gave a launch party recently on the Mascot.

Miss Dicy Allen Hill Shaw and Dr. Clarence L. Maloon will be married tomorrow evening at the Shaw home on Fourth avenue.

Mrs. Fred Gatter left today for Lake county, where she will spend the month of September.

Drowsiness is dispelled by BEECHAM'S PILLS.

Eternal Vigilance.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." It is the price of everything worth having.

It is the price of life itself. A man needn't be always looking for danger, afraid that something will happen to him; but a wise man will form a habit of care about the important things of life.

It isn't half so much trouble to take care of yourself as it is not to. A man who follows regular, healthy habits, feels good all the time. Life is worth living to him. But a man who "don't want to bother" with taking care of himself has more pain and misery crowded into one day than a good healthy, hearty man who lives right would ever know of in a whole year.

When a man's stomach is out of order, and his digestion don't work; when his liver gets to be sluggish and won't clear the bile out of his blood, it is time for him to look out for himself. He gets no nourishment out of his food. His blood gets thicker and thicker with impurities. His nerves get irritated. He loses energy and fighting force.

He may say, "I can stand it, I will feel better to-morrow;" but the chances are he will feel worse to-morrow and worse still next day. He ought to put himself right at once. He needs Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is made for just this condition. It rouses up the digestive and nutritive organs, and gives them power to extract from the food all the nutritious elements and transform them into rich, nourishing blood. It enables the liver to cleanse out all bilious impurities and pour into the circulation an abundance of highly vitalized blood, full of the life-giving red corpuscles which build up healthy flesh, muscular strength, and nerve-energy. It does not make flabby flesh. It is the only suitable tonic and strength-builder for corpulent people.

LEGAL.

Order to Show Cause.

In the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, State of California.

In the matter of the estate and guardianship of Elizabeth Severance, Harriet La Vaughn Severance and Helen Severance, Minors.

Helen H. Severance, guardian of the persons and estates of Elizabeth Severance, Harriet La Vaughn Severance, and Helen Severance, minors, having filed herein a duly verified petition praying for an order of this Court authorizing, empowering and directing said guardian to borrow the sum of four thousand dollars or such lesser sum as the Court may deem necessary wherewith to pay the charges of administration of the said estates and for the purpose of securing the payment of said loan, as said guardian to make, execute and deliver to the lender of said sum of money her promissory note therefor in manner and form as the Court may direct and as security therefor to mortgage to the lender of said sum of money the following real property of said minors, to-wit: All those certain lots, pieces, or parcels of land situate, lying and being in the County of Santa Clara, State of California, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a post marked "H 3 & H 4" on the east line of the Pala Rancho, said post being S 49 deg. 30 min. E 57.50 chains from a gatepost being the NW corner of the Higuera Tract; thence N 39 deg. 33 min. E 20.25 chains to a stake in corner of fence, thence S 48 deg 57 min. W 0 21½ chains to a 3"x3" redwood monument marked "S 1;" and thence N 39 deg. 33 min. W 19.51 chains to place of beginning, containing eighty acres, being a part of lot number 4 of the Higuera partition in accordance with map filed in the case of Higuera vs. Higuera, case No. 5017, in the Superior Court of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, magnetic variation 16 deg 30 min E, courses true.

Also all of lot 4 of the partition of the Higuera Rancho so-called, and shown by the final decree in the suit of David Higuera et al. vs Pedro Higuera et al., No. 5017, brought in the Superior Court of said County of Santa Clara, a certified copy of which decree is of record in the office of the County Recorder of said County of Santa Clara in the records thereof, in Book V of Miscellaneous, page 225, to which said record and decree reference is hereby made for more particular description.

It is hereby ordered, that all persons interested in the said estates of said minors appear before this Court at its Court room in Department No four thereof, in the Court House in the City of Oakland, in said County of Alameda, on the 30th day of August, 1897, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, and then and there to show cause, if any they have, why the said prayer of said petitioner should not be granted, and the aforesaid real property or some part thereof mortgaged to secure a loan to said minors of the sum of $4 000 or such lesser amount as to the Court shall seem meet, wherewith to pay the charges of administration of the said estates of said minors.

For all further particulars of said petition you are hereby referred to the petition now on file herein.

Done in open Court this 23d day of July, 1897.

JOHN ELLSWORTH, Judge.

COST TO RUN THE CITY.

Auditor Snow's Ninth Annual Estimate Filed With the Council.

One Hundredand Eleven Thousand Dollars Cut From the Departments.

City Auditor Snow has filed with the Council his ninth annual estimates of the cost of the city government. He provides $674,722 for the maintenance of departments, $81,794 for repairs and miscellaneous expenses and $81,731 for betterments, as follows:

Fire and Police Telegraph Extension, $7,811; Fire Department in the new district, $7,500; new fire hose, $5,600; new books for the public library, $4,000, reading rooms for the new district, $1,000; additional patrolmen, $6,000; permanent improvement of school houses and grounds, $8,800; paving thoroughfares, $27,000; park improvements, $16,000.

The estimate for bond redemption and interest is fixed at $73,000.

Mr. Snow's total estimate is $861,000. This is a cut of $111,000 from the department estimates.

Estimating the income of the city which is received from sources other than taxes to be $327,000. The amount to be raised by taxation is $537,000, which the Auditor estimates will require a tax rate of ninety-five cents and seventeen cents for bonds and interest, making a total rate of $1.12.

This will allow $42,000 to be paid of the city's bonded indebtedness. It is not generally known that $100,000 of the school bonds have already been paid. Such is the case, however, and it will be but a few years before the entire debt is cancelled.

In this year's estimates the Auditor has cut the School Department down $15,000 and $10,000 of this was for new sites in the annexed district.

Auditor Snow's report will be received by the Council at its special meeting this evening and will be referred to the Committee of the Whole. The committee will probably meet and consider the report this evening.

DEATH OF MRS. COCKROFT.

She Was a Well Known Resident of This City and Had Many Friends.

After an illness of but one month, Mrs. Martha A. Cockroft passed away Saturday at noon, at her late residence, 259 Walworth avenue. Death was caused mainly by heart failure, but the death of her son two months ago did much to hasten the end.

Mrs. Cockroft had reached the age of 72 years. Her husband, Joseph Cockroft, survives her, as also her son, F. Cockroft, and daughters, Mrs. T. M. Wilson, of East Oakland, and Mrs. E. R. Gray of Los Angeles. One son, Irving J. R., is dead.

Mrs. Cockroft was a native of England. She came to Illinois in 1846, and to California in 1883. She had lived in this city eight or nine years.

The deceased was a woman who had a remarkable power of making friends. As a wife and mother, none was more devoted and loving than she. Although not a member of any church, she was a devout Christian, embracing the Baptist faith.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the late residence

ROUTINE BUSINESS.

The Supervisors Dispose of Many Affairs of the County.

AID FOR THE INDIGENTS.

New Highways Are Opened in the Town of Newark.

KING'S DAUGHTERS ASK HELP.

They Need Assistance for the New Home for Incurables.

The Board of Supervisors held a session this morning and transacted considerable business in a short time. The Supervisors had been notified by the State Board of Equalization that Alameda county's assessment would be considered tomorrow and ordered them to appear to show cause why the assessment should not be raised. The Supervisors therefore hurried through this morning's meeting in time to catch the 1 o'clock boat to Sacramento.

E. B. Stone's bid of $787.50 for the laying of 1,000 feet of pipe line along the Haywards road was accepted.

Bids for the construction of the concrete bridge over Sausal creek were received from C. D. Vincent, $4,740; C. Radzwill, $4,785; E. B. Stone, $3,873; Johnson & Peterson, $3,883; Healy Tibbitts, $4,263; W. J. Schmitt, $3,835; Bernard Ransom, $4,100; Bassett Bros., $3,770; Kimball G. Easton, $3,448; Cotton Bros. & Co., $3,698. The contract was awarded to Kimball G. Easton.

AID FOR INDIGENTS.

Application for relief were received from Mrs. Esther Woodward, 77 years of age, residing in Alameda; Miss Kate Conrad, residing at 729 Twelfth street, and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Thompson, residing at Fifth and Broadway streets. These were referred to the proper Supervisors.

Applications were also received from Mrs. Greenrose, living on Peace alley, Alameda, and Mrs. G. F. Washburn, residing on Oak street, Alameda.

A petition was received from residents and property owners of Brooklyn Township calling attention to the condition of county road No. 1854 and requesting that the necessary work be at once begun. It was referred to Supervisor Talcott.

A communication was received from Laura Albrech, president of the Board of Directors of the Alameda county King's Daughters' Home for Incurables, requesting the assistance of the Board for Mrs. Foster of 807 Washington street. The matter was referred to the Hospital Committee.

A communication addressed to Supervisor Mitchell from John J. Coughlin was read, referring to the matter of repairing the gutters of the Hall of Records and re-lining the gutters of the annex with copper. The cost was estimated at $425.

HORTICULTURAL REPORT.

William Barry, as Horticultural Commissioner, filed the following report:

"Since my last report I have devoted most of my time in examining orchards for scale insects in order to ascertain where I could place beneficial insects to do the most good. This had to be done for two reasons, first, to find the actual need in orchards for which the beetles had been ordered, and second, to ascertain where the beetles were needed in orchards where owners had not sent in a request for them. On the whole the results have been very satisfactory. I have filled all the orders for the insects that I have received up to date, but I find there will have to be about thirty more colonies placed in orchards whose owners have not made any application owing no doubt to some misunderstanding about the possibility of procuring the insects. For the benefit of all parties, I will state that the breeding colonies established one and two years ago have been increased to thousands and are now ready for all the orchardists in the district who are in need of them, and will be distributed as the orders are received from now up to the 1st of October. In making this statement I would suggest that all parties who receive beetles will make it a point to place something in their trees to protect them during the winter months.

"It will not only protect them, but they will breed right along and the larva can be found even in the month of January.

In conversation with the orchardists in this district I have recommended cornstalks tied in bunches and placed in the crotches of the trees, the labor of doing so is trifling compared with the enormous expense of spraying. In spraying we never reduced the insect pests to any extent, but we killed all the beneficial insects that preyed on the scale. In visiting orchards lately I have shown several gentlemen the work of the internal parasite of the black scale. Since the orchardists have discontinued spraying it is astonishing how this parasite has increased. I have visited nearly fifty orchards, some of them two or three times, working in all nearly 1,500 acres. The fruits throughout this district have been entirely free from smut this year, with a gratifying decrease in both the black and brown apricot scale. With the exception of one or two orchards, the apricot crop throughout this district in Washington Township has been the heaviest and best in quality in many years. Most of the crop has been dried. Peaches are a light crop. Clings are bringing a good price at present and sell readily at $30 per ton.

"French prunes have done well this season in this locality. The heaviest crop I have ever seen was in the orchard of Ezra Decoto. He will have about 125 tons from ten acres, and sold to a drier in Santa Clara county at $25 per ton."

A. L. Henry, as secretary of the State Department of Highways, wrote to the Board to correct an impression that existed relative to the travelling expenses of members of the department, which, he stated, were borne by the State and not by the counties visited.

On Supervisor Talcott's motion, the County Surveyor was ordered to draw up plans and specifications for the macadamizing of the San Leandro road for a mile north from the San Leandro bridge.

Supervisor Wells was authorized to have a watering plant constructed at Irvington at a cost of $250, to be paid for out of the County General and the General Road and Washington Road District funds.

According to the report of the County Surveyor, and in answer to the petition of the Pacific Land Improvement Company and others, Thornton avenue, from Willow street to Rich avenue, and Rich avenue, from Sycamore to Cherry streets; Carter street, from Sycamore to Filbert streets, and Sycamore, from Carter to Rich streets, and Willow street, from Thornton to George streets, in the town of Newark, were declared public highways.

LIQUOR LICENSES.

Liquor licenses were granted to George C. Fisher of Niles, C. C. Herbert of Leona Heights, John Maher of Austin avenue, San Leandro, and J. J. Martin of Niles.

Applications for liquor licenses were received from Frank V. Macedo, Thomas Rees of Redwood road, C. W. Avery of San Leandro road, James Nunes.

FUNDS ARE SHORT.

The application of the trustees of the Union High school, No. 3, of Haywards, for $6,000 to meet current expenses, was referred to the Auditor.

William Barry, Horticultural Commissioner, filed a requisition for stationery, which was granted.

Sheriff C. E. White's requisition for hose was granted.

The Building Committee was empowered to proceed to complete furnishings in the new room of the Auditor, which include a desk, carpet and gas fixtures. The matter of using the old room of the Auditor as a stock room by the County Clerk was referred to the Building Committee.

CHARGES OF FRAUD.

A communication was received from Mrs. H. E. Guild of 1261 Campbell street, protesting against the giving of aid to Mr. McFadden and wife of 1259 Campbell street. The writer claims they are "frauds on the public," as they keep a chicken ranch and the wife works in the Contra Costa Laundry.

Foreman O. P. Moulton of Newark Road District filed a report for August.

Foreman Edwin Whipple of Decoto Road District filed a report for July.

L. M. Young, an inmate of the County Jail, petitioned for ten days' credit and they were granted.

The Board then adjourned for one week.

ASK THAT KOHLMAN'S SUIT BE DISMISSED.

For Over Three Years the Damage Case Has Been Pending.

Judge Greene listened to the arguments of the attorneys for the defense in the suit of Kohlman vs. the Southern Pacific Company, asking that the case be dismissed. The suit has been hanging fire for the past three and a half years.

The plaintiff, Mrs. Emma Kohlman, is suing to recovery $4,650 dumages for injuries done to her minor son, Harry Unna, who was injured while crossing the tracks of the local train.

Attorney Martin, for the defense, argued that the plaintiff by delaying prosecution had materially injured the defendant's case, as Thomas Brayil, one of the most important witnesses for the defense, has since the filing of the complaint over three years ago, left the State.

Attorney Crittenden for the plaintiff, presented an affidavit showing that the defense had never at any time tried to get a deposition from Brayil. Another suit has been filed by Harry Unna, who has attained his majority since the filing of the original complaint, in which he seeks to recover damages. To defend this suit Brayil's testimony will be necessary, and Attorney Crittenden thought that the defense would therefore be able to use Brayil's testimony for the original suit also.

After hearing the arguments Judge Greene took the motion under advisement.

FASHION'S FANCIES.

Travers and bayadere stripes will meet with fair demand this fall.

Veils to be worn exclusively with walking hats have very deep borders.

Squares in two colors, with golden lines to enliven the tissue, look well.

For business wear, the proper shirt waist is of alpaca wash silk, or silk finished gingham.

Ever so many designs in kid and leather belts are developed in bright reds and greens.

Linen collars and cuffs and a satin tie are the only accessories to traveling frocks of lussore silk.

Interlaced ribbons form a panel on white satin, and every square is caught with a Rhinestone.

White hats are seen trimmed with big bunches of white violets, with immense green leaves.

Ready made ruffings of mousselines and Persian organdies for skirts are a feature of the lace counters.

An odd waist of turquoise-blue gloria silk has a yoke of white chiffon and a bolero of heavy white point lace.

Tiny collets for midsummer evening wear are of plated mousseline trimmed with ribbon and artificial flowers.

The surplice waist is coming in again and muslin bodices cut in this style, finished with a soft fichu, will soon be seen.

Black velvet dog collars are becomingly worn with light silk gowns. A black velvet belt is also distinctly French in effect.

One of the grotesque fads of the moment is the cravat of mammoth proportions to be worn with silk or cotton shirt waists.

Worthless Accounts.

Assignee Stewart made a report before Judge Greene on the matter of the failure of Arlett Brothers. He said that many of the accounts were worthless and range from ninety cents to eighty dollars. The matter was continued four weeks to enable the assignee to make further collections.

A Wheelman Drowned.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Frank Savak, a well known racing wheelman, took a training spurt yesterday and then went to Moodna Creek, near Salisbury Mills, to bathe. The stream was swollen, he got beyond his depth and was drowned. His body was recovered.

THE CITY TO ANSWER

Judge Greene Overrules Dow's Demurrer in a Tax Case.

EFFECT OF A NEW AMENDMENT

The Railroad Company Wins in the First Light Sparring.

THE TAXES OF 1895 INVOLVED

A Reply to Be Filed Within the Next Ten Days.

The suit of the Central Pacific Railroad Company to recover from the city of Oakland money paid as taxes in 1895 came up on demurrer before Judge Greene this morning.

City Attorney Dow appeared for the city. He stated that the complaint did not show that at the time the money was paid the tax was delinquent. It was claimed, he said, that the company had been taxed twice, but that was not the case. The fact that the property was assessed twice did not constitute a second taxation unless the amount of taxes had been paid at least once on one or other of the assessments.

Harvey Brown, for the railroad company, stated that the action had been brought under section 3819 as amended. It was true, he said, that relief for the recovery of taxes paid under protest could not be obtained unless the property was threatened with sale, but that was under the old law. The Legislature had since amended that law. He then referred to the complaint setting forth that the property in question had been assessed by the State Board of Equalization under the law of the State. Neither the county nor city assessor had any right to assess the property within the right of way of the company in this city. Such an assessment, he asserted, was a double one. The amount of taxes paid on the assessment was $3,613.80, whereas the amount should have been $2,355. The amount which the railroad company claims is $1,258. Section 3804, on which the City Attorney had ruled, he said, had nothing to do with the case. The remedy set out in 3804 was a cumulative remedy and no value whatever. Section 3819 furnished a complete remedy. The company had paid under protest after the city assessor had received the book from the county assessor, and in that section, the whole scheme was set forth.

Mr. Dow said that if the complaint had been drawn under section 3819 the complaint was defective because it spoke of a duplicate assessment book where there was no such thing as a duplicate assessment book.

Mr. Moore said that if it be true that there was no such thing as a duplicate assessment book the complaint might be amended by striking out that term.

Mr. Brown then asked leave to amend by striking out the term "duplicate assessment book," which was granted.

Then arose the question as to whether the taxes could be recovered in a suit against the city, and City Attorney Dow said that was the course of procedure with respect to the recovery of such money and that that procedure would obtain with respect to the city.

Judge Greene then overruled the demurrer and allowed ten days in which to answer.

ASSAULTED HIS FATHER.

Tim Traynor Is in Prison on a Very Serious Charge.

Tim Traynor, an alleged member of the "Sporting Life" gang, has been in the City Prison for several days. Against his name on the small book there is a serious charge, that of assaulting his own father with a deadly weapon.

The affair occurred early last week. The father, Thomas Traynor, claims that every time Tim gets intoxicated he goes home and creates a disturbance.

The old man has lived in fear of his son for a couple of years, and the last time Tim called at his father's house the younger man seemed surlier than usual, and the father started for the street to call a policeman.

The young man followed his father, and at the front gate, it is alleged, slashed the old man in the shoulder with a dagger.

He was immediately arrested. When seen this morning, young Traynor told a Tribune man that he and his father had always been the best of friends, and that there must have been some mistake. His father, he said, must have mistaken him for some one else.

Wants a New Trial.

A voluminous statement on a motion for a new trial by Thomas O'Donnell vs. the Oakland, San Leandro & Haywards Electric Railway was filed this morning. The plaintiff is suing for damages sustained by one of his children by being run down by one of the cars of the defendant.

On Briefs.

The case of Harris against Ames in which the plaintiff sues for the recovery of a certain amount of money alleged to have been obtained from her by the defendant, her brother in a fraudulent manner was agreed to be submitted on briefs before Judge Ellsworth.

A Big Claim Allowed.

Judge Ogden this morning allowed a big claim against the executor of the estate of the late Charles T. H. Palmer, namely Henry A. Palmer by whom it had been allowed. It is that of the Oakland Paving Company for $46,068.86.

COURT NEWS

Judge Hall's decree in the matter of the Pleasanton Stock Farm Company, which has been declared insolvent, has been filed. It is ordered that the Sheriff shall take possession of the property, except such of the same as shall be exempt from execution, and keep possession of the same until an assignee shall be appointed.

On the 10th of next month, it is decided that a meeting of the creditors of the company will be held for the purpose of electing an assignee.

The indebtedness of the farm unsatisfied in this instance is as follows: C. H. Wise, $4.85; J. H. Neal, $734.65; C. H. Dill, $102.05; Chadbourne Warehouse Company, $512; Cutler & Silver, $38.25, making a total of $1,391.80.

In the matter of the estate of Eliza Tompkins, John W. Tompkins, executor of the will, Mrs. Mary E. Platt, Mrs. Sarah C. Hatch, Mrs. Emma J. Tompkins, Florence Hatch, J. H. Tompkins and Frank L. Adams have been cited to appear before Judge Ogden on the 26th of September.

Charles A. Conger has been cited to appear on an order for an examination on the 13th of September, at the instance of John H. Koster, who claims that Conger has omitted from his inventory in insolvency certain property which he possessed at the time of the filing of the petition.

Henry G. Ellsworth has filed an answer to the petition of Oliver Ellsworth et al., in which he admits that the plaintiffs are owners of the property involved in the suit, and consents that a decree be made in accordance with the complaint.

Fred Esty has filed a statutory demurrer to the complaint of Dougery brothers.

W. E. Topham has filed a denial to the complaint of George H. Bradford that he is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $640.

The final account in the matter of the estate of Victoire S. St. D. Durch has been filed by executor J. E. de St. Denis. The total amount received was $400, and disbursed $334.80, leaving a balance of $65.20.

Adolph Anderson has been cited to appear in Judge Ogden's court September 13th to nominate a guardian for himself, for which position Charles E. Snook is an applicant.

Warren T. Hitt, T. G. Daniells and W. J. Urton have been appointed appraisers of the estate of J. L. Fast.

A decree of foreclosure for $236 has been issued by Judge Ellsworth in favor of J. H. T. Watkinson as against Isabella Kanitz et al.

The bond of the assignee, D. E. Besocker, in the sum of $500, in the insolvency of Howard E. Wright, with Mary J. Miller and Matilda Hirleman as sureties, has been filed.

SPLENDID PROSPECT FOR THE HOSPITALS.

Newspapermen Will Try Their Skill Against the City Hall Ball Players.

Captain Harry Thomas of the City Hall baseball team this morning challenged the city officials to play a game of baseball next Saturday. Rehan and Callahan of the fire department will be the battery for the Oakland nine.

A week from Saturday the City Hall team will cross bats with the Oakland newspaper men. The newspaper men will begin practicing this afternoon on the St. Mary's College grounds.

Councilman George J. Earl, captain of the Council nine, has sent a challenge to the Board of Education. The game will be played in two weeks.

DOUBT AMERICAN GOVERNMENT REPORTS.

A Criticism From London That Is Not Creditable to This Country.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—The Mark Lane Express, reviewing the crop situation, says the wet weather has seriously delayed the harvest and that the new wheat is bound to suffer.

Continuing, the paper asserts that advices show the Russian crop to be decidedly below the average, while the American crop is probably above the average. In this connection, the Mark Lane Express says that information regarding the crop appears to be kept back, and adds that the experience of recent years leads to the American Government advices being placed upon a much lower level of authority than those of other countries.

Saved the Crew.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PUT-IN-BAY, O., Aug. 30.—The sloop-yacht Cora V. capsized in last night's squall, the worst that has struck here in some time. A pleasure party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Revera and son of Cincinnati, Elmer Banning and Ben Clark and the crew of the yacht were aboard. They were rescued by a life crew after struggling about in the water for a little while.

Fatal Collision in Germany.

Death of "Ensign" Corning.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Erastus Corning died today of apoplexy aged 70 years. He was descended from Samuel or "Ensign" Corning of Beverly, Mass., and was one of the wealthiest men in the State. His charities were numerous.

Beat the Rivals

John F. Conners of this city, now in charge of the Examiner Bureau at Fort Townsend, Washington, is achieving great success in that capacity. In a telegram to the Examiner he stated that they had succeeded in gaining six hours ahead of all other papers in the country, in getting Clondyke news to the paper. This was a clever piece of work as all the large papers of the country were represented.

THE CITY DEMURS TO FLANAGAN'S SUIT.

Right to Fix Water Rates Is the Question at Issue.

Many Reasons Advanced Why the Complaint Should Be Dismissed.

The City of Oakland, through City Attorney Dow has filed a demurrer to the complaint of E. J. Flannagin against the city for the purpose of testing the right of the city to establish rates for the several water companies now doing business in this city.

The demurrer sets forth a number of reasons among the following: That the court has no jurisdiction; that the Mayor of the city has not been joined in the issue; that the City of Oakland is not a necessary party defendant; that it cannot be ascertained from the complaint whether the water companies in question, supply water to other communities than those of Oakland; that it cannot be ascertained either whether or not the improvements to be made in 1898 by the water companies are necessary to be made this year; that it cannot be ascertained whether the value of the capitol stock of the Contra Costa Company decreased from par to $33.75 per share and finally that it cannot be ascertained whether the income of the companies will be sufficient to form a fair and reasonable compensation.

Notice is also given that the city on the 13th of September will move to strike out nearly all the principal features in the complaint.

TRIED TO DIE.

Chas. Spencer's Drinking Brought Him to the Receiving Hospital.

Charles H. Spencer, the horseman who was taken to the Receiving Hospital with a broken leg, is now resting easily. Until last night, although the accident occurred last Thursday, Spencer was raving and unable to sleep. He had been drinking heavily prior to the accident and was suffering from delirium tremens.

He tried to kill himself by banging his head against the iron bed posts. Doctors Stratton and Milton ordered him strapped to the bed. Opiates were administered in large quantities and the man finally fell into a restless slumber last evening.

Today he is much quieter, although he is still out of his head.

DAMAGED BY SMOKE.

An Investigation of a Suspicious Fire on Washington Street.

Fire Warden Fred Murdoch and the police are investigating a fire which occurred in the clothing store of Tocha & Rogers at 1016 Washington street early yesterday morning.

There is no cause suggested for the fire. It started under the counter near the book-keeper's desk and was shooting upward toward the ceiling when the fire department arrived.

As soon as the Thirteenth street chemical arrived on the scene a line was run in and the flames extinguished in a short while, not, however, till the smoke had damaged the goods to the extent of $1,000. The damage was covered by insurance.

DEBS ENTERS THE STRIKE

His Social Democracy Is Expected to Capture the Big Convention.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.—E. V. Debs of Terre Haute, Ind.; M. D. Ratchford of Columbus, Ohio and W. D. Mahon of Detroit were among the delegates to the labor conference, to arrive this morning.

"I'm out of it to a certain extent," said Mr. Debs this morning, "I am no longer affiliated with any labor body, but have come simply as a guest of the conference under the general call."

Mr. Debs would not venture an opinion on the probable outcome of the conference.

"Is there any probability of a sympathetic strike?" was asked.

"I hardly think so, in fact, these delegataes are not empowered to order a strike. They can do no more than report back to their respective bodies, the sense of the convention.

"Government by injunction," Mr. Debs went on "as exemplified in the struggle of the miners has been carried to the extreme and the people are revolting. I expect the convention will take some very decisive action in this matter."

Mr. Ratchford has a plan which he will probably present to the conference calling upon every working man and woman in the country to contribute one cent per day of their wages to a fund for the relief of the striking miners. This money, he thinks, will amount to between $1000 and $2000 per day. Part of this fund will be used to keep men at work among the strikers in the Pittsburg district, where the operators propose to start their mines with non-union men. In other words, the camps there will be maintained with the hope of eventually influencing those now at work to quit.

Among the other arrivals of the morning were James O'Connell, representing the city branch of the American Federation of Labor, Chicago; A. Damerill, of the Industrial Council, Kansas City; Victor L. Berger, with credentials from the Social Democracy of Milwaukee and Frederick F. Heath, representing the street railway men, also of Milwaukee; W. D. Ryan, Vice President of the United Mine Workers of Illinois; Jacob Tazelaar who comes from the Brotherhood of Painters, Chicago, and R. P. O'Neil, Rich Hill, Mo.; John Mitchell, Spring Valley, Ill.; George Wallace Scammon, and Joseph Pollard of Belleville, Ill., all members of the miners' organizations.

Much disappointment is expressed at headquarters over the non-arrival of Samuel Gumpers, but it is believed he will be in St. Louis this afternoon or tonight.

As to what the convention would do, none of the delegates seen this morning were willing to forecast.

There is no denying the fact that the "Social Democracy" movement, headed by Mr. Debs, has a large following, and it would not be a surprise to see that new venture gain control of the meeting.

An effort will be made to amalgamate all labor bodies represented and to this end a movement looking to the appointment of a general conference committee will be presented by Mr. Steinbliss of St. Louis.

"My idea is," said Mr. Steinbliss, "to have one or two delegates from each branch of organized labor form a general conference committee. While I hardly think such a committee, if appointed by the conference will do anything at this meeting, they will get together later. By that time our ideas will have crystalized and some definite platform upon which a general amalgamation of labor could stand would be formulated. It is bound to come. We must be united."

It is not expected that the convention will do anything today, beyond perfecting organization and appointing a committee on credentials.

Chairman Steinbliss of the local committee of arrangements, called the conference to order at 10 o'clock. About 100 people were scattered about the hall, not all of them, however, were delegates. Mr. Steinbliss said as the call for the convention had already been read, and as many of the delegates were unaware of the meeting place of the convention and the hour, he moved that an adjournment be had until 11 o'clock. The recess was taken.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the convention was again called to order. W. B. Prescott, president of the National Typographical Union, of Indianapolis was chosen temporary chairman and W. C. Pierce of Columbus temporary secretary. Mr. Prescott then appointed a committee on credentials.

Considerable controversy arose over the naming of a committee on resolutions, which, although the convention was not yet permanently organized, was moved by one of the delegates. There were motions to adjourn until 1 o'clock, and in the midst of this parliamentary tangle Delegate Sovereign shouted: "I'm sick and tired of resolutions; this is the time for action. I move, Mr. Chairman, that the motion to appoint a committee on resolutions be amended to read 'on resolutions and plan of action.'"

This brought out a flood of amendments and motions but the whole matter was finally tabled and the meeting adjourned until 2 P. M., at which hour the report of the committee on credentials will be presented.

When asked as to the truth of the statement reputed to have been made in Pittsburg by M. P. Carrick, president of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, in regard to the mobilization of idle miners at Pittsburg, President Ratchford of the United Mine Workers of America, said:

"I know nothing at all about it; have never heard of such a plan being proposed. It may have, however, without coming to my attention, as I have been away from Pittsburg for some time."

After re-assembling the report of the Committee on Credentials was read and a Committee on Resolutions appointed. The committee numbers five members as follows: W. C. Pearce, of the miners; W. D. Mahon, of the street railway men; ex-State Senator Borger of Indiana, in whose favor Mr. Debs declined; G. C. Clemmens of Topeka, representing the Populists, and James R. Sovereign, the Knights of Labor representative.

After the addresses had been made a recess was taken until this evening.

PITTSBURG STRIKERS ARE DISAPPOINTED.

Rain and Hunger Are Affecting the Health of the Campers.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 30.—What many of the miners of the DeArmitt region predicted last week failed to come off, the week opening with a heavy rain storm. A few of the strikers, however, turned out for missionary work.

The present weather is having a bad effect on the campers. While the general health of the men is good, a number have severe colds and one man is down with pneumonia.

M. P. Carrick, president of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators of America, says that a proposition is to be presented at the St. Louis convention to mobilize the army of unemployed in the country in the vicinity of Pittsburg in the event of a determined effort on the part of the operators to start the mines with imported labor. It is understood President Carrick says that an appeal will first be made to the railroads of the country, not as an organization, but as individuals, to not handle coal dug at non-union mines.

If this fails the mobilizing in Pittsburg will be considered. These men, he says, will not come here to destroy property, or take part in riot or insurrection, but will be here to show that this is a peaceful battle and that the working class are as a unit in crying for relief.

WILL NOT BE A GENERAL STRIKE.

Eugene Debs Says Injunctions Are Condemned by Public Sentiment.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 30.—Eugene V. Debs left for St. Louis tonight to attend the conference called by the National Executive Board of United Mine Workers. He says there has been a remarkable change in public sentiment on the injunction question; that whereas, three years ago there was hardly any dissent from the course of Judges who were issuing restraining orders against the strikers, the preponderance of sentiment now is in opposition.

"The fact is," said he, "it has been carried to the extreme and public sentiment revolts. If the injunction is upheld no strike can be won. The court issues the restraining order and fixes a day for the hearing two or three weeks ahead. In the meantime the strike will have been lost."

Speaking of the possible action of the St. Louis conference, Mr. Debs was not willing to be quoted, but it was evident that he did not believe a general sympathetic strike would be ordered.

THIRTY THOUSAND PEOPLE STARVING.

Miners Cannot Possibly Live on the Wages Offered by the Owners.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LEBANON, Ind., August 30.—An immense meeting was held tonight at the Opera House in behalf of the starving coal miners in Indiana. Judge Thomas J. Terhunes made a statement of the condition of the miners as he found it while making his investigation as Governor Mount's special commissioner. In the course of his address he said:

"There are 8000 families in this State in destitution. Sixty thousand people who are literally starving. A few years ago they received $1.25 per ton, now the average price paid is about 35 cents per ton. A good miner can make $1 a day and is allowed to work two or three days each week. They are compelled to trade at company stores and the prices they pay are left entirely to the mine operator. The miners admit that they can-

CHICAGO'S MYSTERY.

Sausage-Maker Luetgert Is on Trial for Boiling His Wife.

STATE'S THEORY OUTLINED.

JURORS TO SEE THE FACTORY.

Grewsome Details of the Case as Told by the State's Attorneys.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—The trial of Adolph Luetgert for the murder of his wife, began in earnest today, the preliminary work of securing a jury having been completed. Long before the case was called, the corridors of the court building were thronged with people trying to gain entrance.

Contrary to the expectaiton of the State, the jury will be asked by the defense to witness an experiment in the vat in the basement of the sausage factory. This is to be the result of an an experiment conducted by Luetgert's attorneys, Saturday and yesterday.

The body of a man of about Mrs. Luetgert's age and weight, who met death by violence last Thursday, was taken to the factory at 807 Diversy avenue, and immersed in a solution of caustic potash. The result exceeds their expectations.

The experts reported that after boiling the body in a 15 per cent solution of potash for the same length of time, three and one-half hours, and under the same circumstances as the State alleges Luetgert disintegrated the body of his wife, the complete skeleton of the cadaver remained intact and the solution had but little effect upon the clothing.

As a result of the test the defense will, it is said, ask Judge Tuthill to remove his court and the jury to the basement of the big sausage factory for a few hours and witness another experiment, which the defense claims will completely disprove the State's theory of disintegration.

Luetgert was calm and composed when he was brought into court and he had apparently been greatly refreshed by Sunday's respite from the daily court room ordeal. Assistant State's Attorney McEwen, formally opened the case for the State. On the wall, close to the jury-box, were hung maps of the Luetgert sausage factory, the Luetgert home and all the surroundings of the place where it is charged the prisoner killed his wife and destroyed the body. The attorney for the State began with the disappearance of Mrs. Luetgert on May 1st, and next described the visit on May 4th of Bicknese, brother of Mrs. Luetgert, when he called to see his sister and discovered that she had disappeared. He dwelt upon the apparent indifference of the husband, his statement that he had not informed the police, but had hired two detectives, and his invitation to Bicknese to call again in about a week, when he would tell him if anything had been discovered concerning the whereabouts of his sister.

Attorney McEwen told the jury that Luetgert's statement that he had hired two detectives to search for his wife would be proven false.

Mr. McEwen said it is the theory of the State that Mrs. Luetgert accompanied her husband into the factory, between 10:30 and 11 o'clock. About 10:30 her little son Louis, returned from the circus and saw her sitting in the kitchen.

The conversation of the boy with his mother was interrupted by Luetgert, who came in and ordered the boy to bed. Before going to sleep the boy heard his father descending the back stairs toward the factory, where he had slept for years. Mr. McEwen said it is the theory of the State that Mrs. Luetgert descended the stairs at the same time and went to the factory. The boy did not hear her steps because she wore house slippers which made no noise. Luetgert and his wife were seen in the alley in the rear of the house a few minutes later they were seen going through the gate which led to no place except the factory.

The attorney for the State then detailed the movements at the Luetgert factory, the turning on the steam to the vat, the sending of Watchman Bailk shortly after to a drug store and Bailk's subsequent errand to a drug store, all of which kept him out of the factory for an hour and a half. He was away when Mrs. Luetgert was last seen alive in the alley.

The alleged motive which actuated Luetgert according to the theory of the State was then described. Mr. McEwen said Luetgert despised his wife. He had treated her with violence as the evidence of the State will show. He had no affection for her and lived alone in the factory. There, the attorney said, he had been visited by other women. Judge Vincent objected to this statement but Judge Tuthill overruled the objection. Mr. McEwen said witnesses would testify that they saw Luetgert choke his wife in the chicken house back of the residence. She said: "You need not kill me as you did that man, for I have no money." This caused Luetgert to say that she would

NEW YORK POLITICS.

Organizations Uniting to Name the Next Candidate for Mayor.

THE OFFICE GOES BEGGING.

Republicans Decide on Low to Beat the Tammany Tiger.

SENATOR PLATT WILL FIGHT.

He Has Opposition in Worth Who Is Open in His Hostility.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Tonight's conference between Republican leaders and prominent leaders of several organizations is apt to lead to an important bearing upon the issue of who shall be the first Mayor of Greater New York.

A prime factor of the conference will be Senator Thomas C. Platt. Whether or not the city of New York Citizens' Union is to be represented at the meeting is to be decided tonight at a conference of the executive committee.

Some members of the party are of the opinion that only in such an alliance lies an assurance of defeating the Tammany nominee, whoever he may be, while others regard the proposed alliance as a surrender of the union's principle of non-partnership.

Mr. Low has placed himself on record as accepting a nomination as candidate for Mayor of New York with the distinct understanding that if elected he should be entirely free from all party dictation or by any so-called party leaders, and this fact is regarded as an obstacle to his acceptance by the Republicans. His campaign thus far has been principally in the hands of the Citizens' Union. The suggestion has been made that the Mayoralty nomination be conceded to President Low and all the other elective offices to the regular Republican organization the canvass to be conducted by Chairman Quigg of the Republican County Committee.

The practicability of this proposition is one of the points to be discussed at tonight's conference. At the conference there may develop also facts as to the reported differences between Senator Platt and Jacob Werth, Chairman of the Republican organization of King's County, upon which Democrats have been counting to some extent.

Mr. Worth has been quoted as giving expression to hostility to Senator Platt as the dominating spirit in the party, but there is a possibility that the differences of the two men may be adjusted at an early day.

The Democrat's plans for the Mayoralty campaign appear to be even more nebulous than those of the Republicans. There is no one whose name is an overshadowing portion.

Charles W. Dayton, who has been strongly urged for the nomination is just back from a visit to Paris. He says he has no ambition to be Mayor of Greater New York, but would like a place on the bench. His preference would be to have the nomination given to such a man as Charles R. Coudert, or to ex-Judge M. J. O'Brien, Judge Lawrence or Judge Gaynor.

A SCHEMING YOUNGSTER.

Gets Away With Much Money Through the Fair Will Case.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 30.—James Walter Gough, the youth alleged to have signed the name of Attorney Delmas to a pretended assignment of all the proceeds of his law business as security for money advanced, failed to appear in Judge Slack's court today when the Angus-Craven case was resumed and the court proceeded to investigate the matter in his absence.

Charles Moulter, a carriage trimmer, testified to the effect that two weeks ago Gough went to him and borrowed some money upon an alleged Fair will. He already owed him about $700 which was secured by certain papers with Delmas' name signed to them.

Gough represented that his uncle was one of the jurors in the Fair case and that therefore Delmas would win the case and pay him all that he alleged he owed him and on this showing Moulter lent him the money.

Judge Slack said that it was evident that Moulter had been imposed upon and that Gough should be arrested for having obtained money by means of false pretenses, and attorney Nagle intimated that he would call the attention of the Grand Jury to the matter.

They were charged also with maintaining a gaming table.

The two men went into the brokerage business this spring, and the arrests are a result of their operations.

OFF FOR SACRAMENTO.

Supervisors Will Go Before the State Board of Equalization Tomorrow.

The County Supervisors accompanied by County Clerk Jordan left on the noon train for San Francisco and from their took the one o'clock boat to Sacramento where they will go before the State Board of Equalization to show why Alameda County's assesment should not be raised.

The Supervisors intend to make the trip as pleasant as possible and are considering the advisability of taking a little jaunt to Folsom after the business before the State Board is completed.

In the party that left at noon were Supervisor and Mrs. Talcott, Supervisor and Mrs. Will Church, Supervisor and Mrs. John Mitchell, Supervisor Wells, Supervisor Roeth and County Clerk Frank C. Jordan.

Deputy Assessor Richards will leave this evening on the 8 o'clock train bound for Sacramento and armed with data with which he confidently expects to prove to the State Board that Alameda County is now justly and fairly assessed. He will compare records of assessments and will also show the prices given at recent real estate sales.

KILLED BY OUTLAWS

Marshals Are Shot From Ambush by Desperate Moonshiners in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 30.—Two Deputy United States Marshals are dead, two are seriously wounded and two more are missing as the result of an attack upon a posse of officers by a gang of desperate moonshiners in Searcey county.

The dead are: B. F. Taylor of Searcey county, Joe Dodson of Stone county.

The wounded are the Renfro brothers.

The missing men are not named, but they are supposed to be Deputy Sheriffs of Searcey county.

Taylor, one of the dead, was 60 years of age and was the wealthiest man in Searcey county. Dodson was a well known deputy and has been a terror to moonshiners for years.

The six officers were on a moonshiner's raid when the terrible affair occurred. They had approached to within thirty yards of an illicit distillery when they were fired upon from ambush.

Taylor and Dodson fell at the first volley dead in their tracks.

The shooting occurred thirty-five miles from Russellville at a point ten miles south of Witt springs. The locality is in the mountains and has for many years been a favorite rendezvous for moonshiners and counterfeiters.

The news of the terrible tragedy was brought to Russellville this morning by Dr. Pack, who came after the Coroner.

The men who did the shooting are supposed to be a gang of moonshiners led by Horace Bruce and John Church, two of the most desperate characters in that part of the State.

MRS. BACON'S HAND.

It Is Said She Is Trying to Run the Family Land Company.

One end of Mrs. Mamie Bacon's suit for maintenance against her husband, Frank Bacon, bobbed up in Judge Greene's court this morning when Mrs. Bacon's suit against the Bacon Land and Loan Company, William J. Dingee and John R. Spring, to have the sale of the Albany property set aside, was heard.

In support of the plaintiff's side of the case, a brief by attorney Scrivener was filed.

R. M. Fitzgerald said that Mrs. Bacon was not a stockholder in the Bacon Land and Loan Company. She was attempting to govern the act of the corporation, and he knew of no law which would give her the right to do such a thing. The defendant might have been present at the meeting of the corporation and voted against the transfer of the Albany Hotel property, and yet the transfer could have been been made.

BEN HILL IS GRATEFUL.

He Thanks His Friends for Helping in the Hour of His Need.

Editor Tribune—I wish through the columns of the Tribune to return my heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly gave me assistance in many different ways at a time when I was in the greatest need of friends.

As there are many that have been of great assistance to me in ways and at times which I do not know, who are almost if not entire strangers to me, I take this means of expressing my appreciation of their efforts in my behalf.

"Cast thy bread upon the waters, for thou shalt find it after many days." (Eccle. xi-1.)

Very truly yours,

BEN L. HILL.

GOVERNOR BUDD RETURNS

He Is Back to His Post of Duty After His Vacation.

Will Follow Cleveland's Example and Go Duck Hunting.

STOCKTON, Cal., Aug. 30.—The Mail tonight will print an interview with Governor Budd in regard to his reported absence from the State, of which the following is a synopsis:

"Who's Governor of California?"

"I am," said Governor Budd, in answer to this pleasantry this morning. The chief executive is back within the boundaries of the State once more, and Jeter, at Santa Cruz, will no longer have the pleasure of signing official documents with the words "Lieutenant-Governor Jeter, acting Governor of California."

The Governor arrived yesterday morning, after an absence of seven weeks from this part of the State. He has been staying at Klamath Hot Springs and Klamath Lake. The springs are four miles on this side of the State's northern boundary and the lake lies partly in California and partly in Oregon.

Governor Budd was driven to his launch, where he spent several hours, the boat being put in readiness for a cruise to San Francisco bay. Mrs. Budd and one or two friends will accompany him some time next week. Upon his return Governor Budd will take a catamaran down into the tules and spend several days in hunting ducks.

The Governor intends to enter his boat in the launch races next fall and hopes that the "Camanche" will contest, as he thinks the latter will fall astern when the Budd launch starts in to show what she can do.

FAMILY JARS IN THE GROUND HOME.

A Lively Exposition of the Trouble in an Alameda Circle.

Cruelty, Harsh Language and a Mother-in-Law Involved.

This afternoon the divorce case of Anna C Ground against W T Ground came up in Judge Ellsworth's court

The parties to the case resided at 1810 Buena Vista avenue Alameda

There was no appearance on the part of the defendant

The petitioner took the stand and testified that she had been married to Ground in 1892 and that since that time she had worked hard to make her home and husband happy By way of return for this treatment the husband had treated her in a most cruel manner He had threatened to kill her and on several occasions she had to fight with him to prevent him from getting possession of a revolver with which he threatened to take her life

She testified that he had applied the most foul and abusive epithets to her

The defendant filed a cross-complaint alleging that the plaintiff had brought her mother and five sisters to live in his home and that they had so crowded the domicile that he was compelled to sleep on a lounge and frequently outside the home

The Wring Of Sense.

Wring out the old—Wring in the new It's all in the rubber Folks who have clothes wash them, and folks who wash clothes wring them

All folks don't use wringers

Some folks twist their wrists in clothes wringing They get tired They wear out themselves while wearing out the clothes Clothes twisting squeeze out more wear than water. The way to get water out of clothes is to use something to take it out—and that's a wringer There are poor wringers and good wringers. A poor wringer costs less, and makes the clothes cost more. A good wringer costs more and makes the clothes cost less The good of the wringer is in the rubber of the rolls The harder the rolls, the cheaper they are, and the less rubber is in 'em The easy tic roll saves clothes. The harder the rubber the less wringing it does the more buttons it breaks, the more clothes it wears out. Hard rolls wring out the thick part of clothes—the rest remains dripping wet The elasticity of soft rolls adapts itself to thin and thick—wrings both perfectly The softer the rubber the longer it wears the better it wrings, the longer the clothes lasts.

You can tell a good roll by the feeling of it. The only long wearing, even-squeezing, clothes-saving, button-keeping, dry-wringing, time-reducing, patience-preserving, early-dinner rolls, are "The American Wringer Company's Rolls" used in all their 'High Grade Wringers" Sold in Alameda County by

DEMOCRATS WILL MEET.

Pennsylvania Politicians Will Fight a Hard Battle.

By Associated Press to The Tribune

READING Pa Aug 30—The State Democratic convention will assemble in the Academy of Music tomorrow to nominate candidates for Auditor and State Treasurer

The selection of a ticket is lost sight of entirely in the struggle to declare vacant the seat of William M Harrity of Philadelphia in the National Committee Mr Harrity has many friends among the delegates and they are working like beavers

Magistrate Charles P Donnelly of Philadelphia has charge of the Harrity forces and is confident that the committee will not turn down his friend

The State chairman John Garman, of Luzerne, and ex-Congressman Jas. Kerr of Clearfield are directing the anti Harrity forces

James C McKinney of Titusville is spoken of for the nomination for State Treasurer. He is on the ground and will accept There will be no opposition to the selection Mayor Jacob Weidel of Reading is the only avowed candidate in the field

A conference of party leaders will be held tonight to draft a platform There is not much doubt but that the Chicago platform will be re affirmed and the late Legislature condemned for its extravagance

Congressman Laman of Reading will be temporary chairman and Robert Irwin of Washington will be permanent chairman of the convention The indications are that it will be a large convention and that there will be plenty of discord

A TRIAL NOW ALMOST AT HAND.

The Harrison Street Opening Case to Be Heard in November

The long continued case of Smilie vs the City of Oakland has at length been set for trial and will be heard by Judge Ellsworth on the 3d and 4th of November

The case was brought about two years ago and is the outgrowth of the attempt of the then Mayor J L Davie, to open Harrison street to the water front Early one morning Davie took a force of men down to the foot of Harrison street and removed piles of lumber which belonged to Smilie brothers, which he claimed closed the thoroughfare in its end of allowing free access to the harbor The removal of the lumber was based also on the ground that the property belonged to the city and was improperly used for private purposes

An injunction was gotten out by Smilie Brothers restraining the Mayor from interfering with the replacement of the material and the piles of lumber were restored to their former place The case has since been continued from time to time in the courts

IN JUSTICE'S COURT.

Judge Wood rendered judgment for the plaintiff in the case of Josephs vs Klock this morning Attorney Josephs claimed that Constable Koch had taken four cows valued at $100 away from him and had refused to return the property while Koch claimed that he was only doing his duty in impounding the cattle Judge Wood ordered Koch to restore the property or pay $100

not be allowed to bertray him Judge Vincent objected to this statement as foreign to the case and not proper evidence but was overruled by the Court

When Mr McEwen concluded Attorney Vincent announced that no opening address would be made at present for the defense

The first witness was then called W H Haafe of the city map department, who testified to the correctness of the drawings being used by the prosecution

When the afternoon session began the first witness called was Diedrich Bicknese brother of Mrs Luetgert He told the jury of his visit to the house of Luetgert on May 4th to see his sister There he met the sausage maker and talked with him for some time before he was informed that Mrs Luetgert had disappeared Bicknese said Luetgert told him he did not know what had become of his wife He had last seen her the Saturday evening previous Luetgert said he did not believe she had gone away with some other man but thought she had wandered away The witness said he asked the prisoner what he had done to find his wife and was informed that he had not told the police of her disappearance Instead, he said he had paid two private detectives $5 each and they would do more than the police would accomplish

The witness said Luetgert told him he had not looked to see if his wife had taken any clothing with her except the dress she had on when he last saw her He had not visited any place or made any inquiries

Bicknese told his story in a simple straightforward way that made him an impressive witness

THE FIGEL CASE.

Witnesses Identify the Pistol With Which Hoffman Was Shot.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 30—Mrs Hoffman was re-called by the defense in the Figel case today for cross examination upon the subject of the letter demanding $60 from her husband in return for an order that her mail be delivered to him

The prosecution objected to this line of examination and the court sustained the objection Mrs Hoffman was thereupon excused Dr D D Lustig who assisted Doctors Shiels and Williams in their experiments with a pistol upon a cadaver testified and was asked a number of hypothetic questions

Mrs Solomon Lewek was called upon to identify a letter written by herself to Hoffman condoling with him upon his domestic relations but it was not admitted in evidence

L L Levings an Examiner reporter, testified to having seen the revolver found in Hoffman's office and swore to having seen blood upon the cylinder

Officer Colen swore that the pistol which he exhibited to Reporter Bishop of the Call on the night of the murder was not Hoffman's pistol, but his own

OPERATORS PLAN TO START THE MINES.

They Agree on a Sixty-Nine Cent Rate as a Last Resort

By Associated Press to The Tribune

PITTSBURG, Aug 30—A meeting of coal operators who do not ship to the lakes has been arranged for tomorrow when a plan will be formulated to start their mines at the sixty-nine cent rate if permission cannot be secured from the miners officials to allow their men to return to work

Many of the operators who are in sympathy with the movement are afraid to join in the meeting and prefer to wait the result of the operators plan to break the strike by importing men

The lake shippers have little to say except that they will carry out their original intentions They admitted that such a move as was contemplated by the small operators might result in forcing the others to concede the miner's demands

NEW MINERS MAY BE IMPORTED.

Operators Are Determined to Start the Mines at All Hazards

By Associated Press to The Tribune

WHEELING, W Va., Aug 30—The strikers camp near the Montana mines gained not fewer than fifty recruits today, all of them men who have been working but the operators were on the lookout for deserters and had nearly as many new men go into the mines In the New River region a few men were brought out but the district is working practically full handed

At Clarksburg the operators have been chafing because their mines were tied up early while Fairmont carried off a part of their trade while no effort has been made to start the Clarksburg mines

But it is given out today that unless the old men return to work before the end of the week the operators will begin importing men next week The miners have no faith in the St Louis meeting except it may aid them in cash They do not believe an order for a general strike will result

Montenzou, Cal, March 1st 189?

I write this letter for the benefit of any one who may be in trouble as I have been About fourteen years ago I was taken sick. The doctors pronounced it ulceration of the stomach and said it would end in a cancer.

At times I would vomit a black and bloody looking matter, also a great deal of white mucus The disease would make me very nervous and despondent At different times during my ailment I would get some relief for a few months then it would come back as bad or worse than ever I doctored with several as good doctors as I could find in the East and also here in California, but none of them effected a cure.

I was advised to consult Dr Tom She Bin, which I did about the 1st of October, 1892.

He said my trouble was the cancer of the stomach I commenced taking his medicine immediately. For the first three or four months there seemed to be but a very little change After that time I improved very fast and am now able to do quite a good day's work I have every reason to believe he has effected a permanent cure for me J L CARPENTER.

San Francisco, March 2 1897

I saw Dr. Tom She Bin's advertisement, I first come up to 615 Kearny street to feel my pulse. He tell me what trouble, I had, was true I had a pain over my body, and chilly I put my case to him. first week I take Chinese Herb, one week I was great deal better I been sick for six years I go to white physician cannot do me any good I take Dr Tom She Bin's Herbs six week, I was all well. I was cured about one year and never pain again

MRS. J SANGALL, 17 Lafayette Place, between Green and Union, Kearny and Dupont, San Francisco, Cal.

San Francisco March 4th, 1897

By these presents I do hereby recommend Dr Tom She Bin as a successful doctor to cure the dreadful disease styled consumption, so common among all classes. He has restored my health in the short term of twenty days, for the trifling amount of $50 per day.

Signed L C FLORES, 506 Upper Main St Los Angeles, Cal.

San Francisco, March 5 1897

This is to certify that I have taken treatment from Dr Tom She Bin for stomach trouble, and was cured in four weeks.

W J MORRISON, 1412½ Baker St, San Francisco Cal

San Francisco March 6 1897

This is to certify that I have been entirely cured of stomach trouble by Dr. Tom She Bin in two months. I had tried several American physicians and they had failed to cure me.

MABEL BARBARER Milpitas, San Jose, Cal

I have taken treatment for my kidneys, that have bothered me for a long while, and also catarrh of the stomach, and also chronic diarrhoea, and was cured in two weeks by Dr Tom She Bin, also blood poison in my thumb.

WM. E. BRYAN, No. 4 Martha place, San Francisco.

San Francisco March 6, 1897

I had gravel and kidney trouble four years My friends sent me to Dr Tom She Bin He felt my pulse, and he told me what trouble I had I put my case in his hands and took herbs twice a day. In four weeks my troubles were all cured. Now my flesh is all good The last three or four years I went to white doctors, but never did me any good Now I have got well and am in good health

JENS J JENSEN, 213½ Clara St, San Francisco, Cal.

Geo. Osgoodby, author of the world-famous Murchison letter to Lord Sackville West, the English Embassador, in 1888, writes concerning Dr Tom She Bin, now selling Chinese Teas and Herbs at the Sanitarium, 615 Kearny street, San Francisco, Cal, and says

Pomona, Los Angeles Co, Cal, March 7, 1897

For the benefit of those who are suffering with chronic diseases, I will say that many years of severe suffering and futile treatment ended in Bright's disease of the kidneys, of which Dr Tom She Bin completely cured me, after correctly and minutely describing my malady from the pulse without asking a question. He is a medical marvel, and without a peer in his profession. Respectfully,

GEO OSGOODBY.

San Francisco March 13th, 1897

I wish to give my testimony in behalf of Dr Tom She Bin It is about two months ago that I fell sick with influenza, being unable to procure no other help than that of domestic remedies I fell worse and worse, until I was totally paralyzed I was induced to consult Tom She Bin and he, by the aid of his wonderful Chinese herbs I felt somewhat relieved in twenty-four hours and he agreed to treat me for the sum of two hundred dollars, and now I feel grateful to the doctor for his efforts. Very truly,

HILARIO PRECIADO Los Angeles Cal

This is to certify that Dr Tom She Bin cured me of kidney trouble and stricture. Was sick for some time but found no relief until I tried this doctor He entirely cured me and I have not been troubled since

President Kellogg Calls Class Rushes Guerilla Warfare.

Maguire Has a Word to Say About the Federal Judges.

BERKELEY August 30—President Kellogg of the State University has characterized the hall rush which took place late Saturday afternoon between the Freshmen and Sophomores as the "warfare of juvenile sands and North American Indian" and says such rushes have not the slightest excuse President Kellogg prefaces his written criticism of the matter by gently sighing over youthful follies and then talks poetically of the rush by the uncertain light of the crescent moon He declared that he prefers contests of strength upon the gridiron, the track or the diamond

The annual rush between the two classes will however, take place tonight on the campus Clinton Milton will lead the Sophomores and N G Gulberson, the Freshmen giant will direct his classmen's tactics although he is a candidate for the football team he will not be allowed to take an active part in the rush.

The southern Greek letter fraternity, Kappa Alpha has reorganized its Berkeley Chapter which entered the University in 1875, but was dissolved later owing to internal dissensions

The latest addition to the fraternity world at Berkeley bids fair to be successful In its establishment the general order was represented by N E Schelmerhorn of Johns-Hopkins University J A Griffin of Stanford Professor E B McGilvary of the University of California and W G Bonte of San Francisco The only member of the old chapter who is interested in the new one is L E Eton of the Junior class The other initiates are R A Wagner Walter G Bledsoe, Adolph Cheek and Harold Playter

Charles Elliott a bicycle dealer of Lorin plans to go to Trinity on a motor tandem The motor will propel the tandem which will be ridden by Elliot and Thomas Roust also of Lorin The two will depart early next month

The per cent of women students in the present class at the University has been found to be greater than last year, but less than the year before In 1895 the per cent of co-eds was 40 59, in 1896, 40 01 and in 1897 it has risen to 41 62 per cent

The following assistant editors of the Californian have been appointed F F Ellis '98 J V Mendenhall '00, W A Shuey '00 R Hazeltine '00 S Epstein '00 R R Tully '00 Arthur Tashera '00 G W Eddy '00 and J L Merry '00

At a recent meeting of the councilors of the University of California Alumni Association it was decided to permanently organize on September 6th William R Davis was elected temporary president and C Green temporary secretary

President A O Sweet of the University of California Chess Club has called a meeting of that organization for next Thursday afternoon to outline plans for the season particularly with regard to the proposed contests with Harvard and Stanford

Three more Berkeleyans will leave for the Trinity diggings today They are W G Black, P Corrigan and John Algee They have their own conveyance and a complete mining outfit and will make Coffee Creek their destination

SALOON-KEEPERS WANT LOWER LICENSE.

Say They Feel Hard Times as Much as Any Other Branch of Trade.

The liquor dealers in the territory recently annexed are making an effort to have the license reduced one-half, asserting that their business does not justify payment of $100 per quarter

The facts in connection with the case were published in the Tribune a month ago, when it was stated that the desire to have the license reduced is also shared by the liquor dealers in the whole city

The saloon men have raised the argument that they have felt the depression of trade as much as any other branch of business and they declare that they are outside It is very likely that the matter will soon be brought to the attention of the City Council and there will undoubtedly be a hard battle fought when the question is brought up The California Protective Association say their organization has nothing to do with the movement which is purely a local one

SEVERAL ODD THEFTS.

Two Enormous Shells Carried Off From an East Oakland Porch

A pair of enterprising thieves carried away two large South Sea Island shells from the front porch of C A Klose's residence of 969 Fifth avenue, yesterday while the family was at church The men were seen by neighbors The shells weighed about 400 pounds and were taken away in a buggy

The barn back of the grocery store of Goldberg, Bowen & Co, at 1075 Clay street was broken into Saturday night and a lot of harness was taken No clue has been found which might lead to the identification of the thief

The police have been notified that a lot of hand painted porcelain has been stolen from the basement of the house at 1321 Twenty-sixth avenue The porcelain was of considerable value and it had been stored in the place temporarily.

Another theft reported was that of a whip, lap robe and cushion, from a buggy which was standing in front of the Golden Gate Church at yesterday morning's service

Sacred Heart Fair.

The Fair at the Sacred Heart Church is well attended Ticket sellers are in their glory, the young men are hoarse from lustily shouting the good qualities of their wares, the matrons who have charge of the tables smile as they count their dollars and Father Serda dreams of how happy he will be after paying off the church debt Thursday evening after their meeting the Catholic Knights will attend in a body and after discussing the chicken, wine, ices and cake to be served, will enjoy a short but interesting programme

The programme for this evening is in charge of the Literary Society of the Parish and promises to be a musical treat to fair goers A class of boys from the Brother's School will sing. There will be a recitation by Miss Sullivan and banjo selections by Mr La Rose

At Shellmound Park.

A number of events have been planned with Shell Mound Park as the scene of festivities

September 5th, the San Francisco Schuetzen Verein will hold a picnic, followed by an outing of St Mary's College on the 9th The 12th Nord Deutscher Verein will enjoy a moonlight affair at 11 P M

The Irish Nationalists of California will picnic the 19th and on the 20th the Independent Rifles Captain L Schneider will hold the Park

ANXIOUS TO FORGET HER FALSE LOVER.

Miss Cummings Hears Nothing of the Man She Was to Marry.

His Companions All Think He Has No Intention of Keeping His Engagement.

Nothing can be learned of George B. Adair, second officer of the ship Largiemore who was to have been married to Miss Elizabeth Cummings last Thursday evening and it is feared that he has deserted his bride for good

According to the statements of J G Spencer the captain of the Largiemore, Mr Adair left the ship a week ago last Friday at which time he drew his back pay and informed the captain that he was to be married in a short time and that he would no longer sail the seas for a livelihood but remain on land for the rest of his life

Mr Spencer said last evening Mr Adair signed with me a year ago last March and although I was never in his confidence I noticed that he was rather erratic and am not much surprised that he cannot be found There is no foundation for my suspicions other than his rather queer actions I do not think that he has been foully dealt with but am rather of the opinion that he is hiding in the city, but for what reason is as much a mystery to me as to many others

The only man who seemed to be in his confidence was A L Hadson the sail maker and what he may know of Mr Adair is nothing to me Mr Melville, formerly the third mate of the ship Blairmore, has been engaged to take the missing man's place

I saw Adair for the last time Monday," said Mr Hadson "when he was stopping with a Mr Daniel Law at 1012 Tennessee street and since that time I have heard nothing from him I was well acquainted with Miss Cummings and knew for some time that she was engaged to Adair He first told me that the marriage was to take place last Tuesday but on Monday he told me that it was postponed until the end of the week On the same day he told F Anderson, one of our seamen, that the marriage was postponed for a month, and these reports have led me to believe that he had no intention of ever marrying the girl, to whom he had been engaged for over a year

Miss Cumming who is an attractive young lady finds herself considerably broken up over the dilemma in which she finds herself

I will admit she said last evening, 'that I am distressed and completely heartbroken over the whole affair It is hard to describe my feelings when I found that I had been deserted Colonel Adams, who was present Tuesday evening explained the matter to the guests as best he could under the circumstances but the whole affair has been constantly in my mind ever since

We have been engaged for over a year. I knew him in Glasgow and we renewed our acquaintance when the ship arrived here about a year ago He sent me many letters telling of his love and his hopes of an early marriage

I am under the impression that he has gone to Alaska He gave me some presents which I shall return to his mother, and I never wish to see or hear from him again He told me that he had obtained his release from his captain as he wished to marry and settle down But this is the result

Tripp Loses an Estate

The estate of Elizabeth L Cook, a wealthy widow who died in this city has passed to Eastern heirs and has slipped away from William G. Tripp A few weeks before her death, and in anticipation that an impending surgical operation would prove fatal Mrs Cook gave her entire fortune to Mr Tripp who had been acting for some years as her confidential adviser The property consisted of real estate and a lot of valuable securities When Mrs Cook died the deeds were placed on record There was a contest and the Eastern heirs won

Mortgaged the Road.

The East Oakland Street Railway property has been covered with a heavy mortgage as a security for notes amounting to $35 841 45, the amount of the judgments under which the road was sold to the Realty Syndicate The notes are made by F C. Havens and F M Smith, and are payable to J Dalzell Brown, who is supposed to represent a San Francisco bank. The notes bear 7 per cent interest.

MONDAY.....AUGUST 30, 1897.

Another penny club has gone to pieces. It is a pity that the police seem powerless to reach the arrant swindlers conducting these affairs.

The dispatches announce that 5000 people are at Camp Skaguay waiting for something to turn up. They won't get it that way. A miner's business consists of turning it up himself.

Boston's latest bit of aestheticism is the announcement that she intends to "regulate" all her street music. Wonder if this will apply to some of her stupid nerve-racking literary organs.

Joaquin Miller's plaint that there are no birds in Alaska, will end when he reaches the Yukon and runs across a few droves of mosquitos. He will think he has struck a combination breed of vampire and vulture.

It seems like turning back the pages of history to say that there is a survivor of the Battle of Waterloo, yet such is the case. He is 104 years old, and still lives in Paris from which city he marched sixty-two years ago under the flag of Napoleon to meet the armies of Wellington and Blucher.

The Ladies' Home Trade League is an excellent organization and it is to be hoped that its members will live up to their tenets. It is to the female side of the house that the merchants of a town have to mainly look for their support and every recruit gained for home industry that way means so much of the battle won.

Ex-Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, who distinguished himself by reporting the Carson City fight, is now bidding for fame again with a poem entitled "Subsoil, a Vision." No one has yet been able to discover what meter it is written in but it may well be believed to be a case of gas-meter.

The title-seeking maniacs of the East will be casting envious eyes at the West. With one San Franciscan decorated with the Ennid Cross of the Legion of Honor and another given the honors of knighthood by the King of Portugal, it doesn't look as if we are quite as wild and woolly as we used to be.

Hunting wild horses is now a favorite sport in Nevada. The last Legislature passed a law permitting their slaughter and as a result large numbers are now being killed. The hide brings $2 and the tail and mane fifteen cents a pound. This savors of the days that brought about the extermination of the buffalo.

A small boy up country recently died from eating buttercups, so as a warning to others, some one has prepared a list of poisonous wild flowers, popularly considered harmless but certain to prove fatal if eaten. They are buttercups, celandine, wood anemone, daffodils, narcissus, lily, snowdrop, jonquil, wild hyacinth, monk's hood, foxglove, nightshade, briony, mezeron and henbane.

No wonder the Valley Road people are determined to know on exactly what conditions Oakland will offer them a terminus. They are getting a dose of the medicine at Bakersfield that has been administered to them along nearly the entire San Joaquin Valley—the people enthusiastic about their approach and then holding at fabulous prices the land necessary for the depot and right of way.

The railroad men of the country, who stood like a stone wall in favor of sound money in the last election without reference to their former affiliations, are now reaping the reward of that action. Railroad earnings are increasing in all parts of the country, large additions have been made to the working force, better hours are given and as a consequence, there are more earnings and steady employment. The July profits of 118 railroads operating nearly 100,000 miles of road aggregate 8½ per cent higher than in July, 1894.

The rule adopted in Washington, D. C., that no bicyclist shall ride on the public streets with handlebars lower than the saddle, is being urged in a number of other cities in the Union, why not in Oakland? Every one objects to the scorcher who comes tearing down the street risking life and limb, not only to himself, but to any one who may happen to be crossing. The ordinance now in effect at the National Capital, seems to have answered the question of how to put an end to this dangerous practice.

Country editors have lots of troubles and as there are no policemen in their towns they tell their woes to their readers. Here is a wail from the Willows Journal. "We apologize for the looks of the Journal today. With the stench from the dead carcasses of horses burned in the fire Tuesday morning, the horrible smell of a cesspool coming in the window, the sweet odor of a pig pen coming in the back door, and the perfumes of the gutter coming in the front door, the whole Journal force is laid up with sickness of the stomach. If these various nuisances are not abated we will have to move out to

WORK OF STATE EQUALIZERS.

Referring to the duties of the State Board of Equalization the Call says:

"It is useless to approach this tribunal equipped with prejudice against its alleged shortcomings or to seek to move it either by cajolery or abuse. That this course is a mistaken one has been made sufficiently manifest by the misfortunes of San Francisco in the matter of its assessments during the last few years.

"The proper method of proceeding in the case is simple. There is no good cause to doubt that the members of the Board are fair-minded and desirous of doing justice. Let us appeal to reason. If our claim is right, as we believe, it will be easy to prove it so when the time comes for a hearing. When the Supervisors recently sat as a Board of Equalization many representative business men went before them and made a showing which amply proved the justice of the assertion that our rate of assessment is certainly as high as it can be made with a due regard to the value of the property. The same men should go before the State Board and make a like representation of the facts.

"It will be remembered that last year when the State Board of Equalization was dealing with the assessment of San Francisco not a single effort was made by the officials or by the citizens to prevent a raise in the rate. No arguments were submitted to the Board, no reasons were given them why the assessment should not be raised. In fact, nothing was done to protect ourselves from mistaken estimates with which the Board may have been supplied."

This expression of opinion in the Call at once provoked a reply from a prominent tax-payer of San Francisco in which he said:

"Allow me space enough to add that to my knowledge for the past three or four years our city officials have acted a farce with respect to the State Board of Equalization. Look at last year. What was done? When San Francisco was cited not one of our howling officials was present. We not only insulted the State Board, but we did worse—put in the hands of Chesebrough, member from this district, data that he knew little of and which were not backed up by facts. He performed a strange proceeding by acting as attorney and judge as well, and ended the whole farce by being voted down.

"The sooner we learn that the State Board is made up of experienced, able men in the matter of assessments, and that such men are not to be trifled with, the better it will be for the tax-payers."

These are undoubtedly the right sentiments and they apply equally well to every other county in the State. Equalizing of assessments is a business transaction and can only be conducted on businesslike principles. If State taxation is to be equable the State Board of Equalization should and must be assisted by the tax-payers, and Supervisors all over the State, for only by such a method can its duties be intelligently performed.

THE SALVATION COLONY.

The co-operative colony that may probably be started in an adjoining county as a result of the appeal of the Salvation Army will be a widely different proposition to the one advocated by Debs, and which has gone to the winds for lack of nutrition. Anything of a reformatory and social nature undertaken by the Salvationists is generally on a sensible basis, and the present project certainly is, as witness the statement by Commander Booth-Tucker:

"We will divide the land into ten-acre farms," he says. "We will build a cabin or small house on each farm, have the land ready for cultivation and each family that joins the colony will find work in readiness and a bank account of $200 to its credit. The colonists will pay for the land in installments at the rate of perhaps $1 per week."

There is nothing Bellamistic in this. It is simply an evolution of the Pingree system, which has proved so successful and the only stumbling block that is now in sight is the $500,000 needed for the enterprise. However, the Salvation Army is one of the best organizations in the world on a canvassing proposition, so there is little fear that the capital will prove an insurmountable obstacle. As to the families being able to sustain themselves on ten-acre farms that part of it is settled already. There is no question in the world about their ability to do so in this part of the country, and as Claus Spreckels has agreed to erect a beet sugar factory on the colony grounds, a substantial revenue for the enterprise is assured. From a sociological standpoint the project is an excellent one, for it means the taking of hundreds of poor families from the over-crowded centers of population and giving them an opportunity to earn a satisfactory livelihood. Furthermore, the development of much at present unproductive territory will be brought about and this is also a noteworthy factor to consider. There seems no reason why the plan should fail, and as it is replete with advantages and no objections, it is to be hoped that the Salvationists will succeed in getting it into operation.

A WORD TO WAGE-WORKERS.

The reports from Mexico which indicate that it takes nearly 2½ Mexican silver dollars to buy what one American dollar will purchase show something of the distressing conditions to which the laboring class of that country are reduced. A report by a special commission sent to Mexico by the Trade and Labor Assembly at Chicago last fall shows that teamsters get $1 per day in Mexican money in the City of Mexico, while those in the city of Chicago get $1.75 per day in American dollars, or, when the difference in the values of the dollars is considered, about four times as much. Street-car drivers get 75 cents per day in the City of Mexico in depreciated money, as against $2.25 in good coin in Chicago. Printers in Mexico get $1.25 a day; in Chicago $3. Other comparisons are as follows: Pressmen, $1.20 a day in Mexico; in Chicago, $3.50. Shoemakers in Mexico, $1.25; in Chicago, $2.50. Carpenters, in Mexico, $1.25; in Chicago, $2.50. Bricklayers, in Mexico, $1.25; in Chicago, $4. Laborers, in Mexico, 37½ cents; in Chicago, $1.25.

Apart from the bad business basis the country is on, from a working man's standpoint, the contrast in the earning capacity of the dollars is something appalling, and is not a recommendation for the free-coinage proposition which the Democrats of a few States still have the hardihood to urge. The Mexicans are eagerly awaiting Bryan's arrival in order to learn from his own lips just how to meet the crisis precipitated by the fall of silver—of course he can tell them all about it.

How easy it is to puncture some of the stories that are coming down from the Clondyke. For instance the Times of this city tells of "a nickel-in-the-slot machine that sold for $500 and the first day's receipts were over $5000." Now the nickel-in-the-slot machine is as its name implies, a device for receiving nickels and in order that no other coin can pass through it, the receiving aperture is shaped so that it can only receive a nickel. The $5000 said to have accrued as one day's receipts means 100,000 nickels. To have got that number of coins into the machine it would have been necessary to have deposited sixty-six a minute for every minute of the twenty-four hours—a palpable impossibility, especially when the question of where would the nickels come from is asked.

The next session of the United States Supreme Court in October, will be an unusually interesting one for California, for on its decision rests the fate of Durrant, Worden and Hill. The principle too, will be tested and if the court either directly or by inuendo, indicates that States are not compelled to tie up their laws pending such appeals, it is more than probable that no more delays of that kind will be allowed because the Wardens only act on the advice of the Attorney General and the present incumbent anyhow has never shown any desire to favor such a course of procedure. Should the appeals though result in opening up the cases again it looks as if capital punishment will be a penalty practically impossible to impose in California.

A MAIDEN'S PROTEST.

I'd like to kill the sinner who discovered electricity,
And relegated to the past the kerosenish flame;
Who robbed us of the pleasures, aye, the heavenly felicity,
Which once were golden features of the lovely sparkling game.
I'd like to pull his fiendish ears until he yelled in agony—
And incidentally I'll say the same thing would my beau—
All loyal lovers are with him in bitterest antagony,
Because his light cannot be turned Away
down
low.

When kerosene was in its prime we'd sit with due propriety
Until the other folks had climbed the stairway for the night,
Then lovingly each would enjoy the other's sweet society
Beneath the old lamp's half suppressed and dim religious light.
But now that incandescent thing in fiendish triumph stares at us
From early in the night until it's time for him to go—
Just winks its bright electric eye maliciously and glares at us,
Because it knows it can't be turned Away
down
low.

Were I queen of America I'd make of it a felony
To burn an incandescent light—myself would frame the law—
And if the people kicked I'd tell them all to go to Helena,
Which is located, I believe, 'way down in Arkansaw.
I'd re-establish kerosene in every community,
And all the boys and all the girls would bless my name, I know,
For giving them the coveted and longed-for opportunity
To do their sparking with the light
Away
down
low.

WELL WORTH NOTING.

A New York man is in jail and his wife in the hospital. Trouble began with a badly cooked beefsteak.

A Southerner, wearied by the weight of 86 years, turned up in New York recently with $25,000 concealed on his person. New York is wondering how he managed to survive twenty-four hours with such a tempting wad. There are others whose wonder approaches amazement.

Chicago dealers in tobacco have had their humane instincts aroused to the point of revolt against cheap cigarettes. With a generosity admirable and wholly unselfish, they want to raise the price from 5 and 10 cents to 15 cents a pack.

On August 3d the village of Buffalo Center, Minn., celebrated its third anniversary in view of the fact that within three years of the time a field of grain occupied the site of the village the people had put up a $12,000 hotel and a $15,000 school house, and the population numbered 1,000.

Sir Isaac Holden, who passed away recently achieved title and renown as the inventor of the lucifer match. From his luminous idea sprang many others. There is that dainty bit of sanded cardboard, fringed with dainty ribbons and artistic bows—delicate feminine creations—extending a mute invitation to "scratch my back." Sir Isaac started the longest strike in modern times.

They have a summary method of dealing with usurers over in England. A professional money lender summoned a young artisan for default of a debt of about $60. The defendant showed that once when he was ill he had borrowed $20, but that he had only received $16. He had repaid $11. The judge who tried the case ordered the balance paid at the rate of 12 cents a month. This will extend the payment over thirty-seven years.

An Alabama toper, whose nose had passed the rubicund and invited embarrassing public attention, became converted the other day at a revival meeting, and retained his reformed principles for three days, in which the persuaded most of his class living in the town to sign the pledge, awakening so much anxiety in the bosoms of the two neighboring saloon keepers that they waited on him "in a body," with the proffer of free drinks for a year if he would refrain from his reformatory activities. His virtue was not equal to this strain upon it, and by night he was howling full.

A Case of Rats.

The babies at the Lewis school know a thing or two. At least they know the difference between one thing and more, or they think they do. They had an examination down there the last of the week, and the little people in the second grade were asked a number of what to them seemed foolish questions as to what the singular and plural of scissors and sheep were. One small chap astonished his teacher with his knowledge upon the subject.

"Georgie, what is the plural of mouse?" she asked of a curly headed youngster with a big frilled collar.

"Rats," he answered, and was so serious about it that she knew he thought he was correct.—From the Chicago Times-Herald.

NOTES ABOUT NOTABLES.

The Duchess d'Uzes has some 14,000-000 pottles of champagne in her cellar, in Paris, and as many more in her wine vaults at Rheims.

The duchess of Cleveland has the outside of her house washed down form the top to bottom by men for the fire brigade. The task is performed very early in the morning.

Rick Pasha's expedition to the Soudan in 1883, every man of which is believed to have been massacred, has been officially pronounced dead by the English Probate Court, executors having been allowed to presume the death of a member of the force.

The King of Siam being in England, there is a discussion over his name. It is commonly supposed to be Chaulalongkorn, but a member of the Athenaeum Club writes to the London Times to protest that this is a "mistranslit-eration." The real name, he says, is Kulalankaram.

The Cushing (Ok.) Herald notes in its society columns that "Nipplgay Coonskin, whose wife went two months ago to visit her sick daughter in Iowa, got tired of living alone, so he got married again last Friday to the widow Mrs. Gibbs-Rogers-Dusha-Okathay. No presents. No cards.

The Governor General of Algeria has given the charge of a medical mission to the mountains beyond Biskra, to a woman graduate of the University of Paris, Miss Chellier. Her chief work will be the charge of the native women and children; and she has already gained experience by making two successful journeys into that part of the country, placing trained nurses at the various stations.

At a faculty meeting of the Washington and Lee University, during General Robert E. Lee's presidency, one of the professors made some disparaging remarks about General Grant. General Lee rose from his chair, and looking the professor full in the face, said to him: "Sir, if you ever again presume to speak disrespectfully of General Grant in my presence, either you or I will sever connection with this university."

M. Limborg, one of the testamentary executors of the late Duc d'Aumale, has, in a letter to the French institute, given some interesting particulars about the value of the Chantilly estate. Since the year 1886 it appears that books, manuscripts, pictures, and various works of art, amounting in cost to nearly $295,000 have been added to the Conde museum. The total value of the collection is now appraised at $3,-000,000, The library alone, comprising 13,000 rare volumes and 15,000 less valuable books and manuscripts, is worth $100,000.

A black oak table at which Bonnie Prince dined the day before the battle of Culloden, was sold for $1000 at the recent dispersal of the furniture and relics belonging to the Forbes family, kept in the Culloden castle. The table was bought by Macintosh of Macintosh, whose clan suffered severely in '45. An antique cabinet brought $2000, and an arm chair carved from the "rebel tree," on which the Highlanders hung their kail pots the night before the battle, $250. The sale brought in $17,500 altogether. A Culloden medal that had been given to General Thomas Gage, aid-de-camp of the Duke of Cumberland in the fight, and later responsible for the battles of Lexington and Bunker Hill, was sold in London for $1150.

A Tacoma correspondent says that the first woman who can cut and fit a dress has arrived at Clondyke and is making a fortune with her needle. She is Mrs. Chester C. Adams of Winlock, Wash., and inside of thirty working hours in Dawson City she netted $90 from sewing. For making a common every-day Mother Hubbard, Mrs. Adams received $5, and for a waist without "bones" or any of the frills of civilization, she was readily paid from $10 to $15 in nuggets. The plainest kind of work brought from $5 to $10, and sometimes, when she sold goods or made a trade, the woman who paid her weighed out considerable more gold than she asked for her work. Mrs. Adams finds that the women of the Clondyke have plenty of gold, as well as the men.

A Mixed Mental Drink.

"Say," said Ike Miner to a group of loafers in a big cigar shop, "I was in Pike county a few weeks ago, and a county storekeeper nearly drove me to drink."

"That was dead easy," put in a listener.

"Don't break in—about a relationship. I've lost more sleep over it than I ever did over my business affairs. There was an old man 73 years old who married a girl of 22. Her mother, aged 40, married the old man's son. Now you see that, of course, she's the daughter-in-law of the old man, and the daughter-in-law of her own daughter, and, of course, her daughter is her mother-in-law. Well, her daughter had a little boy. Now, you see, that the boy is her grandson, and also he's the grandfather-in-law of his own grandmother."

"Hold on, Ike, you're getting into deep water. You say he's the grandfather-in-law of his own grandmother? That's wrong."

"How is it then?"

"Why, the kid's his own grandfather, and his real grandfather is his grandson-in-law. Ain't that right?"

"You fellows are nutty. You can't look at a thing in the proper light. Keep cool and examine a thing. Now, if that girl married her grandfather-in-law—"

"But she didn't said Ike. "She married her stepfather's son, ain't it? Say, let's start over."

"No," said another, "put it in this way. One stands for the old man and 2 for the girl he married, see? Then 3 stands for the son of 1, who married the daughter, the mother of 1. The elder woman's 4. The odd numbers are men and the even numbers are women. That's easy to remember. Now, of course No. 1 is the father of No. 3, but No. 3 by marriage is also his stepson-in-law. Well, now the kid is No. 5, and, of course, No. 1 is his grandfather, but—"

THE TOCSIN.

A ladye stands on a rampart's height,
Beneath a starry sky;
A youth is with that ladye bright,
And no other eyes are nigh.

They look upon a lovely bay
Stirr'd by the breath of even;
And, well I ween, no fairer scene
To mortal eye is given.

From her ocean bed the moon is springing,
Where wave and welkin meet:
And a flood of silvery light is flinging
Athwart the rippling sheet.

And the dancing waves that kiss the shore,
With gentle sound are beating,
As soft and low as words that flow
From lips of lovers meeting.

The spell of the fairy scene hath bound
The youth and the ladye faire;
But hark! a clear and startling sound
Rings on the silent air.

Away, away, the hour is come—
The 'larum voice hath spoken—
They have left the shore—the dream is o'er,
And the airy charm is broken.

Would'st know the pow'r, in that soft hour,
That broke so sweet a spell?
Ah! truth is cold, but must be told—
It was the supper bell!

POLICE PICKINGS.

Of the ten drunks who graced the dock of the Police Court this morning, the one who looked as though he had received the worst punishment for his indiscretion was A. R. Shepard. Shepard had the blackest pair of eyes that have been seen in the dock for some time and he acted as though he was on the road to a case of D. T's. When arrested by Officer Moore at the Weber House at Twelfth and Franklin streets he claimed that he was a representative of the Grand Army from the East.

George Nelson, the Temescal youth who stole a couple of watches from some plasterers who were at work on his father's house, will be tried by a jury October 6th.

Judgment has been suspended in the case of Celia Eslava, the woman who was arrested for vagrancy several weeks ago. The girl was taken to the Beulah Rescue Home, where she promised to reform.

Gustav Browse, found guilty of battering a Mrs. Hansen of Temescal, has forfeited $15 bail.

CUBANS ARE LOYAL

They Stick to Their Arms and Will Do or Die.

LED BY NEGRO BANDERAS.

Thousands March Across the Island to the West.

SOME SPANISH DESERTERS.

Many Leave the Army and Join the Insurgent Band.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The Journal and Advertiser says:

The sensationally victorious march of the Cubans under Maximo Gomez and Antonio Maceo, the entire length of the island in Martinez Campos' time has just been duplicated by Quintin Banderas. The negro war captain, than whom no Cuban of the colored race, excepting only Maceo, perhaps, has won greater honors in the struggle for independence, led 12,000 men from the eastern end of the island, where the patriots in arms are strongest, to the western end, where, since Antonio Maceo's death, through the treachery of his body physician, Dr. Zertucha, the Cuban cause has not prospered so well. These 12,000 men represented all branches of the Cuban army service. They penetrated into the province of Matanzas, Havana and Pinar del Rio, strengthening the existing forces in each of these provinces to such an extent that the coming winter campaign there may be expected to be even as disastrous for the Spanish as it was in the times of the redoubtable Maceo.

The news of the brilliant achievement was brought to the Journal and Advertiser by the mail from Havana in an autograph letter from Banderas himself. In it he requests the publication of the proclamation that he issued on taking charge of the department. Banderas says that the second invasion of the west was made in compliance with plans that were completed by Maximo Gomez, the general-in-chief, himself, in June last, and that the march was effected with little or no trouble or molestation from the Spanish troops.

"We crossed their lines again and again," he says, "but there was no fight in them, and we had no battles. Our men behaved nobly in the face of constantly possible attacks by larger forces. There was no faltering at any time, and once more I have been able to admire the heroism of our soldiers who have fought, are fighting and will ever fight, I am convinced, until the independence of Cuba shall have been attained, they will fight."

The proclamation intimates that there have been wholesale desertions from the Spanish army in Havana province into the Cuban service, saying:

"In taking command of this province, I send greeting to all its forces, but more especially to the brave Spanish soldiers of the Pizarro cavalry regiment, whom I reviewed yesterday and those who, filled with sympathy for an oppressed people, fighting for their liberty, have come over to our files, in this way giving most direct lie to those who say that the Spanish soldier exists only to serve as food for the cannon and for the purpose of affording means to their officers to get titles and decorations."

The rest of the proclamation is directed "to the men of my race," and is as follows:

"It only remains for me to appeal to the men of my race, to point out to them that their post of honor is here by my side, reminding them that we owe the liberty of our fathers to the revolution of 1868, and it is my duty to present to them the example of that noble figure, Major-General Antonio Maceo, who died on the field for the liberty of his country.

"Listen, countrymen! When after a battle, and filled with national pride, we have gathered up the wounded of the enemy, to give them the care that they may need, many times I have been covered with shame and my whole being has been thrilled with a terrible bitterness to see that the majority of the wounded were men of my race, who were fighting against the liberty of their country.

"I am confident, countrymen, that you have suffered so much under the despotism of Spain that after reading these lines, you will come to our side and enlist in the ranks of the army of this province to win a worthy place in history, and that you will determine that so far as each of you is concerned it will henceforth never be possible to say that the colored race of Cuba helped to clinch the manacle of tyranny against their own brothers.

"Come, then, and help us redeem the fatherland, thus complying with your duty as honored citizens. Triumph is near. Here we are all brothers. One purpose guides us in battle—to die fighting, if necessary, for Cuba and liberty. Citizens of my race, long live free Cuba."

ALAMEDA NEWS.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 30.—An address was made Saturday evening before the Alameda Bimetallic Club by Hon. James Maguire. In the course of his speech, he quoted from the edicts of Judge Jenkins and other Federal Judges, showing that these Judges had attempted law-making instead of law-interpreting. Had such laws been passed by Congress as were passed by these Judges in the injunction cases, the first and thirteenth amendments of the United States Constitution would be violated.

Irishmen Have Fun.

The seventh annual celebration of the Tyrone, Fermanagh and Donegal Benevolent Society, took place at Shell Mound Park yesterday and a gay time the five thousand assembled sons and daughters of Erin had. With games and races the day was pleasantly passed and there were prizes for the winners that were worth working for. Jig and reel dancing was inspired by the stirring music of the Home Rule Band aided by the Irish piper, McCarty, and Professor McCarty, the fiddler. It was an ideal day for a picnic and everyone enjoyed it.

Visiting Odd Fellows.

A large number of members of Harbor Lodge, No. 253 I. O. O. F. of West Oakland went to Healdsburg to perform the initiatory ceremony and degree work on several candidates. ### An Old Lady Hurt.

When alighting from her carriage in East Oakland yesterday, Mrs. S. A. Ralph made a misstep and fell bruising her hip very badly. It was at first supposed to be broken and she was taken to the Receiving Hospital. As Mrs. Ralph is sixty-nine years of age, the fall may result seriously.

THE COUNTY TEAM WINS.

City Hall Ball Tossers Go Down in Defeat at Golden Gate.

The Game Is Played Before an Enthusiastic and Fashionable Crowd.

If the first inning of the great city-county baseball game could be eliminated the city team could look back upon the game in years to come with something like pride. The city lost the game in the first inning.

The causes of the defeat are not hard to trace. Jack Cook's wonderful pitching up to the ninth inning and the poor fielding of the city team in the first inning are the primary causes.

Cook pitched a remarkably good game. The city men could not find him and it was not till the last inning, when his arm had almost given out, that the team from the City Hall succeeded in doing any work worth recording at the bat. At the conclusion of the game the score stood 27 to 18, ten of the city's runs having been made in the last inning.

Summers behind the bat did very well, but his arm was lame, consequently his throwing to second was defective. The playing of the other men in the county team was good, Cal Ewing distinguishing himself by his base running.

For the citys Clement played his usual strong, reliable game. Dick Ayer covered himself with glory. He batted well, making base hits when they were most needed, and he made a couple of runs after high files, pulling them in in such a way as to evoke considerable applause from the grand stand.

Percy Jacobus made a pretty play at second by a long backward run for a high fly. It was a single-hand catch, and was worthy of the applause that followed.

Harry Thomas also caught a fly. It went to him in deep right. As it descended the grand stand held its breath. Thomas was directly under it. It struck his glove, bounced up again at least six feet and was held as it came down again. Perhaps Thomas was the most surprised person present. Thomas, by the way, and Clement were the only ones who came through the game without errors.

Following is the official score:

TALKS FROM THE PULPIT

Rev. Edwards Davis Replies to the Rev. Glen McWilliams.

SPEAKS OF FANGLESS TONGUES

Rev. McWilliams' Resignation Accepted With Much Regret.

NO POSSIBLE HOPE OF UNION.

Scathing Remarks of the Pastor of the Central Christian Church.

Rev. Glen McWilliams has resigned and Rev. Edwards Davis has replied from his pulpit to some of the remarks of his reverend critic of last Saturday.

Rev. McWilliams said Saturday night that he did not speak of Rev. Davis in the language attributed to him in the Tribune. He did not, he spoke with much more vehemence and touched on a number of alleged phases of Mr. Davis' character that were not printed, for obvious reasons in this paper. Had all the gentleman's remaks concerning his brother pastor been printed the trouble between the two pastors might not have been confined to words.

Rev. Edwards Davis took for his subject for last night's sermon, "The Sting of the Fangless Tongue." After quoting the verse from the scriptures, "He that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil and his lips that they speak no guile," he said:

"The tongue as a function of the body is a thing of ugliness, yet its speech may be blessed and beautiful. It is almost impossible to hold the tongue, even literally, between the fingers; it will slip from the grasp. It can only be held by resolute will. Nature has doubly guarded it by the teeth and lips. Lockjaw is preferable to a loose tongue. The gossip is more hideous than a victim of salivation.

"In the one who lets the tongue hang out of the mouth scandal is more contagious than hydrophobia. A gossip of scandal is worse than a loose mad dog. Yea, such is a snake in the grass, whose eyes look like drops of dew, but they are poisonous as vitrol. The venomous tongue may sting, but purity is an antidote that prevents it from poisoning. Some tongues are like snakes that lie coiled up when cold, and which when carried to the hearth warm and will bite thy hand.

"There is but one thing worse than being talked about, and that is not being talked about. An upright man need not mind gossip. A scandal of vice can only publicate virtue. Men need antagonism, although the bold need not invite it. Opposition inspires divine defense, affords an opportunity for the cultivation of control, magnanimity and mercy.

"I am amused that some people think that I expect everybody to like me. Destiny does not depend on devotion. The devil has saved many a soul from hell. Our enemies bless us as much as our friends. O, babbler's tongue, lisp on. Thy hiss is as harmless as the cricket song. And may I say in twilight of life, when night shall throw its sable veil before my view, "O death, where is thy sting?"

There was a large audience at the Central Christian Church and the remarks of the pastor seemed to be favorably received.

Rev. Glen McWilliams presented his resignation at the First Christian Church, and it was accepted, although his congregation are sorry that he has decided to leave. It was as follows:

"OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 21, 1897.

"To the Board of Elders and Deacons and Members of the First Christian Church, Oakland, Cal—My Dear Brethren: During the past two weeks I have been in correspondence with another church of the Disciples of Christ in reference to a prospective call to the pastorate of that body. I have carefully and prayerfully weighed every argument which has been made in favor of my removal to their city. I have reached the conclusion that it is my duty to accept a call from that people, if one should be unanimously extended to me.

"A few days ago I received a letter extending to me an invitation to visit their church on the first Sunday in September. It is due to the church of my present pastorate and to the community to know that two or three times within the last few months I have received overtures from churches that were willing to give me a larger compensation for my services than I have received from my present pastorate. These offers did not move me, besides I believed it my duty to remain in Oakland.

"Since coming among you we have worked together harmoniously and happily, and those who knew the condition of the church when I was first called to be its pastor must feel that God has rewarded our labors with exceptional prosperity.

"I am not unmindful of your tender regard for me and of your earnest importunities to remain with you. I have the profoundest appreciation of all your expressions of confidence and affection. I will ever cherish a remembrance of the kindness which you have bestowed upon me and the support you have given me in all my conflicts with the enemies of truth and righteousness.

"I am not ungrateful for the many favors I have received from the good people of Oakland.

"I take pleasure in acknowledging my indebtedness to the press of this city and San Francisco for the many opportunities it has afforded me for the dissemination of my views upon many important questions.

"My decision to accept a pastorate in some other city is based solely upon the conviction that I can accomplish more for the cause of my Divine Master than I can reasonably hope to accomplish here.

"Your church is now in a better condition than when I first came among you. May you be guided by the wisdom of our Heavenly Father, may you grow in grace and piety. The result of my labors as your pastor is such that I feel I can sever my connection with you without inflicting any serious injury upon the cause.

"You can easily procure the services of a spiritual leader who will not only prevent any disintegration, but make you stronger than you have ever been.

"As it is my purpose to accept an invitation which I have received to occupy the pulpit of the First Christian Church of Stockton, Cal., on Lord's Day, September 5th, I hereby tender my resignation to you, to take effect on Sunday, August 29th.

"Fervently invoking upon you the guidance of the Divine Spirit in the selection of my successor, and sincerely desiring your sympathy and prayers in the new field which I am about to enter, I am your servant in Christ.

"GLEN McWILLIAMS."

SUNDAY SPORTS.

Results of Athletics in Which Oakland Men Took Part.

Cycler M. G. Curtiss of Alameda failed to break the road record from Oakland to San Jose yesterday. At Centerville his tire was punctured, which caused a delay of several minutes.

At San Leandro, Bozio also had an accident while attempting to lower the twenty-five mile record held by Krafts. His wheel struck a rock and he was thrown heavily to the ground.

The Reliance Club promises a fine evening's entertainment on its gentlemen's night, to be given next Wednesday evening.

At San Rafael Saturday the Whitney brothers defeated Sam Hardy and Walter Magee at tennis. The games were hotly contested.

In San Francisco yesterday the Reliance team beat the Alameda Alerts by a score of 4 to 3. Saturday, Reliance suffered its first defeat at the hands of the Gilt Edge team of Sacramento, the score being 8 to 4.

A. D. Smith's yacht Surprise won the race of the Oakland Canoe Club in the bay yesterday. The Swanee came in second and the Zephyr third.

The Art Domestic.

Goldberg, Bowen & Company, the leading San Francisco grocers have issued the Art Domestic for August in exceptionally good form. Sixty-five thousand copies have been circulated for which sixteen tons of paper were used. The issue was designed, written, and illustrated on the premises of the firm and every half-tone was specially prepared for it.

It contains some very good articles of interest to house wives and a catalogue which would make the mouth of the veriest epicure, water. Besides staple and fancy groceries, there are lists of wines and liquors, cigars, confectionerles, perfumery and household utensils.

The number commemorates the forty-seventh anniversary of the firm which, through its long existence, has been so successful.

Judge Thompson of Louisville set free two men who were arrested for fist fighting. He claimed that as they used their fists and not knives or revolvers they were brave men and should not be locked up.

ATTRACTIONS AT THE THEATERS.

"The First Born" Will Be Seen at the Macdonough Tonight.

A Double Bill With a New Star for Patrons of the Oakland.

No play ever produced in San Francisco created the sensation that did the advent of Francis Powers' Chinese drama "The First Born," which will be presented at the Macdonough tonight. Every night for three months, the play drew crowded houses. This drama of Chinese vengeance is wonderful in its faithful reproduction of life in the Chinese quarters.

Francis Powers has taken for his theme the love of a Chinaman for his first born male child and interwoven a tragic plot. The wife of Chang Wong, a See Yup highbinder, elopes with his rival, Man Low Yek, a Sam Yup merchant. Chang Toy, the first born of Chang Wong, is living in Chinatown with his father. The guilty wife and lover steal the child; the father pursues them, and in the struggle the child is killed. Chang Wong follows his rival, and the little drama ends with the killing of Man Low Yek by the man he has wronged.

The pathetic story of the slave girl and the lives of a learned doctor, a pipe bowl mender, a vender of olives, a Chinatown guide and other incidents are the side lights of the story. The tragedy is in one act and two scenes.

The Orientalism of the drama is enhanced by the Chinese music, the death dirge, the serenade and the wedding march.

The Chinese play will be preceded by the rollicking farce, "Lost for a Day."

OAKLAND THEATER.

The clever Hodges Company will present a double bill at the Oakland Theater this evening. "David Garrick" is a romantic drama of more than ordinary merit, and "Little John L." is a charming little farce. Will H. Bray and Miss Rosina Evans are two new additions to the company, and as both are players of established reputation, they will propably make a hit. Bray was the singing comedian with Hoyt's company. He will give two of the songs in which he made his biggest hits, "I Am a Dandy, but I Am No Dude," and "Papa's Baby Boy," at the theater this evening.

The theater is very cosy and comfortable since its recent renovation, and its patrons show their appreciation of the change by an increased attendance.

OAKLAND AT TRINITY.

Several Well Known People From This City Among the Gold-Hunters.

Oakland is well represented in numbers among the gold seekers in Trinity county. Matt Dillon, an actor at the Oakland Theater; F. S. Price, formerly instructor in Anderson's Academy; George Andrews, a painter; Henry Baumbach; J. S. Hall, brother-in-law of George W. Baker, and Will Bacon are all hunting for the yellow metal.

H. B. Gaston, expert accountant, made a number of maps of the region and sold them at $2 apiece. F. H. Ross, well known in this city, president of the Mt. Hamilton stage line, is estimating the cost of a wagon road over the present trail from Delta to Trinity Center. It is thought the cost will

MRS. THOMAS SCOTT NOT A NEW WOMAN.

Livermore's Lady Lawyer Speaks of Her Experience While Studying.

Mrs. Thomas Scott of Livermore, although a full fledged attorney, is not a "new woman." She was admitted to the bar last week, and in speaking of her success said: "I commenced the study of law with my husband when we were first married in 1851. But at that time I did not take enough interest in the study to continue it. My husband persevered, and was admitted to the Supreme Court a few years later.

"I do not expect to ever actively practice law, but I may be of some assistance to my husband, and if so will be quite content. I am not a new woman, therefore I think it scarcely probable that I will make many appearances in the courts."

Davis Returns From Trinity.

Gideon Davis, a well known newspaper man, has returned from Trinity county, where he, with his father and brother, own a claim in one of the richest sections. Davis says that their property has been sold at a satisfactory figure, and that, while many of the old prospectors are making rich finds, hundreds of the enthusiasts who have rushed to Trinity county in the hopes of locating Eldorados will be disappointed. There are at least 1,000 men camped along Coffee creek. Davis says one old prospector had two base ore claims which assay $200 or $280 to the ton.

Drank Too Heavily.

Alexander J. Stewart, watchman for the ship Francis Cutting, was found dead yesterday morning in the back room of an East Oakland saloon. Stewart has been around the saloon, which is kept by a man named Graffelman, at Thirteenth avenue, near First street, for several days, and he has drunk incessantly. An inquest will be held this evening.

Teachers' Institute.

The Alameda county Teachers' Institute will commence in Oakland on the 27th, 28th and 29th of October. Tuesday, the 26th, may also be taken up. The morning sessions will be held in the gymnasium of the High school, and the section work will be done in the afternoons. The programmes for the evening entertainments have not been arranged.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

New Dress Goods

Women compare fashions by the book, but it is impossible to keep posted on goods by merely reading what the fashion books say. Get ideas from the goods themselves. We will show you our stock of dress goods and you will see what the Latest Novelties are. We have studied them for the last four months and were fortunate to get the most part of them under the old tariff, thereby saving you about 40 per cent on the price. It is true we got them early this fall, but if the weather continues in our favor we shall have no complaint to make on that account.

This week we are showing

100 Entirely New Dress Patterns at $3.50
100 Entirely New Dress Patterns at $4.20
50 Entirely New Dress Patterns at $5.25
50 Entirely New Dress Patterns at $7.00

These are the advance guard and show some beautiful combinations, such as blue and green, mulberry and blue, green and black, cerise and black, green and brown, etc., etc.

Fifty pieces of new Plaids to sell at 50c, and more elegant fabrics to sell at 75c, $1.00 and $1.50 a yard.

Tiny little Checks for Children's Dresses at 60c and 75c a yard.

Twenty-five pieces new shades of Broadcloths at $1.00 and $1.50 a yard.

New Covert Mixtures and Redfern Suitings for tailor-made suits.

Special attention is called to the fact that we have engaged MR. STEPHEN SWABODA for our tailoring establishment and can guarantee a perfect fit, as all suits will be made under his supervision.

The Weekly Resume of News in Alameda County Towns.

Coming Farmers' Institute to Be Held in Livermore.

VERY HEAVY FRUIT SHIPMENTS

San Leandro Merchants Now Organized for Self Protection.

The most interesting of the happenings of the past week in the several towns of Alameda county will be found below:

HAYWARDS.

(From the Haywards Review.)

The other day some one cut one of the ropes attached to Ernest Rey's falls. He had been painting the new school house in the Russell district, Mt. Eden, and as the job was not finished the falls were left up. The rope was cut nearly through, but fortunately it was discovered before Mr. Rey or his men used the falls again, or there might have been a fatal accident.

Frank Silva, a farmer of Palomares Canyon, died at his home Sunday night at the age of 71 years. The funeral was held Tuesday under the auspices of the U. P. E. C.

Mrs. Farrel of Petaluma, who has been visiting at Boulder Creek, spent a few days here this week with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Farrell.

Rasmussen Bros. of the Eden Market have purchased the vacant lot adjoining their butcher shop from A. W. Schaffer and are having a new shop and barn built.

Rev. J. B. Eddie, formerly pastor of the Episcopal Church, was a visitor in town Monday. Mr. Eddie is now pleasantly located at Carson City, Nevada.

Mrs. G. W. Toppings, formerly Miss Nash, returned to her home in Sonora Wednesday. Mrs. J. J. Rose accompanied her and will visit there for a few weeks.

Mrs. Ivy W. Kersey has returned from a visit to friends and relatives at Eureka.

The lower floor of the Welsh building on B street was transformed Tuesday night. The occasion was a farewell party given to Miss Berta Loveland of Ferndale, who has lately been visiting her old-time friends. The apartments were made beautiful by the addition of great quantities of geraniums and peppers artistically arranged. Dancing was indulged in and everybody had a magnificent time. Soon after refreshments the gathering broke up.

The mining excitement continues and there is as much talk as ever about going to Trinity or Clondyke.

On Monday Albert Shippey left for Trinity. He and W. P. Crane are in on the deal, and whatever is found will be divided between them. He has had more or less mining experience and thinks he stands as good a chance as any one. For three years he was prospecting in Alaska and left there shortly before the Clondyke riches were discovered.

John Dollner, Wallace McAuslan and Charley Pimentel started Wednesday morning, taking the train to Redding and there securing provisions, etc. While none of the party has had any mining experience worth speaking of, they all have an abundance of enthusiasm and have hopes of striking it rich. Hans P. Christensen and Peter Larsen went up to Trinity about three weeks ago, but their experiences were not at all satisfactory and they returned in disgust.

Dave Stewart and Fred Trathen left today. They will drive the entire distance.

LIVERMORE.

(From the Livermore Herald.)

A very enjoyable evening was spent last Tuesday in the Presbyterian Church. The Christian Endeavorers were the entertainers and gave one of their free socials. There was a well rendered programme, arranged under the skilled management of Miss Lizzie Waltenbaugh. Installation of officers and chairmen of committees followed. Prof. Connell was the installing officer and due credit is given him for the manner in which he did the work. Each officer and chairman of the committees was asked to rise and come forward, and after a few well chosen remarks from the Professor regarding the discharge of their duties, he pinned upon each a ribbon of rank in the society. The installation closed with singing by the congregation, after which all were served with free refreshments in the annex of the church.

A freight train backing upon a switch Saturday shortly after noon, dashed into the soda wagon driven by Julius Jacobs. The accident happened at the Lizzie street crossing. Mr. Jacobs was thrown high into the air and against the corner of the warehouse that borders the track. His left leg just below the knee, was broken, and he sustained contusions about the head.

The second annual meeting of the Farmers' Institute under the direction of the Regents of the State University, will be held in Livermore on December 23d and 24th. Though the date is yet three months distant, it is not too early to notify the farmers of the valley of the importance and the good resulting from the interchange of scientific and practical ideas on subjects of agriculture. Last year's meeting in Livermore, though a highly successful one, was not largely attended. Every tiller of the soil should have something on exhibition at the institute. Something that will show his friends, his neighbors and the visitors what this productive soil and these sunny skies can do when coupled with industry. It has been suggested that some good man be selected to call upon the farmers and urge upon them the good that may result from making an exhibit.

During the past week the dimensions of every lot, also the number of hydrants and the number of occupants in each dwelling within the corporate limits were taken by a representative of the water company. These plans will be submitted to the directors of the company, who will then commence the work of equalizing the water tolls. Rates will be raised in many instances and in some cases they will be lowered.

The young people of the Highland school district gave an enjoyable dance at their school building Friday evening of last week. Splendid music was in attendance. At midnight the young ladies furnished refreshments.

The Coffee Creek excitement resulting from the Graves Brothers' gold find, has stirred up Livermore to a degree that nearly equals the enthusiasm over the prospects of the Clondyke. Among the Livermoreans to leave this week for Trinity were Harry Morrell, Henry Seebard and Everet Horton. Another party consisted of S. E. Wright, business manager of the Herald, Percy Inman and Ed Carroll. Claud Reeves and Levy Wilmot were among the gold seekers and there was also the party of Phil Waltenbaugh. Livermore will have quite a colony on Coffee Creek before the last of the coming week, and the number will be augmented by those already there and others who are yet to follow.

Little Emily Mitchell entertained a score of her young friends at a party at her home Saturday afternoon. Games and amusements of a character suited to little ones, followed by many good things to eat made up a most enjoyable afternoon's programme.

John Bryne and Miss Josie Copeland, both of this county, were united in marriage last Tuesday. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents south of town. Judge Brophy of Pleasanton was master of ceremonies. The groom is an industrious young man and an employe at the Corral Hollow mines.

Sneak thieves broke into the residence of Jas. P. Smith of Vista district one day last week and took therefrom his supply of provisions.

S. S. Lyons, whom President McKinley recently appointed United States Consul to Japan, is a brother-in-law of Mr. Johnson Righter of Livermore.

Miss Galindo of Concord, a cousin of Mrs. S. M. Worden, and Miss Symphorosa of Oakland, sister of Mrs. Worden, are visiting in Livermore as that lady's guests.

Mrs. Harwood, who has filled the position of matron for the past three years at the Sanitarium, departed Thursday for Anna, Illinois.

Messrs. Buckley and Wente are increasing the cooperage capacity of their wine cellars.

SAN LEANDRO.

(From the San Leandro Reporter.)

The congregation of the Presbyterian Church of this city is contemplating the erection of a parsonage. A committee was appointed to solicit aid in the enterprise. This committee has done good work. In fact so good that the building is now assured and is under way. A large force of men is at work from day to day, many of them giving their services without money and without price. The building is to be put up by day's labor and is to be a two-story structure. There will be four large rooms on the first floor and on the upper floor will be located the pastor's study and three bed rooms. When completed the building will cost about $1,500.

This is the first year that peaches have commanded a higher figure than apricots and the demand is firm.

The Meek Brothers have introduced a dipper, picker and grader for prunes that will turn out fully sixty tons per day.

Supervisor Talcott has decided to have the approaches to the bridge filled in and thereby do away with replanking in the future.

Mrs. E. S. Marshall, wife of Mr. R. A. Marshall, founder of the Reporter, has been nominated President of the Women's Press Association.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Eber are visiting Byron Springs.

Miss Mamie Silva spent last week visiting friends in Oakland.

There was a good attendance of merchants at the meeting held on Friday evening. John Driver was chosen to preside, and J. W. Harbert, Secretary. President Driver stated the object of the meeting to be to effect a permanent organization as he believed it to be the best way to deal with the expressmen and to settle other questions that may arise. Speaking of the trouble with the express companies, he said a great deal of it had been caused by the merchants giving verbal orders instead of written ones. The Hayward merchants he said, were in sympathy with the movement and any action taken by the San Leandro merchants would meet with their approval. After some further debate a motion to organize as the San Leandro Merchants' Protective Association was adopted, and the following committee was appointed to prepare a constitution and by-laws: Messrs. Herrscher, Bjorkman, Morgan, Gomes, Meyers and Harbert. The committee met on Tuesday evening and adopted a constitution and by-laws.

Daniel Moriarty left last Friday for New Orleans. He will stop off at Kansas City, Denver and St. Louis.

Attorney J. N. Franks received his commission to act as Notary Public from Governor Budd on Thursday.

Mrs. Webber has returned home from a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. H. McKee, at Pacific Grove.

Louis Borman has gone to Byron Springs where he expects to get relief from a severe attack of rheumatism.

John Morehouse, Leo Best and Chas. Rindespacher left on Thursday for Portland. They went by steamer and will be gone about three weeks.

Joe Stouter and George and Hugh Gillespie left for Seattle on Wednesday morning.

Colonel James Hartnett, Deputy Tax Collector of San Francisco, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. Kimball G. Easton and wife of Oakland are the guests of T. E. Cary.

E. B. Stone has received a large coop of thoroughbread Leghorn chickens from Sunol.

Mrs. Arguello and Miss Louise Peralta were the guests of Miss Katie and Mrs. Castro on Monday.

Miss Inez Estudillo who has been visiting Mrs. Mhoon in San Francisco, returned home on Friday.

SAN LORENZO.

(From the San Leandro Reporter).

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. Shiman assembled at their residence on Thursday evening to celebrate the first anniversary of their marriage. A very pleasant evening was the result.

John Quigley, N. Neilsen, H. Gansberger and H. Stenzel have gone on a deer hunt in the Livermore mountains.

Manuel Peters, the Junction farmer, has quite a patch of sugar beets. He will ship them to the Alvarado factory.

H. Schlueter is out on a deer hunting trip.

C. W. Huthaway and family are once more occupying Sycamore Park.

Chris Petersen gave another one of his enjoyable barbecues on Wednesday.

San Lorenzo is coming to the front as a shipping point. Four carloads of fruit for the East every day this week is something to be proud of.

ALTAMONT.

(From the Livermore Herald.)

Last week Highland district experienced a novelty in the shape of a regular Eastern cyclone on a small scale. The cyclone was first seen at J. G. Young's, where it unroofed a hen house, tore down a straw stack and wrenched a door of a woodshed. It next made its appearance at Highland school, where a couple of pupils who attempted to brave its force suddenly found themselves thrown to the ground. It was next seen at R. C. Sweet's, where it fortunately did no harm. The latest news from the devastated district is that the people daily practice running down cellar, and Mrs. Seghers, teacher of Highland school, has provided herself with a bailing rope with which to tie her pupils together in case of another cyclone.

Miss White of San Francisco is up on a visit to Mrs. Scullion.

Miss Hennesy of San Francisco is visiting her aunt, Mrs. O'Brien.

Mrs. J. G. Young returned last Monday from St. Helena, where she had been summoned to attend the funeral of her nephew, Fred Brown, formerly an Altamont boy.

Ed Carrol of Altamont, Sherman Wright and Percy Inman of Livermore started on a hunt in the direction of Trinity county. The avowed intention of the boys is to hunt deer, though it is understood that if they run across a gold mine they are apt to bring it home with them.

Mrs. Scullion was tendered a surprise party on the evening of the 20th. Dancing and singing were indulged in until midnight, when cake and ice cream were served. The guests then continued dancing until the wee small hours of the morning.

Mamie Leonard of Altamont and Frank Harrington of San Francisco were married in San Francisco on the 19th. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.

ALVARADO.

(From the Haywards Review.)

A very enjoyable affair was the "tea" given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Chas. R. Nauert at her residence in honor of Miss Martha E. Cilker of Los Gatos. Conversation and music were in order till 4:30, when all were invited into the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Laura E. Costello died at her home in San Francisco Wednesday, the 11th, after an illness of two weeks. While visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. M. Foley of this place, she was taken with pains in the region of the heart, pronounced "inflammation of the valves of the heart," which later caused her death. Miss Costello was well known in Alvarado, where she spent most of her vacations and visited frequently.

Rev. E. P. Shier, accompanied by several other ministers, was in town Monday in regard to the Sunday closing of stores, etc. It can be imagined how hard they worked, for now our stores are closed on the Sabbath.

Mrs. Pridgeon and son Howard of Stockton are the guests of her mother, Mrs. A. Miller.

John Henningsen's store is completed and will be occupied by C. A. Preston; the upholsterer, formerly of Haywards, and a photographer, also of Haywards.

Mrs. A. May is visiting in Los Gatos, and A. May is in Salinas on a business trip.

Miss Bertha Ollenwreath of Ione is being entertained by Mrs. B. H. Ford.

Miss Frank Matthews of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Matthews.

Mrs. L. Quintin of Santa Rosa is a guest at the Richmond home.

Miss W. E. Cilker of Los Gatos is being entertained by Mrs. A. May.

Miss Dora Joyce is being entertained by relatives in San Francisco.

Mrs. Edward Farley and daughter are visiting relatives in Portland, Oregon.

ELMHURST.

(From the San Leandro Reporter.)

H. West, a former partner of Mr. Miller in the butcher shop at this place, and J. Reinhardt left for the Clondyke on Saturday.

S. J. Doolittle, J. Klepfer, J. Welcker and W. Sherill are being taught the mysteries of the punch and motor on the electric railway.

The many friends of Miss Mollie Peterson gave her a birthday party on Saturday night. There was a large number present from San Leandro, Oakland and Fitchburg.

The Elmhurst Social Club gave a dance at the Red Men's Hall on Saturday evening. The club is composed principally of employes of the electric railway. The affair was an enjoyable one.

The announcement in last week's Reporter that the Oakland road was to be improved has caused much favorable comment in this section. It is said that the road is to be macadamized from curb to curb, and to have substantial stone gutters.

Mrs. De Pue of San Francisco is visiting her father-in-law, Dr. De Pue.

John Hamilton, C. Hamilton and G. W. Summers started for Trinity county on Tuesday.

Chris Petersen has sold his saloon to one of the Silva brothers. Mr. Petersen will go to Trinity county.

Mrs. L. A. Gass has opened a bakery in the Willows block.

J. M. Kruger left for the Trinity county mines on Tuesday evening.

Y. M. C. A. Conference.

The annual conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Northern California is to take place at the Association Building on Mason and Ellis streets, San Francisco on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week. The programme has been completed and an interesting session is expected. Plans for increasing the membership of the organization will be discussed.

The conference will close on Sunday evening with a mass meeting to which the general public is invited.

A TERRIBLE MONSTER.

Remains Found of a Flying Lizard Fifty Feet Long.

It Soared the Air Long Before Man Was Dreamed Of.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—One hundred huge cases that have just arrived at the Museum of Natural History in Central Park are regarded with more than usual satisfaction by the directors of the Museum. They are the bones of the remarkable specimen of extinct animals, dug out of the earth many feet below the surface of Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado and Texas. They are the first consignment of the results of the summer's work of the numerous expeditions sent out by the Museum.

In these one hundred cases there is one perfect specimen of a flying lizard, that was twelve feet long. Professor W. Mathews said there were numerous other sections of lizards, but only one complete specimen, which was taken from Kansas soil. It belonged to a period of ages before man was dreamed of, and flew like a bat in the night and fed on fishes.

Professor Mathews, who had charge of an expedition to Kansas, has just returned. On his way back he got into Wyoming with Professor Wortmann's expedition. When that section returns to New York early in October, there will be brought along a monster lizard over fifty feet long. It is being dug out of Wyoming rock now. When he left, thirty-five of the creatures were in sight, and it was estimated twenty feet more remained to be excavated.

Then there is the "missing link" horse. Museums all over the country have had bones of this creature enough to build up into an intelligible skeleton that the public could understand.

Now an Nebraska expedition has sent back samples of bones of the "missing link" horse that have been discovered heretofore, and professors at the Museum of Natural History who will patch animal bones into full skeletons, are rejoicing in the belief that they will get a whole horse together. When that is done, they will be able to trace the horse from his first known form down to the most mordern racer, or miserable plodding car horse.

Another Artist Coming.

Herr Carl Walther, the great Belgian violinist, contemporary of Ysaye, and the only reminder of the great and popular Ole Bull, has headed toward San Francisco after a tour of the world. He has captured the great musical centers of the Eastern States and is the lion of the hour.

It is to be hoped that some enterprising manager will arrange to bring the artist to this city.

Walther has been associated in concert tours of Europe with Patti, Albani, Nielsen and other great musicians and has created great enthusiasm wherever heard.

CHANGES IN THE ARMY AND NAVY.

General Breck Will Succeed Ruggles as Adjutant General.

Other Important Changes Are to Be Made Soon.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: President McKinley has some important army and navy patronage to distribute before he returns to Washington. The Adjutant Generalship of the army will become vacant by the retirement of General Ruggles, September 11th. It is settled that Colonel Breck will succeed him. His term of office, however, will be short, as he will reach the retirement age on February 25, 1898.

Colonel Henry C. Corbin, Adjutant General of the Department of the East now at Governor's Island, is next in rank. A hard fight is being made by Colonel "Mike" Sheridan, brother of the late General Sheridan, but the President intends to adhere to the rule of seniority. Colonel Sheridan is two years older than Colonel Corbin. Colonel Martin Barber, Adjutant General of the Department of the Missouri, will, it is understood, be ordered to Governor's Island. Colonel Sheridan, now at St. Paul, will succeed Colonel Barber at Chicago, and Colonel Schwan, Adjutant General of the Department of the Platte, will go to St. Paul.

The official announcement will be made this week of the appointment of three officers of the Naval service as Chiefs of Bureaus.

Commander R. B. Bradford will succeed Commander F. E. Chadwick as Chief of the Bureau of Equipment.

Medical Director Newton L. Bates will succeed Medical Director J. R. Tyron, as Chief of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery.

Chief Naval Constructor Phillip Hichborn will succeed himself.

The appointment of Medical Director Bates will be in the nature of a personal act on the part of the President. Dr Bates has rendered medical service for the McKinley family. Friends of Medical Director J. R. Tryon are considerably worked up over the prospective action.

HAS FAITH IN ANDREE.

Explorer Baldwin Thinks That the Balloonist Will Succeed.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Evelin B. Baldwin, an Arctic explorer of some note, when seen by a reporter in Brooklyn last night, declared his belief that Andree will come back safely from his journey in search of the North Pole. Mr. Baldwin has just returned from Europe, where he talked with leading scientists, all of whom share his belief.

"Andree," said he, "is a man of learning and great ingenuity. He has studied the problem thoroughly and has been advised by many men of experience. Scientific men hold to the theory that the upper air currents of the Arctic are warmer than those below. If Andree can keep up among these he will be in no danger of freezing. These northern regions are not all water, as many suppose. There is a great deal of land and thousands of miles of solid ice, so the chances are good that should he descend he will find a safe landing place."

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

George W. Edwards is confined to his bed with an attack of pneumonia.

James P. Taylor will return from Europe in about two weeks.

James de Fremery will leave for New York and Europe in the near future, after having spent some time here with his daughter, Mrs. Van Loben Sels. While here, Mr. De Fremery attended the funeral of Dr. Akerly.

Miss Margaret Davison will go to Ogden this week.

Mrs. A. A. Loring of the Children's Home Finding Society recently visited Santa Rosa in its interests.

Mrs. Hogue and Miss Helen Hogue of Albany, Or., are visiting Mrs. J. J. Jones in Alameda.

Dr. C. H. Russell of Armona, Kings county, is the guest of his brother-in-law, H. H. Kline, in Alameda.

Mrs. J. H. Collins and children of Stockton are visiting in this city and San Francisco.

Miss Kate Jamieson of San Jose is visiting in Oakland and Alameda.

Mrs. Mastin and children of Alameda are the guests of Mrs. Mary Piercy in San Jose.

The engagement is announced of Miss Cora Denny of San Jose and Charles D. Havens Jr. of this city. The wedding is set for September 9th.

Colonel H. Bendel was a recent visitor in San Jose.

Mrs. and Miss Lovejoy, accompanied by S. Dowsett of Honolulu, are registered at the Vendome, San Jose.

Miss Mary Edith Maples of Marysville and James Jones Reavis were married yesterday at noon in the Second Congregational Church in West Oakland by Rev J. W. Phillips. The ceremony took place immediately after the services, and the church was crowded. The bride formerly lived in this city. Upon their return from Santa Cruz, Mr. and Mrs. Reavis will live in San Francisco.

A social will be given tomorrow evening in the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Ottie Cramer and William Achard were married Wednesday at the bride's home.

Miss T. M. Jones and Thomas E. Daniels were married Thursday noon by Rev. Father Moses Williams.

Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph gave a launch party recently on the Mascot.

Miss Dicy Allen Hill Shaw and Dr. Clarence L. Maloon will be married tomorrow evening at the Shaw home on Fourth avenue.

Mrs. Fred Gatter left today for Lake county, where she will spend the month of September.

Drowsiness is dispelled by BEECHAM'S PILLS.

Eternal Vigilance.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." It is the price of everything worth having. It is the price of life itself. A man needn't be always looking for danger, afraid that something will happen to him; but a wise man will form a habit of care about the important things of life

It isn't half so much trouble to take care of yourself as it is not to. A man who follows regular, healthy habits, feels good all the time. Life is worth living to him. But a man who "don't want to bother" with taking care of himself has more pain and misery crowded into one day than a good healthy, hearty man who lives right would ever know of in a whole year.

When a man's stomach is out of order, and his digestion don't work; when his liver gets to be sluggish and won't clear the bile out of his blood, it is time for him to look out for himself. He gets no nourishment out of his food. His blood gets thicker and thicker with impurities. His nerves get irritated. He loses energy and fighting force.

He may say, "I can stand it, I will feel better to-morrow," but the chances are he will feel worse to-morrow and worse still next day. He ought to put himself right at once. He needs Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is made for just this condition. It rouses up the digestive and nutritive organs, and gives them power to extract from the food all the nutritious elements and transform them into rich, nourishing blood. It enables the liver to cleanse out all bilious impurities and pour into the circulation an abundance of highly vitalized blood, full of the life-giving red corpuscles which build up healthy flesh, muscular strength, and nerve-energy. It does not make flabby flesh. It is the only suitable tonic and strength-builder for corpulent people.

COST TO RUN THE CITY.

Auditor Snow's Ninth Annual Estimate Filed With the Council.

One Hundred and Eleven Thousand Dollars Cut From the Departments.

City Auditor Snow has filed with the Council his ninth annual estimates of the cost of the city government. He provides $674,722 for the maintenance of departments, $94,794 for repairs and miscellaneous expenses and $81,711 for betterments, as follows:

Fire and Police Telegraph Extension, $7,811; Fire Department in the new district, $7,500; new fire hose, $3,000; new books for the public library, $4,000, reading rooms for the new district, $1,000; additional patrolmen, $6,000; permanent improvement of school houses and grounds, $3,300; paving thoroughfares, $27,000; park improvements, $16,000.

The estimate for bond redemption and interest is fixed at $73,000.

Mr. Snow's total estimate is $864,000. This is a cut of $111,000 from the department estimates.

Estimating the income of the city which is received from sources other than taxes to be $327,000. The amount to be raised by taxation is $537,000, which the Auditor estimates will require a tax rate of ninety-five cents and seventeen cents for bonds and interest, making a total rate of $1.12.

This will allow $42,000 to be paid of the city's bonded indebtedness. It is not generally known that $100,000 of the school bonds have already been paid. Such is the case, however, and it will be but a few years before the entire debt is cancelled.

In this year's estimates the Auditor has cut the School Department down $15,000 and $10,000 of this was for new sites in the annexed district.

Auditor Snow's report will be received by the Council at its special meeting this evening and will be referred to the Committee of the Whole. The committee will probably meet and consider the report this evening.

DEATH OF MRS. COCKROFT.

She Was a Well Known Resident of This City and Had Many Friends.

After an illness of but one month, Mrs. Martha A. Cockroft passed away Saturday at noon, at her late residence, 359 Walworth avenue. Death was caused mainly by heart failure, but the death of her son two months ago did much to hasten the end.

Mrs. Cockroft had reached the age of 72 years. Her husband, Joseph Cockroft, survives her, as also her son, F. Cockroft, and daughters, Mrs. T. M. Wilson, of East Oakland, and Mrs. E. R. Gray of Los Angeles. One son, Irving J. R., is dead.

Mrs. Cockroft was a native of England. She came to Illinois in 1846, and to California in 1883. She had lived in this city eight or nine years.

The deceased was a woman who had a remarkable power of making friends. As a wife and mother, none was more devoted and loving than she. Although not a member of any church, she was a devout Christian, embracing the Baptist faith.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the late residence.

ROUTINE BUSINESS.

The Supervisors Dispose of Many Affairs of the County.

AID FOR THE INDIGENTS.

New Highways Are Opened in the Town of Newark.

KING'S DAUGHTERS ASK HELP.

They Need Assistance for the New Home for Incurables.

The Board of Supervisors held a session this morning and transacted considerable business in a short time. The Supervisors had been notified by the State Board of Equalization that Alameda county's assessment would be considered tomorrow and ordered them to appear to show cause why the assessment should not be raised. The Supervisors therefore hurried through this morning's meeting in time to catch the 1 o'clock boat to Sacramento.

E. B. Stone's bid of $787.50 for the laying of 1,000 feet of pipe line along the Haywards road was accepted.

Bids for the construction of the concrete bridge over Sausal creek were received from C. D. Vincent, $4,740; C. Radzwill, $4,785; E. B. Stone, $3,873; Johnson & Peterson, $3,838; Healy Tibbitts, $4,293; W. J. Schmitt, $3,835; Bernard Ransom, $4,100; Bassett Bros., $3,770; Kimball G. Easton, $3,448; Cotton Bros. & Co., $3,698. The contract was awarded to Kimball G. Easton.

AID FOR INDIGENTS.

Application for relief were received from Mrs. Esther Woodward, 77 years of age, residing in Alameda; Miss Kate Conrad, residing at 229 Twelfth street, and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Thompson, residing at Fifth and Broadway streets. These were referred to the proper Supervisors.

Applications were also received from Mrs. Greenrose, living on Peace alley, Alameda, and Mrs. G. F. Washburn, residing on Oak street, Alameda.

A petition was received from residents and property owners of Brooklyn Township calling attention to the condition of county road No. 1854 and requesting that the necessary work be at once begun. It was referred to Supervisor Talcott.

A communication was received from Laura Albrech, president of the Board of Directors of the Alameda county King's Daughters' Home for Incurables, requesting the assistance of the Board for Mrs. Foster of 807 Washington street. The matter was referred to the Hospital Committee.

A communication addressed to Supervisor Mitchell from John J. Coughlin was read, referring to the matter of repairing the gutters of the Hall of Records and re-lining the gutters of the annex with copper. The cost was estimated at $425.

HORTICULTURAL REPORT.

William Barry, as Horticultural Commissioner, filed the following report:

"Since my last report I have devoted most of my time in examining orchards for scale insects in order to ascertain where I could place beneficial insects to do the most good. This had to be done for two reasons, first, to find the actual need in orchards for which the beetles had been ordered, and second, to ascertain where the beetles were needed in orchards where owners had not sent in a request for them. On the whole the results have been very satisfactory. I have filled all the orders for the insects that I have received up to date, but I find there will have to be about thirty more colonies placed in orchards whose owners have not made any application owing no doubt to some misunderstanding about the possibility of procuring the insects. For the benefit of all parties, I will state that the breeding colonies established one and two years ago have been increased to thousands and are now ready for all the orchardists in the district who are in need of them, and will be distributed as the orders are received from now up to the 1st of October. In making this statement I would suggest that all parties who receive bottles will make it a point to place something in their trees to protect them during the winter months.

"It will not only protect them, but they will breed right along and the larva can be found even in the month of January.

In conversation with the orchardists in this district I have recommended cornstalks tied in bunches and placed in the crotches of the trees; the labor of doing so is trifling compared with the enormous expense of spraying. In spraying we never reduced the insect pests to any extent, but we killed all the beneficial insects that preyed on the scale. In visiting orchards lately I have shown several gentlemen the work of the internal parasite of the black scale. Since the orchardists have discontinued spraying it is astonishing how this parasite has increased. I have visited nearly fifty orchards, some of them two or three times, working in all nearly 1,500 acres. The fruits throughout this district have been entirely free from smut this year, with a gratifying decrease in both the black and brown apricot scale. With the exception of one or two orchards, the apricot crop throughout this district in Washington Township has been the heaviest and best in quality in many years. Most of the crop has been dried. Peaches are a light crop. Clings are bringing a good price at present and sell readily at $20 per ton.

"French prunes have done well this season in this locality. The heaviest crop I have ever seen was in the orchard of Ezra Decoto. He will have about 125 tons from ten acres, and sold to a drier in Santa Clara county at $25 per ton."

A. L. Henry, as secretary of the State Department of Highways, wrote to the Board to correct an impression that existed relative to the travelling expenses of members of the department, which, he stated, were borne by the State and not by the counties visited.

On Supervisor Talcott's motion, the County Surveyor was ordered to draw up plans and specifications for the macadamizing of the San Leandro road for a mile north from the San Leandro bridge.

Supervisor Wells was authorized to have a watering plant constructed at Irvington at a cost of $250, to be paid for out of the County General and the General Road and Washington Road District funds.

According to the report of the County Surveyor, and in answer to the petition of the Pacific Land Improvement Company and others, Thornton avenue, from Willow street to Rich avenue, and Rich avenue, from Sycamore to Cherry streets; Carter street, from Sycamore to Filbert streets, and Sycamore, from Carter to Rich streets, and Willow street, from Thornton to George streets, in the town of Newark, were declared public highways.

LIQUOR LICENSES.

Liquor licenses were granted to George C. Fisher of Niles, C. C. Herbert of Leona Heights, John Maher of Austin avenue, San Leandro, and J. J. Martin of Niles.

Applications for liquor licenses were received from Frank V. Macedo, Thomas Rees of Redwood road, C. W. Avery of San Leandro road, James Nunes.

FUNDS ARE SHORT.

The application of the trustees of the Union High school, No. 3, of Haywards, for $6,000 to meet current expenses, was referred to the Auditor.

William Barry, Horticultural Commissioner, filed a requisition for stationery, which was granted.

Sheriff C. B. White's requisition for hose was granted.

The Building Committee was empowered to proceed to complete furnishings in the new room of the Auditor, which include a desk, carpet and gas fixtures. The matter of using the old room of the Auditor as a stock room by the County Clerk was referred to the Building Committee.

CHARGES OF FRAUD.

A communication was received from Mrs. H. E. Guild of 1261 Campbell street, protesting against the giving of aid to Mr. McFadden and wife of 1259 Campbell street. The writer claims they are "frauds on the public," as they keep a chicken ranch and the wife works in the Contra Costa Laundry.

Foreman O. P. Moulton of Newark Road District filed a report for August.

Foreman Edwin Whipple of Decoto Road District filed a report for July.

L. M. Young, an inmate of the County Jail, petitioned for ten days' credit and they were granted.

The Board then adjourned for one week.

ASK THAT KOHLMAN'S SUIT BE DISMISSED.

For Over Three Years the Damage Case Has Been Pending.

Judge Greene listened to the arguments of the attorneys for the defense in the suit of Kohlman vs. the Southern Pacific Company, asking that the case be dismissed. The suit has been hanging fire for the past three and a half years.

The plaintiff, Mrs. Emma Kohlman, is suing to recovery $4,650 damages for injuries done to her minor son, Harry Unna, who was injured while crossing the tracks of the local train.

Attorney Martin, for the defense, argued that the plaintiff by delaying prosecution had materially injured the defendant's case, as Thomas Brayil, one of the most important witnesses for the defense, has since the filing of the complaint over three years ago, left the State.

Attorney Crittenden for the plaintiff, presented an affidavit showing that the defense had never at any time tried to get a deposition from Brayil. Another suit has been filed by Harry Unna, who has attained his majority since the filing of the original complaint, in which he seeks to recover damages. To defend this suit Brayil's testimony will be necessary, and Attorney Crittenden thought that the defense would therefore be able to use Brayil's testimony for the original suit also.

After hearing the arguments Judge Greene took the motion under advisement.

FASHION'S FANCIES.

Travers and bayadere stripes will meet with fair demand this fall.

Veils to be worn exclusively with walking hats have very deep borders.

Squares in two colors, with golden lines to enliven the tissue, look well.

For business wear, the proper shirt waist is of alpaca wash silk, or silk finished gingham.

Ever so many designs in kid and leather belts are developed in bright reds and greens.

Linen collars and cuffs and a satin tie are the only accessories to traveling frocks of lussore silk.

Interlaced ribbons form a panel on white satin, and every square is caught with a Rhinestone.

White hats are seen trimmed with big bunches of white violets, with immense green leaves.

Ready made ruffings of mousselines and Persian organdies for skirts are a feature of the lace counters.

An odd waist of turquoise-blue gloria silk has a yoke of white chiffon and a bolero of heavy white point lace.

Tiny collets for midsummer evening wear are of plated mousseline trimmed with ribbon and artificial flowers.

The surplice waist is coming in again and muslin bodices cut in this style, finished with a soft fichu, will soon be seen.

Black velvet dog collars are becomingly worn with light silk gowns. A black velvet belt is also distinctly French in effect.

One of the grotesque fads of the moment is the cravat of mammoth proportions to be worn with silk or cotton shirt waists.

Worthless Accounts.

Assignee Stewart made a report before Judge Greene on the matter of the failure of Arlett Brothers. He said that many of the accounts were worthless and range from ninety cents to eighty dollars. The matter was continued four weeks to enable the assignee to make further collections.

A Wheelman Drowned.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Frank Savak, a well known racing wheelman, took a training spurt yesterday and then went to Moodna Creek, near Salisbury Mills, to bathe. The stream was swollen, he got beyond his depth and was drowned. His body was recovered.

THE CITY TO ANSWER

Judge Greene Overrules Dow's Demurrer in a Tax Case.

THE TAXES OF 1895 INVOLVED

A Reply to Be Filed Within the Next Ten Days.

The suit of the Central Pacific Railroad Company to recover from the city of Oakland money paid as taxes in 1895 came up on demurrer before Judge Greene this morning.

City Attorney Dow appeared for the city. He stated that the complaint did not show that at the time the money was paid the tax was delinquent. It was claimed, he said, that the company had been taxed twice, but that was not the case. The fact that the property was assessed twice did not constitute a second taxation, unless the amount of taxes had been paid at least once on one or other of the assessments.

Harvey Brown, for the railroad company, stated that the action had been brought under section 3819 as amended. It was true, he said, that relief for the recovery of taxes paid under protest could not be obtained unless the property was threatened with sale, but that was under the old law. The Legislature had since amended that law. He then referred to the complaint setting forth that the property in question had been assessed by the State Board of Equalization under the law of the State. Neither the county nor city assessor had any right to assess the property within the right of way of the company in this city. Such an assessment, he asserted, was a double one. The amount of taxes paid on the assessment was $3,613.80, whereas the amount should have been $2,355. The amount which the railroad company claims is $1,258. Section 3804, on which the City Attorney had ruled, he said, had nothing to do with the case. The remedy set out in 3804 was a cumulative remedy and no value whatever. Section 3819 furnished a complete remedy. The company had paid under protest after the city assessor had received the book from the county assessor, and in that section, the whole scheme was set forth.

Mr. Dow said that if the complaint had been drawn under section 3819 the complaint was defective because it spoke of a duplicate assessment book where there was no such thing as a duplicate assessment book.

Mr. Moore said that if it be true that there was no such thing as a duplicate assessment book the complaint might be amended by striking out that term.

Mr. Brown then asked leave to amend by striking out the term "duplicate assessment book," which was granted.

Then arose the question as to whether the taxes could be recovered in a suit against the city, and City Attorney Dow said that was the course of procedure with respect to the recovery of such money and that that procedure would obtain with respect to the city.

Judge Greene then overruled the demurrer and allowed ten days in which to answer.

ASSAULTED HIS FATHER.

Tim Traynor Is In Prison on a Very Serious Charge.

Tim Traynor, an alleged member of the "Sporting Life" gang, has been in the City Prison for several days. Against his name on the small book there is a serious charge, that of assaulting his own father with a deadly weapon.

The affair occurred early last week. The father, Thomas Traynor, claims that every time Tim gets intoxicated he goes home and creates a disturbance.

The old man has lived in fear of his son for a couple of years, and the last time Tim called at his father's house the younger man seemed surlier than usual, and the father started for the street to call a policeman.

The young man followed his father, and at the front gate, it is alleged, slashed the old man in the shoulder with a dagger.

He was immediately arrested. When seen this morning, young Traynor told a Tribune man that he and his father had always been the best of friends, and that there must have been some mistake. His father, he said, must have mistaken him for some one else.

Wants a New Trial.

On Briefs.

The case of Harris against Ames in which the plaintiff sues for the recovery of a certain amount of money alleged to have been obtained from her by the defendant, her brother in a fraudulent manner was agreed to be submitted on briefs before Judge Ellsworth.

A Big Claim Allowed.

Judge Ogden this morning allowed a big claim against the executor of the estate of the late Charles T. H. Palmer, namely Henry A. Palmer by whom it had been allowed. It is that of the Oakland Paving Company for $46,068.86.

COURT NEWS

Judge Hall's decree in the matter of the Pleasanton Stock Farm Company, which has been declared insolvent, has been filed. It is ordered that the Sheriff shall take possession of the property, except such of the same as shall be exempt from execution, and keep possession of the same until an assignee shall be appointed.

On the 10th of next month, it is decided that a meeting of the creditors of the company will be held for the purpose of electing an assignee.

The indebtedness of the farm unsatisfied in this instance is as follows: C. H. Wise, $4.85; J. H. Neal, $734.65; C. H. Dall, $102.05; Chadbourne Warehouse Company, $512; Cutler & Silver, $38.25, making a total of $1,391.80.

In the matter of the estate of Eliza Tompkins, John W. Tompkins, executor of the will, Mrs. Mary E. Platt, Mrs. Sarah C. Hatch, Mrs. Emma J. Tompkins, Florence Hatch, J. H. Tompkins and Frank L. Adams have been cited to appear before Judge Ogden on the 26th of September.

Charles A. Conger has been cited to appear on an order for an examination on the 13th of September, at the instance of John H. Kester, who claims that Conger has omitted from his inventory in insolvency certain property which he possessed at the time of the filing of the petition.

Henry G. Ellsworth has filed an answer to the petition of Oliver Ellsworth et al., in which he admits that the plaintiffs are owners of the property involved in the suit, and consents that a decree be made in accordance with the complaint.

Fred Esty has filed a statutory demurrer to the complaint of Dougery brothers.

W. E. Topham has filed a denial to the complaint of George H. Bradford that he is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $640.

The final account in the matter of the estate of Victoire S. St. D. Darch has been filed by executor J. E. de St. Denis. The total amount received was $400, and disbursed $334.80, leaving a balance of $65.20.

Adolph Anderson has been cited to appear in Judge Ogden's court September 13th to nominate a guardian for himself, for which position Charles E. Snook is an applicant.

Warren T. Hitt, T. G. Daniells and W. J. Urton have been appointed appraisers of the estate of J. L. Fast.

A decree of foreclosure for $336 has been issued by Judge Ellsworth in favor of J. H. T. Watkinson as against Isabella Kuniz et al.

The bond of the assignee, D. E. Besecker, in the sum of $500, in the insolvency of Howard E. Wright, with Mary J. Miller and Matilda Hirleman as sureties, has been filed.

SPLENDID PROSPECT FOR THE HOSPITALS.

Newspapermen Will Try Their Skill Against the City Hall Ball Players.

Captain Harry Thomas of the City Hall baseball team this morning challenged the city officials to play a game of baseball next Saturday. Rohan and Callahan of the fire department will be the battery for the Oakland nine.

A week from Saturday the City Hall team will cross bats with the Oakland newspaper men. The newspaper men will begin practicing this afternoon on the St. Mary's College grounds.

Councilman George J. Earl, captain of the Council nine, has sent a challenge to the Board of Education. The game will be played in two weeks.

DOUBT AMERICAN GOVERNMENT REPORTS.

A Criticism From London That Is Not Creditable to This Country.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—The Mark Lane Express, reviewing the crop situation, says the wet weather has seriously delayed the harvest and that the new wheat is bound to suffer.

Continuing, the paper asserts that advices show the Russian crop to be decidedly below the average, while the American crop is probably above the average. In this connection, the Mark Lane Express says that information regarding the crop appears to be kept back, and adds that the experience of recent years leads to the American Government advices being placed upon a much lower level of authority than those of other countries.

Saved the Crew.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PUT-IN-BAY, O., Aug. 30.—The sloop-yacht Cora V. capsized in last night's squall, the worst that has struck here in some time. A pleasure party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Revera and son of Cincinnati, Elmer Banning and Ben Clark and the crew of the yacht were aboard. They were rescued by a life crew after struggling about in the water for a little while.

Death of "Ensign" Corning.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Erastus Corning died today of apoplexy aged 70 years. He was descended from Samuel or "Ensign" Corning of Beverly, Mass., and was one of the wealthiest men in the State. His charities were numerous.

Beat the Rivals

John F. Conners of this city, now in charge of the Examiner Bureau at Port Townsend, Washington, is achieving great success in that capacity. In a telegram to the Examiner he stated that they had succeeded in gaining six hours ahead of all other papers in the country, in getting Clondyke news to the paper. This was a clever piece of work as all the large papers of the country were represented.

To Honor the West.

THE CITY DEMURS TO FLANAGAN'S SUIT.

Right to Fix Water Rates Is the Question at Issue.

Many Reasons Advanced Why the Complaint Should Be Dismissed.

The City of Oakland, through City Attorney Dow has filed a demurrer to the complaint of E. J. Flannagin against the city for the purpose of testing the right of the city to establish rates for the several water companies now doing business in this city.

The demurrer sets forth a number of reasons among the following: That the court has no jurisdiction; that the Mayor of the city has not been joined in the issue; that the City of Oakland is not a necessary party defendant; that it cannot be ascertained from the complaint whether the water companies in question, supply water to other communities than those of Oakland; that it cannot be ascertained either whether or not the improvements to be made in 1898 by the water companies are necessary to be made this year; that it cannot be ascertained whether the value of the capitol stock of the Contra Costa Company decreased from par to $38.75 per share and finally that it cannot be ascertained whether the income of the companies will be sufficient to form a fair and reasonable compensation.

Notice is also given that the city on the 13th of September will move to strike out nearly all the principal features in the complaint.

TRIED TO DIE.

Chas. Spencer's Drinking Brought Him to the Receiving Hospital.

Charles H. Spencer, the horseman who was taken to the Receiving Hospital with a broken leg, is now resting easily. Until last night, although the accident occurred last Thursday, Spencer was raving and unable to sleep. He had been drinking heavily prior to the accident and was suffering from delirium tremens.

He tried to kill himself by banging his head against the iron bed posts. Doctors Stratton and Milton ordered him strapped to the bed. Opiates were administered in large quantities and the man finally fell into a restless slumber last evening.

Today he is much quieter, although he is still out of his head.

DAMAGED BY SMOKE.

An Investigation of a Suspicious Fire on Washington Street.

Fire Warden Fred Murdoch and the police are investigating a fire which occurred in the clothing store of Tocha & Rogers at 1016 Washington street early yesterday morning.

There is no cause suggested for the fire. It started under the counter near the book-keeper's desk and was shooting upward toward the ceiling when the fire department arrived.

As soon as the Thirteenth street chemical arrived on the scene a line was run in and the flames extinguished in a short while, not, however, till the smoke had damaged the goods to the extent of $1,000. The damage was covered by insurance.
